

Hague, Feb. 13. Yesterday the Marquês de Beretti Landi, Ambassadour of Spain, with the Imperial and French Ambassadors, and several other Ministers and Persons of Distinction, dined with the Earl of Cadogan: And to Day Count Windisgratz treated the same Company, as the Count de Morville designs to do To-Morrow. The States of the Province of Holland separated on the 10th Instant, without coming to any Resolution upon their Domestick Affairs: Several of the Members were for suppressing intirely the extraordinary Hundredth Penny; and very sharp Debates passed in the Assembly on that Subject. The Receiver General's Office has been since shut up, and no Money for the last Year's Charges is at present issued out, or will be till the said States can agree upon some Terms. They will soon meet again. Letters from Stockholm of the 16th of January, O. S. advise, that the States of that Kingdom having assembled that Day, had chosen Count Horn for their Speaker; and had adjourned to the 20th. The Lord Carteret, his Britannick Majesty's Ambassadour, having concluded a Treaty between the Crowns of Great Britain and Sweden, the same was engrossing in order to be signed on the 19th. A Treaty between Sweden and Prussia, was likewise in such Forwardness, that it was not doubted it would be signed in a few Days.

St. James's, Feb. 4. This Day M. Le Coq, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, had his first private Audience in that Character of His Majesty, to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Stanhope, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Master of the Ceremonies.
