By the Lords Justices,

A PROCLAMATION,

W. Cant. Parker C. Hollis Newcastle, Bolton, Roxburghe, J. Cragg.

Requiring Quarentino to be performed by Ships, coming from the Mediterranean, Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, or from the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sarke, or Man.

WHEREAS Marseilles and other Places in Provence in France continue to be infected with the Plague; and whereas we have received Information that Kid-Skins, Silk, Cotton, Human Hair, and other Goods apt to retain Infection, are usually brought from Languedoc and Parts thereabouts to Bourdeaux and other Places in the Bay of Biscay on the Coast of France; and that Ships and Vessels with Persons and Goods on board coming from the Mediterranean and Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, frequently touch at the Isles of Jersey, and Guernsey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man; and that a Trade is carried on by the Inhabitants of those Isles with the several Places above named, and with Ships which have touched there, in Goods apt to retain Infection: And whereas we have judged it necessary for the Safety of His Majesty's Subjects, to make some Additions to, and Alterations in the Directions given concerning the Performance of Quarentine by our several Orders in Council of the twenty fifth of August last, and the twelfth of this Instant October, and the Proclamations notifying the same; we out of our great Care for the Preservation of His Majesty's People, and to prevent the Infection that might be brought by Ships or Vessels coming into the Ports of this Kingdom from any of the said Places, by Order in Council made this twenty seventh Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and twenty, in the seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, have directed and required that all Ships and Vessels, and Persons coming in the same, from the Mediterranean, or from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, or from the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, shall perform their Quarentine in such manner and in such Places as in and by the said Order are directed: Now to the Intent that no Person may pretend Ignorance of our Command therein, we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy-Council, and we do by this Proclamation, pursuant to an Act made in the ninth Year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act to oblige Ships, coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarentine, give Notice of the said Order, and do require, that all Persons do yield exact Obedience to the same, viz.

I. That all Ships or Vessels arriving in any Ports of this Kingdom from the Mediterranean, or from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, or from the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, do perform their Quarentine for forty Days, which shall be reckoned and commence from the Day each Ship shall come to Anchor in the Place appointed for the performing such Quarentine, and not before.

II. That the Places for performing Quarentine within any Part of Great Britain, be such Places as already are or shall be appointed by the Officers of His Majesty's

(Price Three Half-Pence.)

Majesty's Customs in such Ports, who are impowered and required to appoint proper Places for the same. But all Ships and Vessels, required to perform Quarentine, which shall be bound to any Port or Place between the Ports of London or Bristol, other than the Ports of Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Falmouth, shall, instead of going to the Port or Place of Discharge, go to such of the Ports above-named, of London, Portsmouth, Plymouth, Falmouth, and Bristol, as shall be nearest to the respective Places of Discharge, to which such Ships or Vessels shall be respectively bound, and no other, there to perform their Quarentine, in the proper Places to be for that Purpose appointed within the Ports aforesaid.

III. That until Quarentine shall be fully performed, as aforesaid, no Person coming, or Goods imported in any such Ship or Vessel, shall go, or be put on board any other Ship or Vessel, or shall come on Shore, or be landed in any Place within this Kingdom.

IV. That no Pilot shall go on board any Ship or Vessel obliged to perform Quarentine, in order to conduct the same into any Port or Place, but shall perform such Service in some other Boat or Vessel, which Boat or Vessel shall keep as much to the Windward of the Ship or Vessel, so to be conducted, as possible; and if any Pilot or other Person shall go on board such Ship or Vessel, such Pilot or other Person shall perform Quarentine in like manner as any other Person coming in such Ship or Vessel, shall be obliged to perform the same.

V. That if at the Expiration of the Quarentine hereby directed to be made, there shall appear to the Officers of His Majesty's Customs in the respective Places where such Ships shall be, and the Master or other Persons taking Charge of such Ships or Vessels, together with two other Persons belonging to the said Ship or Vessel, shall make Oath before the Customer, Comptroller or Collector of the Port where such Quarentine shall be performed, or the next Port thereunto, or before any of their Deputies, and any one Justice of the Peace near adjoining to such Port, that such Ship, and all and every Person and Persons therein, have duly performed their Quarentine, as aforesaid, and that the Ship or Vessel, and all the Persons on board, are free from Infection, that then the respective Persons coming in such Ships, (a Certificate of such Oaths being made by the Persons before whom the same shall be taken) shall be permitted to go on Shore; but the Goods imported in such Ships or Vessels shall be landed, opened, and aired, and so remain a Week, and after may be brought to their Places of Discharge, other than Hemp and Flax, Paper or Books, Silk raw, thrown, or wrought, Linnen, Cotton-Wooll, Cotton in Yarn, or manufactured, Wooll raw, or in any wise wrought, Feathers, Grograin, or Mohair Yarn, Human Hair, Goats Hair, or Carmentia Wooll, Carpets, Camblets, Burdets; or other Manufactures of Silk and Cotton, Kid-skins, and Skins in the Wooll, or Hair; which the Officers of His Majesty's Customs shall cause to remain on board such Ships or Vessels, and not permit to be landed till an Account thereof shall be given to His Majesty in Council, and Orders shall be given by His Majesty concerning the same.

VI. That the Places of landing and airing the Goods imported from the Mediterranean, Bourdeaux, or any other the Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, or from the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, shall be such Places as have been or shall be respectively appointed by His Majesty's Officers of the Customs.

VII. And whereas Kid skins and Human Hair are most liable to retain Infection, and may be brought from Places infected into other Countries, and from thence imported into Great Britain, to the great Hazard of the Health of His Majesty's Subjects; it is further ordered, that all Kid-skins and Human Hair imported into Great Britain, in any Ship or Vessel not obliged to perform Quarentine, shall be put and detained in such Place or Places as shall be appointed for that Purpose by the Officers of His Majesty's Customs for any Port into which such Goods shall be imported, and shall not be opened or removed till an Account shall be given to His Majesty in Council, and Orders shall be given by His Majesty concerning the same.

VIII. That whatever Ship or Person shall receive any Men or Goods from on board any Ship or Vessel under Quarentine, shall be compelled to do the like Quarentine.

IX. That such Persons as, after Quarentine performed, shall be employed in the Hold of any such Ship, for the taking taking any Goods not liable to retain Infection from Hemp and Flax, Paper or Books, Silk raw, thrown and wrought, Linnen, Cotton-Wooll, Cotton-Yarn, or manufactured, Wooll raw, or in any wise wrought, Feathers, Grograins, or Mohair Yarn, Human Hair, Goats Hair, or Carmentia Wooll, Carpets, Camblers, Burdets, or other Manufactures of Silk and Cotton, Kid-skins, Skins in the Wooll, or Hair thereon, shall be obliged to perform a new Quarentine.

X. That the Captains of every of His Majesty's Ships of War, who shall meet any such Ships coming into any Ports of this Kingdom, shall take due Care to prevent the landing any Goods, Seamen, or Passengers therein, until they shall be put under the Direction of His Majesty's Officers of the Customs.

XI. That the Commissioners and other Officers of His Majesty's Customs do use their utmost Diligence and Care that the Quarentine, before directed, be duly performed.

And we do hereby strictly charge and command all Persons whatsoever, that shall come into any of the Ports of this Kingdom from the Mediterranean, or from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, or from the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, that they do make their Quarentine according to our Order herein before expressed; and that, during the time of their Quarentine, they do not presume to come or put any Goods out of such Ships on Shore, nor on board any other Ship or Vessel, nor permit or suffer any Person to come on board such Ships; and that no Persons, other than such as shall have obtained a Licence in Writing under the Hand of such Person or Persons as shall be appointed to take Care to see such Quarentine duly performed, shall go on board, nor shall any Person receive any Goods from such Ships, till they shall be discharged from their Quarentine, as herein before directed, upon Pain of being proceeded against with the utmost Severity that the Law will allow of, for disobeying our Commands herein, so necessary for securing the Lives of His Majesty's Subjects. And we do hereby command the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that they do take Care and give the necessary Directions, that the said Order be put in Execution, and duly observed. And we do likewise strictly charge and command the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War, the Commanders of His Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near His Majesty's Sea-Coasts, and all His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magistrates, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and all other Officers and Ministers of Justice, to be aiding and assisting to the Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and to all other Persons that shall be concerned in stopping Ships coming from the Mediterranean, or from Bourdeaux, or any of the Ports or Places on the Coast of France in the Bay of Biscay, or from the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sarke, and Man, or any of them, and bringing them to the Places appointed for them, and obliging them to perform their Quarentine, in the due Execution of our Commands herein.

And whereas a most pernicious Trade is carried on by many of His Majesty's Subjects by clandestinely importing Goods from Parts beyond the Sea, to the great prejudice of his Majesty's Revenue, and in Defiance of His Majesty's Laws, which may prove highly detrimental to the Health of His Majesty's People during this time of Infection abroad, we do hereby strictly charge and command all His Majesty's Officers and Ministers whatsoever, to take Care that the Laws against such illegal Practices be put in Execution with the utmost Rigour.

And we do hereby charge, forewarn, and require all His Majesty's loving Subjects of what Degree or Condition soever, not to be aiding and assisting to, or to hold any Correspondence with any Persons using such Practices, nor to buy, receive, or take into their Custody any Goods so clandestinely and unduly Run and Imported, but on the contrary to use their utmost Endeavours to oppose and resist all Persons concerned in such unlawful Attempts, not only on Pain of incurring His Majesty's highest Displeasure, and the severe Penalties provided by Law against such Offences, but as they tender their own Safety, and the Preservation of the Welfare and Safety of their Country.

Given at Whitehall the Twenty seventh Day of October, 1720. in the Seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign.

God save the King.

Lisbon, Oct. 15. N. S. An Express is arrived here in 7 Days from Cadiz, and another in 5 from Faro. They have brought to this Court the following Account of the Imbarcation which was getting ready to sail from the Bay of Cadiz for Africa viz. A Man of War of 80 Guns, another of 74, and a third of 64; two small Frigates, six Gallies, forty Transport Ships, and four Hundred open Boats to carry the Stores of Ammunition and Provisions. On this Expedition are employed, the Marquis de Lede Captain General, Don Joseph Patinno Commissary-General of the Stores, 18000 Foot, and 4000 Horse; having with them 600 Mules for the Train of Artillery, 84 Pieces of Brass Cannon for Battery, 25 lesser Pieces, 36 Mortars, 400 Wagons, 10000 Spades, and 10000 Fascines.

Paris, Nov. 2. M. Vernezobre, one of the Commis of the Bank, who has made great Gains in the India Company, having retired out of the Kingdom; and it being apprehended that many others will do the same, in order to elude the Injunctions of the late Arrêt concerning the Actions of that Company; Orders have been dispatched to all the Ports and Frontier-Places to stop all such Persons as are suspected to be going into foreign Countries; and a Placard is published forbidding on Pain of Death any one to attempt to go out of the Kingdom without a Passport signed by the King, and countersigned by a Secretary of State. Pursuant to the Directions of the late Arrêt, those concerned in the Actions have begun to carry them to the Bank, in order to have a new Seal put upon them; and Intimations have already been given to several of those who have been great Gainers by them, what Number of Actions it is expected they should deposit in the Hands of the Company, which 'tis said in all will amount to ten Millions of Livres. The King has lately been indisposed, but his Majesty having taken a little Physick, is perfectly well again. Letters from several Parts of Provence confirm the spreading of the Plague more and more, and the great Devastation it makes in a great many Places of that Country; where they have not on that Account been able to gather in their Vintage, or their Olives, and are already in want of all manner of Necessaries and Assistance in their Sickness.

Whitehall, Oct. 29. This Morning arrived one of the King's Messengers from Hanover, (which Place he left on the 22d Instant,) with Advice, that His Majesty had fixed Thursday last for the Day of His Departure from thence for Great-Britain. This Messenger says, that he sailed from Helvoetsluys last Thursday Morning, and left there the Earl of Sunderland and Sir George Byng; who having been detained 11 Days by contrary Winds, had once put to Sea to endeavour to pass over to England in the William and Mary Yacht, but had been driven back by Strefs of Weather, having been in some Danger; and that they waited only for a Wind to put to Sea again.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury do hereby give Notice, that for supporting the Credit and Currency of all the Exchequer Bills now bearing an Interest after the Rate of one Penny per Cent. per Diem, they have, by an Instrument under their Hands and Seals, declared and appointed, that from and after the 8th of October 1720, all the Exchequer Bills prepared and made forth by virtue of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf, shall (over and above the Interest of one Penny per Cent. per Diem therein contained) be attended with an additional Interest, after the Rate of one Penny per Cent. per Diem; and that as well the principal Sums and Interest of one Penny per Cent. per Diem contained in the said Bills, as the said additional Interest, to attend the same shall be demandable by the Bearers, and be payable, as if the same Bills had been originally prepared, made forth, or issued, with the intire Interest of two Pence per Cent per Diem, expressed and contained therein, except only when they, or any of them, shall be in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, or in the Hands or Power of any Receivers or Collectors of any Taxes, Aids, or Revenues whatsoever, payable to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, during such time or times respectively as such Bills shall be and remain in the said Receipt, or in such Hands or Power as aforesaid. And the Governour and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, &c have, by an Instrument under the Common Seal of the said Company, declared their Consent and Approbation to the said additional Interest, and obliged themselves to pay from time to time their Proportion of Money, for or towards exchanging, circulating, discharging, or supporting the Credit of the said Bills with the said Interest and additional Interest thereupon, as if the said Interest of two Pence per Cent. per Diem were expressly contained in the Bodies of the said Bills.

General Post-Office, London, Oct. 19, 1720.

Whereas the West Mail coming to this Office, was Yesterday Morning, between 4 and 5 a-Clock, robbed by three Highwaymen, at a Place called the Foot of Toomer Hill, about 3 Miles from Sherborn, in the County of Dorset, and several Letters taken out of the Exeter, Taunton, St. Columb, and Crewkern Bags: These are therefore to give Notice, that whoever apprehends the said Persons concerned in this Robbery, or either of them, so as to have him or them convicted of the same, shall receive a Reward of 100 l. to be paid by the Receiver-General of the Post-Office in London, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament, for apprehending of Highwaymen: And if either of the said Persons concerned in the said Robbery, will discover one or both of his Accomplices in the Manner aforesaid, he shall have the said Reward of 100 l. and also His Majesty's Pardon.

General Post-Office, London, Oct. 19, 1720.

Whereas the West and Bristol Mails have of late been frequently robbed, and several Bank Notes and Bills taken out of them, and no Discovery made of the Persons who committed the said Robberies, though the utmost Care has been taken to discover the same: For the better preventing such evil Practices for the future, all Merchants and others, who send any Bills, or Notes, to, or from London, are desired to make all such Bills, and Notes, payable three Days after Sight, that timely Notice may be given to stop Payment of the said Bills and Notes so stolen.

General Post-Office, London, Oct. 24, 1720.

Whereas the Bristol Mail coming to this Office was robbed Yesterday Morning between One and Two a-Clock, on the Road four Miles on this Side Bristol, by one Highwayman and one Foot-pad, who carried off the Mail, in which was only the Bristol Bag. These are therefore to give Notice, that whoever apprehends the said Persons concerned in this Robbery, or either of them, so as to have him or them convicted of the same, shall receive a Reward of 100 l. to be paid by the Receiver-General of the Post Office in London, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; and if either of the said Persons concerned in the said Robbery will discover his Accomplice in the Manner aforesaid, he shall receive the said Reward of 100 l. and also His Majesty's Pardon.

Notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners for building the fifty new Churches, will be ready to receive Proposals on Thursday next, at their Office in the Old Palace-Yard, in Westminster, from Diggers and Bricklayers, for building a new Church in Great George-Street, near Hanover-Square, in the Parish of St. Martin's in the Fields.

This is to give Notice to all Masters and Commanders of Ships and Vessels, passing by Dover Harbour, that on the 10th of October 1720, there will be erected on the South Pier Head of the said Harbour, a Lanthorn Light by Night, and a Flag hoisted by Day, so soon as there shall be ten Foot Water on the Flood between the Pier Heads, and to continue until the Water is decreased on the Ebb to ten Foot, and then the said Light will be put out, or the said Flag struck, and this will be done all the Year round; the same Harbour being now very commodious for the Reception of trading Ships and Vessels, there being 13 Foot Water on Neap Tides, and upwards of 18 Foot on common Spring Tides.

A General Quarterly Court of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a perpetual Assurance-Office, will be held at their Office in Hatton-Garden, on Thursday the 3d of November next, at Ten in the Forenoon; and all Members of the said Corporation who are five Quarters in Arrear, will be excluded at the said Court.
