From Tuesday September 20. to Saturday September 24 1720.

Stockholm, August 24.

ON Monday the 22d Instant, about Nine in the Morning, the King and the Prince of Hesse his Brother came from Carlberg to the Palace here in Town; where his Highness took Leave of the Senators then assembled there; and after about half an Hour's Stay his Majesty and the Prince proceeded to Grypsholm, where they were to hunt Yesterday and To-Day, and To-Morrow it is said they will go on to Kongsoher. As by the Form of Government established last Session by the States, two Senators are constantly to attend the King on all his Journies, his Majesty has in Conformity thereto now taken the Counts Eckblad and Banier with him. Count Taube, who accompanies the Prince to Germany, was somewhat indisposed on Monday, so that he only followed Yesterday Morning. The Queen continues at Carlberg. Last Saturday a Polish Nobleman named Lubomirsky, arrived here from Dantzick, on the Part of the King of Poland, but without any Character, to compliment the King on his Accession to the Throne; and on Sunday in the Evening he had an Audience of his Majesty for that Purpose at Carlberg; but the Queen being then indisposed, his Audience of her Majesty was put off till this Evening.

Stockholm, Sept 3. The Season beginning to be cold and rainy, the Queen removed on the 30th past from Carlberg to the Palace here, where the Court will continue during the Approaching Winter. The King came back hither the 31st past in the Evening, having parted from the Prince his Brother the 29th at one of the Royal Seats called Strömsholm. After his Majesty had been in Council on the 1st Instant in the Morning, he received the Compliments of the foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction, upon his safe Return.

Naples, Sept. 6. General Wallis being arrived here from Messina, is performing a Fort-night's Quarantain in the Castel del Ovo. It is now said, that the Number of standing Forces for the Security of this Kingdom and that of Sicily, is augmented; the former to six Regiments of Foot and two of Horse, and the other to seven Regiments of Foot and three of Horse.

Madrid, Sept. 9. The Court removes on the 25th Instant from the Escorial to Balsain, there to reside about a Month. Several General Officers who are arrived from Sicily, are ordered to repair forthwith to Seville, and to prepare to serve in the Expedition to Africa; and it is said they will speedily be followed by the Marques de Lede, who arrived here the 7th at Noon, and went the next Day to the Escorial. We have Advice, that great Bodies of Troops from divers Parts of Spain, arrive daily at Cadiz, Malaga, and other Towns in that Neighbourhood. All the Forces appointed for this new Expedition, make together much the same Number that was sent upon that against Sicily in the Year

1718; though not one Regiment which was in that Service is ordered upon this, but the General Officers are for the most part the same.

Genoa, Sept. 17. On the 14th Instant arrived here a Felucca, dispatched nine Days before by the Genouese Consul at Marseilles, with Advice that the Plague there seemed to be somewhat abated; that from the 1st of this Month to the 2d there died 217 Persons, from the 2d to the 3d 118, from the 3d to the 4th 143, and from the 4th to the 5th 62; that several upon whom the Distemper had broke out, had cured themselves by the use of some common Medicines; that about 100 of the Galley Slaves who had been employed to bury the dead, had all perished; that 200 more Galley Slaves were ordered to clear the Streets and Houses of the dead, that they had 18 Carts for that Service, and that the Consuls with other Officers of the Town were obliged to march on Horseback at the Head of those Slaves, to see them dispatch their Work and to prevent plundering or other Disorders. This Day arrived in Sight of this Port, a Number of Transports from Sicily having on Board 1200 Men of the Regiment of Wirtemberg designed for Milan: Whereupon this Government has sent them Orders to go to Vado and perform Quarantain there. A French Ship is likewise come to the Mouth of our Harbour, which had been denied Admittance into the Ports of Spain, and also at Port Mahon.

Extract of a Letter from Major Elrington, the Commanding Officer at Gibraltar, dated, Aug. 26, 1720, O. S. Having lately received several Accounts that the Plague is broke out at Marseilles, and particularly by a Certificate from Colonel Kane, Lieutenant Governour of Minorca, dated August 18, 1720, O. S. I shall take particular Care how I admit any Vessels into this Port from the Coast of France; and have for that Purpose appointed a Product-Boat to lye continually off Europa-Point, to stop all Vessels coming into this Bay, till I am acquainted from whence they come, and the Condition of their People.

By the Commissioners appointed to examine, state, and determine, the Debts due to the Army.

Whereas a Letter, dated London, September 5, 1720, directed to William Yonge, Esq; and the other Honourable Commissioners of Accounts, and sign'd Nicholas Goodwin, has been received, complaining of several indirect and illegal Practices made use of by the Officers of the Right Honourable Lieutenant General Willis's late Regiment of Marines, relating to the Accounts of the said Regiment now depending before this Board, in order to obtain from the Government greater Sums of Money than they are justly intitled to, and offering to make appear to the said Commissioners several Frauds and Abuses committed by the said Officers for that Purpose These are to give Notice, That if the Person who wrote the said Letter, will appear before the said Commissioners at their Office in Dorset-Court, Westminster, and prove the Allegations therein, he shall receive all due Encouragement and Protection.

By Order of the Board,
Ja. Moody.
