Copy of a Letter from the Marquis de Lede written the 20th of June, from the Camp at Franca Villa, to the Count de Montemar at Palermo.

I Have the Honour to acquaint your Excellency, with all the Joy you can imagine, that the Enemy having to Day attacked his Majesty's Army in three different Places, we had the good Fortune to break them, and to repulse them with very considerable Loss on their Side, but we do not yet know the Number. This Victory is owing to the Valour of the Troops, to that of the Generals, and to their Experience. The General Officers among the Wounded, are, the Chevalier de Lede, and Don Juan Caracciolo whose Wound is dangerous. Among the killed is Brigadier Don Pedro de Tanqueux. Your Excellency will be pleased to communicate this News to the Pretor and the Senate, to whom I do not write, not having a Secretary with me; but I will not fail to do it To Morrow. I desire you will order, that in Thanksgiving for the Victory with which God has blessed our Arms, Te Deum be sung. I am, &c.
The Marquis de Lede.

Copy of two Letters from Count Mercy to Sir George Byng.

From the Camp at Franca Villa, June 22.

S I R,

I Have the Honour to inform your Excellency, that Yesterday I took Post above the Enemy's Camp, and am possessed of all the Eminences of it, having beaten them from several; but Night being come on, and I being dangerously wounded in the Reins, the Ball remaining till in my Body, I have been obliged to leave this Affair to M. de Zumjungen, who on Account of the Difficulties which he and the other Generals equally find, is of Opinion they cannot be attacked all at once without great Loss, and that the surer Way is to endeavour to settle our Communication with the Sea, in order to starve them, which is what they are now preparing to do. I will assist them with my Advice, being unable to act, which is a mortal Affliction to me. We have a great many Officers killed or wounded, as well as the Enemy; but nothing decisive has passed yet. The Enemy are intrenching and securing themselves as well as they can. This is all I am yet able to tell you, except the bad News of your Son's being wounded, who behaved himself with all possible Bravery. I keep him near me, and cause all imaginable Care to be taken of him, having the Honour to be most perfectly, Sir, &c.

The Count de Mer y,

From the Camp at Franca Villa, June 23.

S I R,

I Have written this Moment to M. de Furstembust, Collonel Commandant at Melazzo, to send me two Battalions and the Recruits which may have arrived; and as he will want a Convoy, I desire your Excellency to furnish him with a Man of War for that Purpose. I hope you will forthwith send it to him; having the Honour to be, &c.

The Count de Mercy.

Extra

[Price Three Half Pence.]

Extract of a Letter from Captain Saunders, dated from Naples the 30th of June.

ON the 20th Instant the Imperial Army under General Mercy attacked the Spaniards in their Camp at Franca Villa, and forced them from several Heights and advantageous Posts, though with considerable Loss.

As soon as Sir George Byng received an Account of what passed, from General Mercy; he sent me to Melazzo to dispatch two Battalions from thence: Which being immediately shipped, were put under the Convoy of His Majesty's Ship Captain, with Orders to proceed directly through the Faro to the Southward near Tavermina; where His Majesty's Ship Rupert with the Victuallers for the Army lie: Sir George Byng embarked on the Neapolitan Gallies the 26th in the Evening, and passed through the Faro; designing to proceed to Syracuse, to propose to Count Maffei the sending from thence, by Transports now lying there, four Battalions to reinforce General Mercy. I am ordered to continue here some Days with His Majesty's Ship the Orford.

P. S. It is advised, that General Zumjungen was not without Hopes of attacking a Post near the Enemy's Camp before the Succours arrived; in which, if he should succeed, it would intirely cut off the Communication of the Spanish Army with Catania. Upon the whole, it appears to me, that the late Battle was to the Advantage of the Imperial Army, though the Spaniards made very great Rejoycings on their Side; which, I believe was rather to spirit up the People, than from any Advantage they had obtained.

Relation of the Battle between the Emperour's and the Spanish Army, which came from a wounded Officer.

Tavermina, June 25, 1719, N. S.

THE 20th of this Month the Emperour's Army came up with the Spanish Army at Franca Villa: At Four a-Clock in the Afternoon the Fire began on both Sides, the Enemies were posted on the other Side of the River called Rosolino, and were behind their Trenches, which were so strong, that they seemed to have been made a long time. Our Troops attacked them even open, which has cost us much Blood; the Night obliged us to leave off Firing.

On our Side are killed Collonel Odeyard and the Prince of Holstein, and wounded Collonel Balderat, Coll. Beaufort, Coll. Odeffad, General Seckendorf, General Lantizy, General Rhor, Admiral Byng's Son, a Danish Voluntier, the Prince of Hesse Cassel, and General Mercy.

We have lost in this Action betwixt 3 and 4000 Men, but it is said the Number killed on the Enemy's Side is greater; among their dead are the Marquis de Ledes Brother, and General Armandaris, and a Prince whose Name is not yet known.

The 24th the Hussars arrived at the Waterside, and having seen the Convoy arrived they returned to the Hills.

The 25th, at Four a-Clock in the Afternoon, the Gallies which were on that Coast fired at the Enemy, and took a Fort near Tavermina; the Enemy marched out to hinder them, but the Gallies with their Cannon made them retire.

The 25th at Night, there arrived about 4000 Men, Horse and Foot, of the Imperialists, with General Wachtendonck, at the Water side.

Dublin, July 3. This Day the two Houses of Parliament attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant at the Castle, and presented to him their several Addresses of Thanks to His Majesty, upon his Grace's Speech to them. They likewise presented Addresses to the Lord Lieutenant himself, on the same Occasion.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, do heartily congratulate your Majesty on the Success which Almighty God hath given your Majesty's Councils and Arms against your Rebellious Subjects in North Britain, who notwithstanding the unparalleled Mercy formerly shewn them, with the Assistance of a foreign Power have again wickedly endeavoured to disturb the Quiet of your Majesty's Reign, in favour of a Popish Pretender.

We cannot sufficiently express our Thanks to your Majesty for your tender Regard for the Security and Welfare of all your People, and particularly for your Majesty's Resolution to support and maintain the Church by Law Established, and your having it under your peculiar peculiar Care; and we are unanimously disposed and determined to take into our serious Consideration, what may be the most proper Methods (not inconsistent with the Security of the Constitution in Church and State) to promote and cherish Union among all Protestants, and to render them more useful and capable of supporting your Majesty's Government and our common Interest.

We think our selves farther obliged to return Thanks to your Majesty, both for continuing his Grace the Duke of Bolton in the Chief Government of this your Kingdom, and also for sending him again to us at so seasonable a Juncture, that by his active Prudence and Diligence he might put the Kingdom into a proper Posture of Defence against all Attempts of Foreign and Domestick Enemies, of which, through God's Blessing, we have found the happy Effect in the Tranquillity which we now enjoy.

As your Majesty, by Providence of God, delivered us from all Apprehensions of Danger at your seasonable and happy Accession to the Throne; so we implore the same Divine Providence to continue your Majesty long to Reign over us, to transmit the present Blessings and Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gentle Reign to future Ages.

Enoch Sterne, Cl. Parl.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer to the Lords
Address to His Majesty.

My Lords,

I Will transmit this your Loyal and Dutiful Address, and take Care the same be laid before His Majesty as soon as possible.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeesses in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Disappointment of your Enemies in the late intended Invasion of this Kingdom, and the Suppression of the unnatural Rebellion in North Brittain, which, under God, are owing to the Wisdom of your Councils, and your indefatigable Endeavours for the Happiness and Security of all your Subjects.

As we are bound in Duty and Gratitude to return your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for Calling us together at this Time, to consult of the most proper Methods for continuing that Peace and Tranquillity we now enjoy under your just and prosperous Government; so we will, with the greatest Satisfaction and Care, promote every thing that may conduce to so desirable an End.

We thankfully acknowledge your Majesty's peculiar Care of the Church as by Law Established, and esteem it one of the greatest Blessings of your auspicious Reign.

As its most imminent Danger has always proceeded from the great Number of Papists and other disaffected Persons among us so apparently attached to the Pretender to your Crown, we cannot but think it our Duty and Interest to promote a good Agreement and Union among all Protestants, to enable us to withstand the wicked Designs of such numerous and malicious Enemies; we will therefore readily enter into the Consideration of such Methods as may render the Protestant Dissenters more easy and capable of supporting the Protestant Interest of this Kingdom, as far as may be consistent with the Peace and Security of our present happy Constitution in Church and State.

And since neither the Mildness of your Majesty's Reign, nor the consummate Wisdom of your Councils (which, by God's Blessing, have always confounded the Devices of your Enemies both at Home and Abroad) can prevent their restless Endeavours to disturb the Peace and Quiet of your Majesty's Dominions, we will use such Precautions as may render any such Attempts unsuccessful for the future, and with Hearts full of Duty, and truly sensible of the Blessings we now enjoy, with great Cheerfulness and Unanimity give such necessary Supplies as may support this your Majesty's Government with Honour.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer to the Commons Address to His Majesty.

Gentlemen,

I Will take Care that this your Dutiful and Loyal Address shall be laid before His Majesty by the very first Opportunity.

To his Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governour of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, with great Satisfaction congratulate your Grace on your safe Return to the Government, at a Time when His Majesty's Affairs, as well as the Safety of this Kingdom, seemed to require the Assistance of His best Subjects.

As our Deliverance from those apparent Dangers with which we were lately threatened, require our thankful Acknowledgments to God for Prospering His Majesty's Councils and Arms; so those Gracious Expressions of His Majesty's tender Regard for the Safety and Welfare of his People, contained in your Grace's excellent Speech from the Throne, call for all Returns of Loyalty and Gratitude to the best of Princes.

His Majesty's repeated Assurances that he hath the Welfare of the Church by Law Established under His peculiar Care, and that he resolves always to support and maintain it, confirms to us, that sensible Pleasure which we have enjoyed since His happy Accession to the Throne, and His Majesty's reasonable recommending Union amongst Protestants, at a Time when too many who call themselves so, have engaged in the Interest of the Pretender, will oblige us to contribute our Endeavours to make all His faithful Subjects as far easy as we shall find consistent with the Safety of our Constitution in Church and State.

As an Instance of Gratitude for His Majesty's tender Regard for our Welfare, we beg Leave to assure your Grace, that we will give the utmost Dispatch to the Publick Business, and in our several Stations resolve to contribute every thing in our Power, to promote the Safety and Prosperity of His Majesty's Government, and to make the Administration thereof, under your Grace, Happy and Easy.

En. Sterne, Cl. Parl.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer to the Lords Address.

My Lords,

IT is a great Satisfaction to me to find that my Endeavours for the Service of His Majesty, and the Good of the Kingdom, are acceptable to your Lordships and find your Approbation.

To his Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governour of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Grace our humble Thanks for your Excellent Speech from the Throne.

Your constant loyal Affection to His Majesty's sacred Person and Government, your steady Adherence to the Constitution in Church and State, and your late unwearied Endeavours for our Security and Preservation, make us highly sensible of His Majesty's great Goodness in calling us at this Time together under your Grace's Administration, to consult of the most proper Methods for continuing that Peace and Tranquillity we now enjoy.

And we assure your Grace, that it is our firm Resolution to improve the Opportunity to the utmost of our Power, by providing such Remedies, and raising such Supplies, as may enable His Majesty to repel or suppress any Attempts that may be made to involve this Kingdom in the Calamities of an intestine Rebellion, or a foreign Invasion.

We beg Leave to assure your Grace, that as it shall be our principal Care to support and maintain the Church as by Law Established, so we cannot be unmindful of the good Affections which the Protestant Dissenters have always shewn to His Majesty, and the Succession in his Royal House; and therefore shall consider if any Method can be found whereby such reasonable Ease and Indulgence may be given them, as may be consistent with the Peace and Security of our present happy Constitution in Church and State, and render them more useful and capable of supporting the Protestant Interest of this Kingdom.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer to the Commons Address.

Gentlemen,

I Thank you for this Affectionate and kind Address, and do assure you I shall not cease to use my utmost Endeavours to promote every thing that may tend to the Security, Interest, and Welfare of this Kingdom.

Hannover, July 4. O. S. An Express from Naples has brought a Letter written to the Viceroy Count Daun by General Mercy, dated the 27th of June, N. S. from the Camp near Franca Villa; in which he acquaints him, that his Design was to attack the Enemy again, or at least to streighten them in such Manner, as to oblige them by Want of Provisions to draw off, of which he did not doubt to make good Advantage.

Hague, July 18, N. S. The Deputies of four Provinces who consented to an Explanation, proposed to them by the British and French Ministers, of their Resolution for acceding to the secret and separate Articles of the Quadruple Alliance, have by Order of their Principals drawn up a Declaration, containing the Reasons of their respective Provinces for agreeing to this Explanation, to which they require by the said Declaration the Consent of the States of Holland in the strongest Terms. The same Deputies have also, by the Direction of their Principals, required the Pensionary to represent to the States of Holland in the next Assembly, the great Dangers and Inconveniences to which this Republick will be exposed by not entering into the Quadruple Alliance. The Marquiss de Prié having fully performed on the Part of the Emperour, all the Conditions of the new Convention relating to the Barrier-Treaty, complains that the States refusing Orders to the Governours of the Towns where they have Garrisons, to assist the Civil Magistrates in case of any Tumults or Rifings of the People, though they had promised the said Orders should be dispatched as soon as the Conditions of the Convention were intirely executed. The States of the Province of Holland assemble To-Morrow.

Navy-Office, May 27, 1719.

By the Acts of the 3d and 4th and 12th of the late Queen, for the encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores from her Majesty's Plantations in America, the Commissioners of the Navy are required to make out Bills to the Importers of such Stores, for a Reward or Premium after; and according to several Rates therein particularly set forth; provided that the Pre-emption and Refusal of such Naval Stores be offered and tendered to the Commissioners of the Navy for her Majesty's Service, upon landing the same: And it being observed by the said Commissioners, that several of the Importers of the said Stores have neglected to make Tender thereof at the Navy-Office for His Majesty's Service, upon landing the same; they have consulted the Attorney-General in this Case, who hath given his Opinion thereon, That if any Neglect on the Merchants Part appears that he might sooner have made a tender thereof, he thereby loses the Benefit of the Premium granted by the said Act. And it being conceived that a reasonable time for the Merchants making a Tender of the said Stores at the Navy-Office, may be within a Fortnight at the Port of London, and within a Month at the other Ports in this Kingdom, after their landing the said Stores; these are to give Notice thereof to the Importers of such Stores for their Information therein, for his and their bringing with their Tenders Certificates from the proper Officers of the Custom-house of the time of landing the Goods they shall offer for the Service.
