

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday, June 15. to Monday June 19. 1678.

Lynn, June 12.

Yesterday arrived here the Providence of this place, in Five weeks from James's River in Virginia, from whence she came in Company of an other Vessel of Hull; the Master tells us, that he laded there at Wotten Creek in the County of Baltimore, 12 Leagues higher in the Bay, then ever any did before.

Milan, May 17. The Resident from the Duke of Savoie, is lately gone hence on his return home, upon order received from thence to that purpose; which as is said, by some who have more particularly been acquainted with affairs, is occasioned by a misunderstanding happened between our Governor and that Resident, upon what score we know not; which it is feared, if not accommodated, may prove of farther consequence.

Here is at present a discourse again, as if his Excellency might be suddenly recalled from this Government, and some say, that her Majesty hath already made choice of another person to succeed him in it, but of this, we have as yet no great certainty.

Roma, May 30. By the Letters from Lyons, we have advice, that the Bishop of Laon was arrived there on his way hither, where we expect his arrival accordingly in few days; we are told, that Signior Magalotti will likewise be here very suddenly, to desire, as is said, leave of his Holiness to raise in the Ecclesiastical Dominions a Regiment for his most Christian Majesties Service.

Signior Durazzo designed Nuncio to the Duke of Savoie is come to Town in order to that journey, though some are apt to think him not very forward to undertake the employment, and that he will rather endeavor to excuse himself from it; however, as yet we know nothing declared to the contrary. Yesterday arrived here the Dutchess Mazarine from France, and hath since received the visits of most of the persons of quality here.

The Pope having been informed of Cardinal Antonio's having been somewhat disgusted at the proceeding of the Chamber of Accounts here, who pretending that the Estate of the Count de Franchipani, beheaded for Treason at Nicusa, was forfeited to the Church, had accordingly sent several persons to take possession of it, to the exclusion of his Eminency, who by a settlement made by the said Count, claims the Marquisate of Nemi part of that Estate, hath been much displeas'd with the proceedings of his Ministers, and commanded all possible satisfaction to be given his Eminency in the matter.

It is said, that Cardinal Altieri seems much dissatisfied at the Spanish Ambassadors having refused to receive and treat the Duke de Gravina, at a visit he made his Excellency, in quality of the Popes Nephew; which hath given occasion to the rest of the publick Ministers here, to declare that they must expect directions from their Masters, before they can receive him, otherwise than the Spanish Ambassador hath done, having written to the Court at Madrid, to acquaint them with his proceedings herein; upon the return of those Letters we expect to see how the matter will be determined.

Dantzick, May 30. Our last Letters from Watz saw tell us, that the King receiving daily fresh alarms from the Cossacks in the Ukrain, had appointed the 13th of the next Month, for the general Rendezvous of all the Militia of the Kingdom at Leopol, and that his Majesty intended himself to begin his journey towards that place the 20th instant: That in the interim he hath nominated Commissioners to treat with Dorofensko General of the Cossacks, intending to try first, what effect those milder ways may have, before he make use of any force to bring them to their obedience.

On the 12th instant is appointed to be held a General Dyet, the main matter to be there consulted on; is, as is said, the raising of Money for the payment of the Army.

Leghorn, June 1. This morning Sir John Finch, late Resident from His Majesty of Great Britain with the Great Duke, departed from hence by Folucca for Genoua, in order to his return for England, by the way of Turin and France. We have lately advice here, that in and about the City of Grand Cair, there are within these few Months 60000 persons dead of the Plague.

At Florence hath been celebrated the Birth of the young Prince, with Feastings and all kind of publick rejoycings.

Venice, June 5. From Naples we are told, that the discourse there is, that the Duke of Ferrandina hath at length obtained that Government; Don Pedro d' Aragon the present Vice-Roy being recalled home.

The Gallies of Malta, have, it is said, lately taken two Turkish Caravels more on the Coast of Sicily, though with the loss of 20 Knights of that Order, and near 200 Seamen and Souldiers, besides other considerable damage they received in the Rencounter.

Ditto, Our last Letters from Dalmatia bring us the confirmation of the present quiet and peaceable condition of things there on the confines, to the great satisfaction of the Republick; so that we now begin to promise our selves that a short time will determine all those matters that have been so long depending between the Port and this State.

The Marquis de St. Andre Monchranis preparing for his journey to France. The Captain Bassa continues still with his Fleet, consisting, as was said, of about 50 or 60 Gallies, and 120 Londraes, about Candia, and leaves us still in the dark, as to the design they may be employed upon this Summer. Signior Harneda General of this State, is lately made Governor of Corfu, for which place he may very speedily begin his journey accordingly; in the mean time General Barbaro is recalled home, with directions to put all things there into the hands of Procurator Nani, at present at Spalatro. From Constantinople we hear nothing more, but that the Grand Signior holds his resolution of going with an Army to Belgrade, to hunt there, as is pretended, this season.

Lisborne, May 18. We are hear much troubled at the infamous action lately committed in the stealing of the Sacrament out of the Parish Church of Advelas near this place; the Prince Regent and the whole Court have put themselves into mourning for some days together; Three solemn Fasts have been proclaimed, all Plays and other publick diversifements forbid, and nothing omitted which might express an extraordinary sadness and mortification; in the interim, all possible diligence hath been used, for the discovering these Villains, and in order to it, all houses have been searched, all the ways beset, and a general Embargoe laid upon all ships in Port, though as yet, without the least success, or any discovery of the Authors of this Sacrilege.

Brussels, June 12. The Prince de Marnes is returned hither from the French Court, extremely satisfied with his kind Reception and Entertainment there. We continue to work with all the diligence imaginable at the Fortifications of this place; it is said his Excellency has thoughts of making two Citadels about this Town, the one without the Lorraine Port, the other place is not yet resolved on; and that his Excellency hath ordered 60000 Florins to be paid towards the finishing the Fortifications of Loewet.

Here is at present in Town, several of the French Nobility and persons of the chiefest quality; amongst others, the Duke de Bouillon, the Duke de Luxemburgh, the Marshal de Villeroy, the Count and Countess de Grammont, the Count de l'Azun, &c. came hither out of curiosity to see these parts. Yesterday the Prince de Conde, entertained at a most sumptuous Treat, in the Duke d'Aerschor's Park at Enguizen (of whom he had sent the day before, to desire permission so to do) Monsieur and Madamoiselle d'Orleans, together with the principal Ladies of the Court; of which the Count de Monterey having had notice, his Excellency sent thither several sorts of Wine and Fruits, and other rarities of the season, in compliment to that Illustrious Company.

Paris, June 18. From the French Court we have advice of the 13th instant, that that day the Troops removed from Tournay, where they have finished the Fortifications, for Aeth; that the 15th instant their Majesties intended likewise to follow thither with the whole Court, where it was thought, his Majesty will remain till the 4th of July; in which time it is hoped, the Fortifications of that place may be likewise perfected, and the Hill which seems at present to command the Town, quite taken away; that the King hath given out 60 Commissions for the forming as many new Companies, partly out of the other Companies, and partly out of the new Levies to be made; that is, each Company to consist of 50 Men, 30 whereof to be immediately raised, and the other 20 to be taken out of the Companies already on foot; they speak of more Commissions which are dispatching.

From the Franche Comte our Letters tells us, that by order from the Queen of Spain, they had seized there upon the Estate of the Marquis d'Yennes, formerly Governor of that County for the Crown of Spain, as likewise of the Estate of the Abbot de Batteville, for having as is said, during the late Conquest of that Country by his most Christian Majesty, held private intelligence with the Enemy; and that they are Cited against a certain day to appear, and answer to their accusations, or otherwise to have their Estates confiscated for ever.

Hambrough June 16. By Passengers arrived here out of the Lunenburgs Army before Brunswick, we are told, that the 13th instant they first began their Batteries; That near 900 shot had been sent as well out as into the Town, not without doing some execution on both sides; That the besiegers were hard at work at a Mine, in which they indeavoured to approach the Town, but had been much hindred by the great store of water they met with in Mineing: That the Inhabitants continue very resolute, and had made another Sally upon the Enemy, with considerable execution: That there was a report as if the Town was expecting some assistance from abroad; but in the mean time that they omit nothing in this exigency for their security and defence: That there were arrived in the Army Deputies from Lubeck, and other the Hans Towns, to endeavor an accommodation.

Bremen, June 17. The Town of Brunswick defends it self bravely; the Inhabitants have in a Sally they lately made, killed near 300 of the Enemies, though not without some loss to themselves; the Besiegers continue their Batteries with much violence, and those within are not wanting to return them shot for shot: we are told of several persons killed in the Army, and amongst others, of one of their Generals, and a Collonel of much esteem.

Hague, June 19. The 15th instant his Highness the Prince of Orange, accompanied by the Heer de Brederode, and several other persons of quality, went hence towards the Camp before Brunswick, where his Highness intends to pass some short time incognito.

From Byleveldt we hear, of the little progress they have hitherto made in that Treaty, the Munster Deputies oblatinately refusing to admit of the Princes of Zelland and Hinouer as Mediators at it; which the others as peremptorily insist on. We are here told by persons well versed in those affairs, that the Magistrates of Brunswick had by their Deputies lately offered Four hundred thousand Rixdollars to the Dukes, and to deliver up to them, two Villages belonging to the Town, and at present in their possession, provided they would withdraw their Forces, and leave them to the enjoyment of their Peace and Liberties; but that those Proposals had not had that success they desired. That some of the Inhabitants had made a Sally out of the Town to recover their Castle, which at the beginning of the Siege, the Enemy had taken from them; that the Enemy was at present approacht with their Works, within 60 paces of the out-works of the place.

Windsor, June 16. His Excellency the Lord Berkley, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, having obtained His Majesties leave to repair into England for some short time, as well for the confirmation of his Health, which of late hath been somewhat indisposed, as for other his private affairs, this Morning his Excellency together with his Lady arrived here, and was very graciously received by His Majesty.

London, June 17. By the Foreign Maile arrived last Night, we have, as well from Letters of Sir Edward Spragg His Majesties Admiral in the Mediterranean, as otherwise, the certain Confirmation of the happy Success of His Majesties Fleet in those Seas, as well of the brave Action performed by the said Admiral in the destroying the 7 Algerien men of War, with 3 Prizes, at Bugia, as of the taking another of their men of War off Cape De Gatte by Capt. Beach; Whereof a particular Narrative will in few dayes (by Order) be made publick.

Windsor, June 18. This day the Right Reverend Father in God Walter late L. Bishop of Oxon, having been Elected & Confirmed Bishop of Worcester, upon the death of Dr Skinner late Bishop of that See, was accordingly this day received to doe his Homage to His Majesty in the usual Formes.

Advertisement.

THE Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer, are come to the payment of the 388 Order in Number Registered on the Act for His Majesties Revenue of the Fire-hearths, and shall proceed to the payment of the subsequent Orders to that Number, in course, as the Money of that Revenue shall be brought into the Exchequer.