

The London Gazette.

DU MURPHY OF ANNUALITY.

From Saturday August 8. to Tuesday August 11. 1719.

Berlin, August 8.

THE Queen, the Prince, and the eldest Princess went last Week to Wusterhausen, where the King is at present, and where his Majesty usually passes this Season in Field-Sports: But as the Duke of Holstein has desired to come hither, it is believed his Majesty will return in a few Days to receive his Visit. The youngest Princess, who was left behind in this Town, has been ill of a Dysentery, which Distemper reigns very much here. This Morning M. Stahl, the King's Physician, was sent for to Wusterhausen, his Majesty having been taken ill Yesterday of the same Distemper, with an intermitting Fever; but it is hoped this may soon pass off.

Berne, Aug. 9. M. Hogguer, who had the Character of the late King of Sweden's Resident with the Evangelical Cantons during the last Year of his Majesty's Reign, has since been confirmed in that Post by her present Majesty, who has written a Letter to the said Protestant Cantons upon this Subject, dated at Stockholm the 16th of April, which the Resident has communicated to the Cantons, who have accordingly acknowledged him as such, and congratulated him upon this Occasion. The Sovereign Council of Two Hundred was extraordinarily assembled here on the 4th Instant, upon a Letter they had received from the City of Biene, with Regard to its Dispute with the Bishop of Porentru, and they ordered a Letter to be written to the said Bishop to exhort him to accommodate Matters with the said City, whose Quiet and reasonable Interests this Canton is obliged to support by Vertue of the Comburghership between them. A Conference is appointed to be held at Schaffhausen on the 12th Instant, between the Deputies of Zurich, Berne, Lucerne, and Ury, for accommodating the Differences which have subsisted so long between the Canton of Schaffhausen and its Subjects of Wilchinghen.

Hambourg, Aug. 11. We have received by Letters from Copenhagen of the 5th of this Month, the following Relation of the taking of Marstrand. On the 23d of July Rear-Admiral Tordenschiold advanced to attack the Swedish Flotilla lying in that Harbour, consisting of 7 Men of War, 2 Frigates, 3 Galliots, 3 Fireships, 1 Prahme, and 1 Galley: The Swedes, without making any Resistance, sunk 5 of their Men of War, 2 Galliots, and 1 Galley, and burnt the 6th; the Danes possessed themselves of the other Man of War of 44 Guns, the Prahme carrying 18 Guns, and the other Vessels. This done, the Danish Rear-Admiral bombarded the Town of Marstrand, from whence the Garrison retired into the Castle called Carlstein, and on the 26th they surrendered to him upon Capitulation. Great Stores of Ammunition were found in the Place. In this Enterprize the Danes had but 20 Men killed or wounded. The King of Denmark with his Army is marched towards Udwalla and Bahus, on which Side of the Country the Swedes are much inferior in Strength, and are besides in great Want of Provisions.

Paris, Aug. 16. Orders are sent into Poitou and Auvergne for a considerable Number of Mules to be sent to Bayonne, to transport Ammunition and Provisions from thence to St. Jean Pied de port, for the Service of the Army commanded by the Marshal Berwick, which is to take its March that way towards Pampelona. The Regent has resolved to make a general Augmentation of the Regular Forces now on Foot; by adding a Number of Men to each Company of Infantry, and to every Troop of Horse or Dragoons; and Money is already issued for buying 8000 Horses for this Purpose. The Stock of the India Company is risen to 550 per Cent. The Parliament of Paris have published an Arrêt, by which they pass a Censure on a printed Paper, intitled, A Letter from the Bishop of Soissons to his Royal Highness the Duke of Orleans, Regent of the Kingdom, on Occasion of an Arrêt given in Parliament the 7th of June, against some Writings of that Bishop, order it to be torn and burnt by the common Hangman, and enjoin the said Bishop to own or disown, within eight Days, the writing, printing, and publishing of the said Libel. It is advised from Spain, that the Pretender was gone from Galicia into the Kingdom of Valencia, in order to return to Italy. The King of Spain was gone to Morella, in his Way to Madrid.

Hannover, July 31, O.S. On the 29th at Night there was a Ball at Herrenhausen, where were present divers Persons of Quality. Yesterday the King went out early a Shooting, and did not return till Night. The Prince of Baden is come hither in order to make His Majesty a Visit. To-Morrow, being the 1st of August, the new Water-works made at Herrenhausen will begin to play, and at Night there will be a Ball at Court.