Stamp-Office, Lincolns-Inn, June 28, 1720.

The Commissioners for managing His Majesty's Stamp Duties have thought fit to give Notice, That by a Clause in an Act of the last Sessions of Parliament for laying a Duty upon Wroughts Plate, &c. All Masters and Mistresses who have formerly omitted to pay His Majesty's Duties on Monies given, paid, or contracted for, with Clerks and Apprentices within the respective Times limited by the several Acts of Parliament in that Case made, are acquitted and discharged of and from all Penalties incurred by such Omissions, provided they pay the said Duties on or before the 29th Day of September 1720. And for preventing the like Omissions for the future, the said Commissioners do hereby further give Notice, that the Times limited by the Act of Parliament which grants the said Duties for Payment thereof, are within one Month after the Dates of such Indentures or Contracts as are executed within the Limits of the Bills of Mortality, and within two Months after the Dates of such Indentures or Contracts as are executed elsewhere throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain. And that on Neglect of such Payment within the respective Times above-mentioned, every Master or Mistress so neglecting, incurs a Penalty of 50 l. with Costs of suit; and the Clerk or Apprentice is made incapable of exercising the intended Trade or Employment, or of being made Free of any City, Corporation, or Company, and the Indentures and Contracts are also in such Case void and of no Effect. The said Commissioners do further give Notice, that all Persons neglecting or refusing to comply with the Terms of the said Acts of Parliament, will be prosecuted for the same.
