Naples, May 12.

Some days fince arrived here an Express from the Court at Madrid, with directions to our Vice Roy Don Pedro d'Arragon, to caufe the Galleys of this Kingdom to be immediately fitted out, in order to their joyning with those of Sicily and Maltha, for the fecurity of these Coafts this Summer, at the fame time came Letters to the Marquis de Villa Franca, General of our Galleys, from their Queen Regent, to repair with all the fpeed he could to Madrid, to the end, he might be back again in good time, to put to Sea with the Galleys.

His Exce llency hath lately ordered feveral Companies of Spanifs Infantry, to march towards Manfredonia and Leccio, for the defence and fecurity of those parts.

Dantick, May 26. By feveral Gentlemen lately come from the Court at Warfaw, we have had the particular relation of the extraordinary fplendor, with which was celebrated feveral days together, the Solemnity of the Mariage of Prince Demetrius Wifnowitski with the Princels d'Oftrog, who have fince received the Vifits and Complyments of all the perfons of quality about Town upon that occafion: They farther affure us, that the Kings general Letters for the fummoning the Nobility, againft the middle of the next Month, are difpatching with all the diligence imaginable, in which, they are the more prefied, by the continual Allarmes they ftill receive from the Wkrain, and parts adjacent, of the growing firength of the Coffacks, under the command of Dorofensko.

From Musicovy we heat, that the Rebels lie incamped along the River Wolga, and have quite interrupted the Trade, which the Inhabitants of Mosko had every year with Astracan and those other parts.

Brussells, June 2. Yesterday his Excellency the Count de Monterey returned hither from Ghent; as he passed into the Town, he took a view of thirty brave Troops of Horle, which his Excellency hath cauled to be drawn together about this City from feveral other parts : The fame day his Excellency went to visit the Fortifications of this place, to see how farr they were advanced in his abscence ; where he found all things to his great fatisfaction and content. It is now confidently reported that the Government of Oftend, will be conferred on the Maitre de Camp Manrique? a Spaniard of effeem and reputation, at orefent in Garrifon with his Regiment at Ipre. His present in Garrison with his Regiment at Ipre. Excellency hath fince his arrival caused the Grey coats he had ordered to be here made, to be diftributed amongst the Spanish Regiments; and the like are preparing for the reft of the Army, which they are to have every year for thirty Stivers apiece to be de-ducted out of their pay. Two days fince the Earl of Cafflehaven was according to the Commission he hath received from the King of Spain, declared by his Excellency Serjeant general of Battalia in these his Catholick Majesties Dominions. We hear that the French Court is at prefent at Tournay, from whence they go after fome days ftay for Aeth and Charleroy. The Count de Rath is made Governour of Ipre, and Commander in chief of all the Forces in these parts; And the Baron de Wangur, who was formerly Governour there, is removed to the Government of Bruges.

Hague, June 5. Hereis at prefent much difcourfe again, of the forming of the two Bodies of an Army, and that the Comte Maurise de Nassaw, who is at prefent returned from Berlin to Cleves, shall command one of them. The first instant arrived here the Deputies of the Elector of Cologne, and yesterday they had their first conference with those appointed by the States, about the difference which hath for feveral years depended between this State and that Elector, as Prince of Liege, concerning the Castle and Territory of la Rochette. The Deputies of the respective Admiralties, are fail here receiving orders concerning the Fleet.

From Wefel, we receive the confirmation of the Siege of Brun(wick, by the Forces of thole Dukes, who it feems, pretending to the Soveraignty of that place, which the Inhabitants with much obfinacy refule him, it with occafioned this action, of which we know not what to judge at pretent, but fear if not timely accommodated, it may give beginning to farther troubles in thole quarters; the States have fent directions to two of their Deputies at prefent at Bylevelt, to go immediately thither, to endeavor if possible, a fair understanding between the Town and the Dukes, before things go too far. Monfieur de Groot, Ambassidor from this State, was according to our last advice from the French Court in Flanders, parted thence for Slayse, in order to his return hither for fome short time

From Madrid they write, that Monsieur Beverning Ambassiador there from these States, was preparing for his departure, his Excellency intending to leave that Court the 15th instant at farthest, and to take his way home through Catalogne, France; Swifferland, and Germany. Don Emanuel de Lyra, appointed by the Queen Regent to succed here, as Ambassiador in the room of Don Effevan de Gamarra, went thence the 9th pass on his way hither. From Cologne they write, that their fears were now in a manner over, that Elector having promised not to attempt any thing by force of Arms.

From Ghent our Letters tell us, of an Order or Placaet published there, as well as in all other places of that Country, to this effect, that his Catholick Ma4 jefty had for feveral Reafons and Confiderations, not onely thought fit to revoke a former Order, forbidding the making of Brandy within thefe his Dominions, and at the fame time to give leave to all perfons to make Brandy of Corn; but likewife for the greater confumption of the growth of thofe Countries, strictly to forbid the importation of all Brana dy, from what Foreign parts foever, under penalty of confication, and a fine of double the worth of the Brandy fo imported; farther charging all Mera chants and others, who have at prefent any Forreign Brandy in their hands, within Eight days after the publication, to have the fame entred by fome Offia cer to that end appointed, and in 13 days abfolutely
