Genoa, June 18.

ON the 10th Instant the Prince of Modena dismissed her Attendants that came with her from France and their Room took those which had been sent to her from Modena. The next Morning she set out from hence, being accompanied by six Deputies appointed by the Republick, and attended by a Major with an hundred Grenadiers: Her Highness was entertained during the Journey at the publick Charge; and on her Arrival at the Frontier, the Deputies took Leave of her, and are since returned hither: She made Presents of a Diamond Ring to each of them, as also to the Major of the Grenadiers.

Stockholm, June 8 O. S. The Lord Carteret, His Britannick Majesty's Ambassador, is to have his Audience of Leave of the King and Queen of Sweden To Morrow, and designs to set out for Copenhagen three Days hence. Last Week Adjutant Freidenfeldt, who is a Native of Finland and well acquainted with that Coast, was sent out with a Sloop and 36 Soldiers to get Intelligence of the Enemy: In his Way towards Abo he met at the West End of Aland with three Muscovite Sloops, which on his hoisting Muscovite Colours made towards him; as soon as he was near the foremost of them he hoisted the Swedish Flag, attacked and after a short Dispute took her with a Lieutenant and between 50 and 60 Men; he then made towards the second, which was commanded by a Captain with the like Number of Men, and boarded and took her also; but the third got among the Rocks and so made her Escape. About 5 or 6 of the Muscovites were killed on this Occasion, but not one of the Swedes. The said Adjutant has brought the two Officers with 108 common Soldiers Prisoners hither. On the 3d Instant the Rural Dean named Brenner, who was seized last Winter at Hambourg, and brought over hither, was condemned to lose his Head at the Gallows, and to be buried under it, and on the 13th the Sentence is to be executed upon him. We have yet no further Accounts from Uma of the Motions of the Muscovites. The King and Queen are at Carlsberg with the whole Court, and last Night there was a Ball at that Palace for the Entertainment of the Prince of Hesse his Majesty's Brother. We have Advice, that three Swedish Ships under Count Wachtmeister, with three British Ships under Captain Eaton, having been detached the 26th past from the Isle of Gotlande, to join some Swedish Frigates on the Coast of Aland; Sir John Norris with the British and Swedish Fleet sailed from Gotlande the 27th, to cruize towards Renssel.

Brussels, July 1. The States of Flanders have resolved to employ Men to cut the Digue of Steen near Ghistelles for drawing off the Water, in order to cleanse the Port and Canal of Ostende; and the Proprietors of those Lands into which the Water is to be turned, are to have the Damage made good to them by the said States.
