Revel, July 2, O. S.

BY Letters from Hangut of the 29th past Advice is brought of the Czar's Arrival at that Place with his Fleet; the same Advices inform us that his Czarish Majesty designed to go from thence to Abo by Land, ordering the Ships and Gallies to make the best of their Way thither. Yesterday arrived at this Place M. Puskin, who has been employed at the Court of Denmark; he only waits here for an Opportunity to pass by Sea to his Czarish Majesty, in order to give an Account of his Negotiation.

Copenhagen, July 29. We have had no Letters from Norway since those of the 19th. The King of Denmark was then at Stromstadt, and the 16 Battallions which are to act against Mastrand were embarked. By the Master of a Ship taken and sent hither by Admiral Tordenschiold we learn, that the Danes began to bombard the Castle of Mastrand on Saturday the 22d at Two a-Clock in the Morning, and continued firing all that Day and the Day after, when the Master came away.

Berlin, July 29. M. Maash, who had been taken by the Muscovites in his Return from Stockholm and came hither some Days ago, has been with the King at Potsdam, to make his Report of the State of Sweden, and of his Usage at Petersbourg, where his Papers were seized and examined. M. Loos, Marechal of the Court of Saxony, has been here some Days. Mr. Whitworth, the King of Great Britain's Minister, is frequently with his Prussian Majesty.

From the Camp before St. Sebastian, July 30, N. S. The Siege of this Place is so far advanced, that we expect to be Masters of the Town To-Morrow or next Day. Our Trenches are carried on to the Covered Way, and the Breach is in so good a Condition that Deserters come down it in the Day-Time to our Trenches. The Besieged have made a very mean Defence, having not attempted to make so much as one Sally; so that we have lost but very few Men. The King of Spain remains with his Army about Pampelona.

Paris, Aug. 6, N. S. This Morning Brigadier Buikley arrived here, being sent by the Marshal Berwick with an Account, that on the 1st Instant about Eight in the Morning the Governour of St. Sebastian beat a Parley: He demanded that Part of his Garrison should be allowed to march out of the Town thro' the Breach with all the Marks of Honour, and the rest to retire into the Castle; but was answered, that all must march into the Castle or none; whereupon he delivered up one of the Gates of the Town to the French, and retired with all his Troops into the Castle.

Office of Ordnance, July 31, 1719.

Whereas Robert Huntsworth, Matross, aged 29 Years, a Carpenter by Trade, five Foot six Inches high, of a dark brown Complexion, wears a dark brown Wig, did desert about the 23d Instant out of the Detachment of one of the Companies of the Royal Artillery at Woolwich, under the Command of Captain James Richards: Whoever shall secure the said Person, and give Notice to the above-said Captain James Richards at Woolwich, or at the Office of Ordnance in the Tower of London, shall receive 5*l.* as a Reward.

The Managers and Directors of the Lotteries having pursuant to the Notification given in the Gazette of Tuesday the 14th of July last, cut off into the respective Boxes marked A and B, the Tickets which are to be drawn for determining the Chances in the said Lotteries, do further notify, that they will begin the drawing of the Tickets out of the said Boxes at Guildhall, London, on Monday the 21st of September next, at Nine in the Forenoon; therefore all Persons entitled to Tickets, now lying at the Bank uncalled for, are desired to take out the same before the drawing of the said Lotteries begins.
