From Muelday June 23. to Daturday June 27. 1719.

Petrisboure, May 29, O.S. T is advild from Revel, that the Men of War which were fitted out there have been frome time at Sea; that Part of them are emplo ed t transport from thence to Abo in Finland three Regiments of Foot, defigned to ferve on board the Gillies which are there; and that the others cruife on all Merchant-Ships going to Sweden. They had already taken about 30 Prizes of feveral Nations, among them five Ships belonging to the Subjects of the King of Great Britain, viz. the Unity from Hull, and the St. George, both bound for Stockholm; the William of Glalgow, the Nathaniel of Yarmouth, and the Mary of Dublin. A confiderable Number of Gallies have been built here, for this Summer's Service. To Morrow being the Czar's Birth-Day, a new Ship of 50 Guns will be launched; and immediately after His Czarith Majefty will fet out for Cronflot, whither the Gallies will foon follow, they having get a board all their Neceflaries, as well as imbarked their Compliments of Men; but 'tis yet doubted whether the Fleet can be ready to fail from Cronflot before the Middle of June. On the zoth Infant General Jagoskinski began his Journey for Aland, to affilf at the Congrefs there in the Quality of the Czar's Minifter Plenipotentiary.

B rne, June 14. The Sovereign Council continues its Deliberations upon the Propolals that have been made Litely for eftablifting feveral forts of Manufactures in this Canton; and it was refolved in their Meeting of the toth Inftant, that for the Encouragement of Foreigners who fhould be willing to come and fettle here for that Purpole, the Right of Habitation, called Le Droit des Bourgeois babitants, fhould be granted to fuch as fhould upon Examination be judged uleful towards the fetting up of the faid Manufactures. A Committee is appointed by this State to draw up Inftructions for the Deputies which were named lately to allift on the Part of this Canton at the next General Diet, which is to meet the 2d of July, at Baden, and where 'tis faid the French Ambaffladour the Marquis d'Avarey, will likewife affift, he being expected back for that Purpole from Paris, whither he went lately by Order of his Court. It is advifed from Coire, that the Grifons have finifhed their new Treaty of Capitulation of Milan with the Baron de Greath, his Imperial Majefty's Envoy to the Three Leagues.

voy to the Three Leagues. Bruffels, fune 24. On the 21ft Inftant the Count de Senneterre, Ambalfadour from the most Christian King to His Britannick Majefty, atrived here from Paris, and immediately made a Visit to the Marquess de Prié, who returned it the next Day, and treated him at Dinner, with feveral other Persons of Distinction. Yesterday in the Afternoon he proceeded on his Journey for Hanover.

From the Marshal Berwick's Camp at Renterie, within a League of St. Sebastian, June 24. On the $2d the King's Army decamped irom Iron, and came hither. A Batallion of the Enemy's Miquelets appeared near Oyarlon, and feemed refolved to moleft its in our March; but Brigadier Bulkeley facing them with fome Companies of Grenadiers, and fome Pickets, hindred them from attempting any thing, till a Batallion of our Harquebustiers of Kousfillon coming up, drove them from their Post, and purfued them two Leagues. We have no further Account of the King of Spain or of his Army, fince they retired towards Pampelona.

Hanover, June 17. Mr. Whitworth left Berlin on the 22d Inftant, came hither on the 25th, and immediately proceeded to wait on His Majeffy at Pyrmont, from whence His Majeffy is expected back here on the 30th Inftant.

Hague, June 27. On the 16th Instant Princo Koufakin acquainted the Deputies of the States General in a Conference, that the Czar being informed fome Jealoufies were entertained, that the great Preparations making at Petersbourg for the Imbarkation of a confiderable Number of Troops might regard Mecklenbourg; his Czarifh Majcfty had ordered him to make a Declaration in Form, that the faid Preparations were defigned againft Sweden, that the Czar would not concern himfelf for the Duke of Mecklenbourg any other way than by good Offices, and that he would not intermeddle in the Bufinets of the Empire, or raife any Troubles there. The Minifter of Priffia being impowered by his Court to treat here of an amicable Agreement, under the Mediation of the States, on the Differences between that King and the Houfe of Naflaw-Frieland, about the late King William's Succeffion, the Landgrave of Heffe Caffel and the Princets of Naflaw, Guardians to the Young Prince, have written to the States that on their Part they were ready to begin the Negotiation, and would to that End fend forthwith their Minifters hither: Baron Dalwich is the Perlon defigned by the Landgrave. The Mufcovites hiving taken 20 Dutch Ships going to Sweden, the Merchants of Amflerdam have complained of it to the States, and petitioned for a Squadron's being fent to the Baltick to protect their Trade. The Town of Amflerdam has protefted againft M. Burmania's going Ambaffadour to Sweden : But as this Matter depends on the Plurality of Voices in the States General, the Six Provinces who named him for that Ambaffy perfici in their Refolution of fending him, and his Influictions will foon be ready.

Windfor, June 23. This Day the moft Noble Evelyn, Duke of Kingfton, Lord Prefident of the Couneil, was Inflalled Knight Companion of the moft Noble Order of the Gatter, in the Chapel Royal of St. George, within the College, in the Caffle of Windfor; by the moft Noble Henry, Duke of Keut, Lord Privy Seal, John Duke of Montagu, Mafter of the Great Wardrobe and Captain of the firft Troop of His Ma-Jefly's Life-Guards, and Thomas Holles Dake of Newcaffle, Lord Chamberlain of His Majefly's Houfhold; Knights Companions of the fair the Great Seal of the Order; the Atchievements of the late Earl of Albemarle having been firft offered by the two Senior Knights Commificients: And when all the ufual Ceremonies had been performed in the Chapel, the Proceffion was made from thence through the Great South Deor of the Church up to the Cattle, and the Knights Companions, the Officers of the Order, and a Great Number of the Nobility, and other Perfons of Quality and Diffinction, were fplendidly entertained at Dinner in the Great Guard-Chamber.

Whitehall, June 26, 1719.

Whereas a Letter without a Name, dated on Wednefday last, was fent to one of His Majesly's Principal Secretaries of State, with a Printed Paper inclosed: The Person who wrote the said Letter is defined to come to that Scoretary's Office next Monday Morning at Eleven of the Clock.

Admiralty-Office, June 25, 1719. The Lords Commifiumers of the Admiral: y do hereby give Notice, That they have ordered the Impressing of Seafaring Men for His Majesty's Ships to be discontinued from this Day in and about the Town, and on the River of Thames; and that not any Mcn will be Impressid from Ships or Vesses which are outward bound from any Port of this Kingdom: And it is their Lordships Command, that all Captains and Officers of His Majesty's Ships, whom it may concern, do take Notice thereof ascordingly. J. Burchette

Cuftom-Houfe, London, June 25, 1719-Whereas by an AE of Parliament paffed in the fif Tear of His prefent Majefty it is enacted, That if any Perfon thall make, mix or colour, or caufe to be made, mixed or coloured, any fort of Snuff with any fort of Okers, Umber, or any other kind of Colouring (except with Water tinged with the Colouring commonly called Venetian Red only)" or thall mix, or caufe to be mixed with any fort
