Dudley Metropolitan Borough

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990, SECTIONS 69 AND 70

DESIGNATION OF THE DUDLEY TOWN CENTRE CONSERVATION AREA AND THE REVISED BOUNDARY OF THE CASTLE HILL CONSERVATION AREA

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that by Resolution dated 17 March 2005, the Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council designated as the Dudley Town Centre Conservation Area the area of Dudley Town Centre described in the Schedule below and revised the designated boundary of the existing Castle Hill Conservation Area to include the addresses listed on the Castle Hill Conservation Area Schedule below, in pursuance of sections 69 and 70 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.

An effect of the new designations is that the former Priory Street Conservation Area and the former boundary of the Castle Hill Conservation Area are now superseded.

The Conservation Areas have been designated because Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council has determined that they are areas of special architectural or historic interest, and it is desirable to preserve or enhance their character or appearance.

The principal effects of designation as a conservation area are as follows:

1. The Council is under a duty to prepare proposals to ensure the preservation and enhancement of the area.
2. Consent must be obtained from the Council for the demolition of any building in the area (subject to limited exemptions).
3. Six weeks' notice must be given to the Council before works are carried out to any tree in the area.
4. Special publicity must be given to planning applications for development in the area.
5. In carrying out any functions under the planning Acts (and, in particular, in determining applications for planning permission and listed building and conservation area consent) the Council and the Secretary of State are required to pay special attention to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character or appearance of the area.

6. In considering proposals the Council will in particular take account of the document "Conservation Area Character Appraisal for Dudley Town Centre" that is published as Supplementary Planning Guidance.

The boundaries of the Dudley Town Centre Conservation area and Revised Castle Hill Conservation Area may be inspected, free of charge, during normal office hours at the office of the local planning authority at 3 St James's Road, Dudley, West Midlands, DY1 1HZ or can be accessed on the Council's web site at: <http://www.dudley.gov.uk/planning> as can the "Conservation Area Character Appraisal for Dudley Town Centre".

Other NoticesROYAL COMMISSION INVITES EVIDENCE FOR ITS STUDY ON THE URBAN ENVIRONMENT

The Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution today invited evidence for its study on the urban environment. The work will examine the environmental impacts of urban living and the implications for health and well-being.¹

The Chair of the Royal Commission², Sir John Lawton, said today:

“Around 80 per cent of people in the UK live in towns and cities. The quality of the urban environment affects our daily lives and just as importantly our ability to safeguard the global environment. Urban areas have major environmental impacts that extend well beyond their boundaries, while the environment inside urban areas has important consequences for people’s health and well-being.”

“The Commission wants to hear views on how urban areas can be made more environmentally sustainable and, at the same time, provide a better quality of life. We will be taking a long-term view, and considering what changes are needed to urban design, housing, energy, transport and management of natural resources.”

The Commission welcomes views from anyone who wishes to contribute.³ The deadline for responses is Tuesday 16 August 2005.
