Hanover, October 1.

HIS Majesty upon the Receipt of an Express from Great Britain, his sent Orders for the Yachts and the Convoy of His Majesty's Ships which are to attend His Majesty in His Passage, to be forthwith dispatched from thence to Holland, and in the mean time is gone to the Gohre, intending as soon as he has an Account of their Arrival on the Dutch Coast to set out on his Return Home, in order to be there some time before the Meeting of the Parliament; which His Majesty has appointed to be on the 25th of the next Month, without fail, and has ordered a Proclamation to be issued for that Purpose.

By the Lords Justices,
W. Cant. Parker C. Townshend P. Argyll and
Greenwich, Holles Newcastle, Berkeley, J.
Craggs,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.
Whereas this present Parliament stands prorogued to the twentieth Day of this Instant October, we, with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said twentieth Day of October, to Friday the twenty fifth Day of November next; and that we have given Order that a Commission be prepared for proroguing the same accordingly. And we do hereby further declare His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said twenty fifth Day of November next, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners of Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said twenty fifth Day of November.

Given at Whitehall the Twelfth
Day of October, in the Seventh
Year of His Majesty's Reign.
God save the KING.

By the Lords Justices,
W. Cant. Parker C. Townshend P. Argyll and
Greenwich, Holles Newcastle, Berkeley, J.
Craggs,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,
Requiring Quarantine to be performed by Ships coming from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay.

Whereas Marseilles, and other Places in Provence in France, continue to be infected with the Plague; and whereas by our Order in Council of the twenty fifth of August last, and our Proclamation of the same Date, notifying our said Order, we required Quarantine to be performed by Ships coming from the Mediterranean; and whereas we have lately received Information, that Kid Skins and other Goods in the said Proclamation enumerated, are usually brought from Languedoc, and Parts thereabouts, to Bourdeaux, and other Places in the Bay of Biscay, on the Coast of France: Ours of our great Regard to the Safety of His Majesty's Subjects, and for the preventing the Infection that might be brought by Ships or Vessels coming into His Majesty's Ports from any of the said Places, by our Order in Council made this twelfth Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and twenty, in the seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, we have directed and required that all Ships and Vessels, and Persons coming into the same, and arriving in any of the Ports of this Kingdom from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, and that all Persons and Vessels, who or which shall receive any Goods or Merchandizes from on Board any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine, and such Persons as, after Quarantine performed, shall be employed in the Hold of any such Ship, for the taking any Goods not liable to retain Infection from Hemp, Flax, and other Goods in the said recited Proclamation enumerated, shall perform their Quarantine, and that the Goods and Merchandizes, imported in such Ship or Vessel, or Landca, opened, and aired, for such Times, in such Places, and under the same Regulations and Restrictions, and in such Manner as we and by our Order in Council of the said twenty fifth of August last, and our said recited Proclamation, notifying the same, and requiring due Obedience to be paid thereto, are directed and appointed for and in respect of any Vessels, Ships, or Persons, arriving in any Ports of this Kingdom from the Mediterranean: Now to the Intent that no Person whatsoever may pretend Ignorance of our Command therein, we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, and we do by this Proclamation, pursuant to an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarantine, give Notice of the said Order; and do require that all Persons do yield exact Obedience to the same. And we do hereby strictly charge and command all Persons whatsoever, that shall come into any of the Ports of this Kingdom from Bourdeaux, or any other Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, that they do make their Quarantine according to our Order in Council herein before recited; and that, during the time of their Quarantine, they do not presume to come or put any Goods out of such Ships on Shore, nor permit or suffer any Person to come on board such Ships; and that no Person or Persons, other than such as shall be appointed to take Care that the Quarantine be duly performed, do go on Board, or receive any Goods from such Ships, till they shall be discharged from their Quarantine, as in our said Proclamation of the twenty fifth of August last is directed, upon Pain of being proceeded against with the utmost Severity that the Law will allow of, for disobeying our Commands herein, so necessary for securing the Health of His Majesty's Subjects. And we do hereby command the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that they do take Care, and give the necessary Directions, that the said Order be put in Execution, and duly observed. And we do likewise strictly charge and command the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War, the Commanders of His Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near His Majesty's Sea Coasts, and all His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magistrates, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and all other Officers and Ministers of Justice, to be aiding and assisting to the Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and to all other Persons that shall be concerned in stopping Ships coming from Bourdeaux, or any other Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, and bringing them to the Places appointed for, and obliging them to perform their Quarantine, in the due Execution of our Commands herein.

Given at Whitehall the Twelfth
Day of October, in the Seventh
Year of His Majesty's Reign.
God save the KING.

Whereas a Letter dated the 6th Instant, and subscribed Mr. ~~King~~ has been received by one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; if the Person who sent it will apply to the Secretary to the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and make out what he therein proposes, he shall meet with all suitable Encouragement.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury do hereby give Notice, that for supporting the Credit and Currency of all the Exchequer Bills now bearing an Interest after the Rate of one Penny per Cent. per Diem, they have, by an Instrument under their Hands and Seals, declared and appointed, that from and after the 8th of October 1720, all the Exchequer Bills prepared and made forth by virtue of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf, shall (over and above the Interest of one Penny per Cent. per Diem therein contained) be attended with an additional Interest, after the Rate of one Penny per Cent. per Diem; and that as well the principal Sums and Interest of one Penny per Cent. per Diem contained in the said Bills, as the said additional Interest, so attend the same shall be demandable by the Bearers, and be payable, as if the same Bills had been originally prepared, made forth, or issued, with the intire Interest of two Pence per Cent. per Diem, expressed and contained therein, except only when they, or any of them, shall be in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, or in the Hands or Power of any Receivers or Collectors of any Taxes, Aids, or Revenues whatsoever, payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, during such time or times respectively as such Bills shall be and remain in the said Receipt, or in such Hands or Power as aforesaid. And the Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, &c. have, by an Instrument under the Common Seal of the said Company, declared their Consent and Approbation to the said additional Interest, and obliged themselves to pay from time to time their Proportion of Money, for or towards exchanging, circulating, discharging, or supporting the Credit of the said Bills with the said Interest and additional Interest thereupon, as if the said Interest of two Pence per Cent. per Diem were expressly contained in the Bodies of the said Bills.

The Commissioners for examining and determining the Debts due to the Army, having under their Examination the Demands of the Officers En Second who served abroad in the late War in the Regiments undermentioned, give Notice, that all Persons who have any Assignments made by the said Officers upon the Arrears of Pay due to them for their Service in the said Regiments, are required to enter their Assignments at the said Commissioners Office in Dorset Court, Westminster, on or before the 7th of November next; and where any Disputes shall arise touching any the said Assignments, the Parties may apply to the said Commissioners: And such of the said Officers who have not already delivered in to the said Commissioners their original Commissions, and authentick Certificates of their actual Service abroad, are required to produce and deliver the same to the said Commissioners, in order to the full and perfect stating and determining their respective Demands.
