

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday, May 29. to Thursday June 1. 1671.

Ratisbonne May 14.

Yesterday went hence the Bishop of Aichstadt, Commissioner for the Emperor at this Dyet, to his own house some miles from hence, leaving in the meantime the management of those Affairs in the hands of a person of Quality, appointed by the Emperor to that purpose; the Plenipotentiaries assemble dayly, in order to the perfecting of those matters that lye before them, with so much earnestness, that at present there seems to be a fair likelihood of finally concluding them; it is said that the Emperor hath by his Letters, pressed them to a speedy resolution in the matter of the Publick security and the perpetual Capitulation, the perfecting of which, would be so extraordinary an advantage to the whole Empire.

Vienna, May 20. His Imperial Majesty having been pleased, in consideration of the many and good services done him by the Count de Schafgorz, to receive him into the Council of State; yesterday the said Count arrived here from Silesia, where his ordinary Residence is, on his way to Laermburgh, to attend his Imperial Majesty, who still continues with the Court there.

The Count de Rothal, Principal Commissioner for the Emperor at Presburgh, arrived here on Sunday last, together with the Archbishop of Gran, to give his Imperial Majesty an account of the success of that Commission, intending to be back at Presburgh again the 28th instant, in order to the finishing the Process of several persons who are there upon their Tryals, about matters relating to the late Rebellion.

From Upper Hungary they write, that the General Spankaw, hath been to visit the several places and Fortifications of those parts, giving directions for the reinforcing of some, and the demolishing others of less importance, as might best advance his Imperial Majesties service here.

We are told that the Prince of Transilvania, in pursuance of the general Orders sent by the Grand Signior to all his Bassas and other Officers, not to give the least protection to any of the Rebels, but that they should rather put them into the hands of Justice; hath delivered up to such as are by the Emperor to that purpose appointed, several of those who had retired upon that account into those Countries.

Dantzick, May 23. From Warsaw they write, that the Marriage of Prince Demetrius Wisnowitski, Uncle to the present King, and under General of the Army, with the Princess of Ostrog, had been there celebrated in a most magnificent and extraordinary manner for three days together; their Majesties having been pleased to grace the Solemnity with their presence, and most of the Nobility of the Kingdom of both Sexes, appearing at it very rich and splendid in their Apparel and Equipage.

That the Council of war had been held there for several days, and was then parted, having first resolved, that the King should immediately for the security of the peace of the Kingdom, issue his third and last general Letters to the respective Palatinates, summoning the Nobility to appear well armed on horseback, against the middle of the next Month, according to the rules and orders, already prescribed in that particular, and such farther directions as they should receive from the Council of War, appointed to be held there again about ten days after; his Majesty withal declaring, that he would march with them in person into the Ukrain, to secure in time the peace of those parts: That the Princess Wisnowitski the Kings Mother, had been received there with very extraordinary respect, and an universal welcom from the people.

Palermo, May 2. Our Vice-Roy the Prince de Ligny, being perfectly recovered of his late indisposition, hath been advised by his Physicians to change the Air, and to go and pass some time in the Country, which in a day or two he accordingly intends, together with his Lady.

The 27th past arrived here the Marquis de Bayonne, General of the Gallies of Sicily, together with his Lady, from the Court at Madrid; they were received here, by our Vice-Roy and the rest of the Nobility, who went out to meet them, in a very obliging manner.

His Excellency hath given orders for the fitting out a squadron of Gallies, immediately to joyn as is thought, with those of Malta and Naples, in order to the keeping these Seas free from Pyrates this Summer.

Rome, May 9. The Marquis de Durazzo, Resident here on the part of the Republick of Genova, may in few days depart on his way home, a Galley of that City being arrived at Civita Vecchia for his transportation; in the interim the difference concerning the Fathers of the Inquisition there continues still, though some, who seem to be more active for the composing it, have offered, that there be added to the Inquisitor at Genova two Notaries, the one to be an Ecclesiastical Person, and the other a Secular; which Proposition, though it is thought most equal between the pretensions of both parties, will it is feared, not prove effectual for the accommodating this matter.

Here is a discourse of a Marriage to be treating between the Prince Giustintani, and the second Sister of the Duke Gasparo Altieri, but through the many difficulties that seem to rise in several particulars, we still doubt the success of it. On Thursday last was celebrated the Marriage of the Son of the Marquis Nari, with a Niece of the Cardinal Carpegna, in the presence of several Cardinals and other persons of quality.

A famous Astrologer here about Town, having it seems foretold, as he pretended, that some person of the highest quality here should dye this Month, he was thereupon some days since committed to prison for his presumption, where it is thought, he may remain, without he give good security to employ his Talent, with more caution for the future. The Prince Pamphilio hath since his Marriage with the Niece of the Cardinal Facchinetti, received the Compliments and visits of most of the persons of Quality about Town, to whom he has returned the like Civilities.