

Vienna, July 5. The Emperor having given directions for the terminating the 28th instant, the Commission at Presburgh, we expect the Count de Rothal, together with the rest of the Commissioners, to return hither with a large and particular account of all that hath passed there during their Session.

We are told, that there is on his way hither from the Port, an Aga, with a Trayn of above threecore persons, and that he is come within some Miles of this place; his errand, as is said, being only to assure this Court, of the Grand Signiors constant Resolution, punctually to observe the Peace, at present establisht between the two Empires. Yesterday arriv'd here an Express from the Governor of Transchein, with advice, that the Turks had lately with a great party, fallen into the Quarters of the Heydukes, within three German miles of that place, and that having set Fire to two Villages, they were retired again, carrying away with them, most of the people they found there.

The Empress is certainly, as we are told, with Child again; which together, with the advice we have from Poland of that Queens being likewise with Child, hath fill'd this Court with great joy.

Hambrough, July 10. Our Magistrates continue still to raise Men, and to make all possible provision for the defence and security of this place, in case of an attacke from any of our Neighbours. From Copenhagen they write, that there lies ready before that place Ten Danish men of War, several of which, are of considerable force, and only expect orders to sayl; which, together with the Leavies that are making, as well in Danemarch, in Holsteyn and other places for the Service of that King, occasions much discourse of a design upon this place.

From Brunswick we have advice, that all hands are there at work in the raising of a Cittadel, which the Duke of Wolfenbuttel proposes to have finished in two Months or three at farthest; that the Inhabitants are not suffer'd to come upon the Walls of the Town, or to meet together in any number above four or five.

From Warsaw, that the Tartars have lately made an other incursion, into some of the Frontier parts of the Kingdom, and had carry'd many people away with them, the Under-General Demetrius Wisnowitski very hardly, and with much difficulty escaping the same fortune, who it seems was there a hunting with some few Gentlemen only.

That the King continued his resolution of parting from thence the 6th instant towards Lublyn, and after some short stay there, to Leopol, where the general Rendezvouz is appointed.

Hague, July 14. From Overyssel they write, that those States are about choosing Officers, for the Regiments they are to raise; and that at present there seems to be more likelihood then ever, of adjusting the differences which have been so long on foot in that Province.

From Bylevelt we are told, that the Deputies that lately went thence on the part of these States for Brunswick, finding that Town surrendred before their arrival, immediately returned again to be present at the Treaty, which ought to be concluded there, though as yet they have not, as we can hear, made any progress in it, by reason of the many difficulties which daily arise.

Brussels, July 12. Some days since arriv'd here an Extraordinary Courier from Vienna, upon what errand we yet know not. The Princess de Maminis is returned hither from Aeth, where she hath been to visit her most Christian Majesty, upon the kinde Invitation she received from her Majesty to that purpose.

All the Cavalry that were quartered about this place, are now ordered to return again to their former Garrisons, and the Six Companies of Spanish Infantry lately sent to Moor, are as we are told, on their March hither again; the Fortifications of this place advance dayly, as likewise do those at Ghent, Bruges and other places; a work upon which our Governor is wholly intent, and in the forwarding of which his Excellency employs a very extraordinary care and diligence.

The States of Brabant are at present assembled by his Excellencies order, for the raising a farther supply of Money; his Excellency we are told hath demanded of them a Million of Florins, and it is thought, they will without much difficulty be brought to agree to that Summe.

From Aeth they write, that the Army is now separated, and ordered to march to several quarters, excepting only 5000 Men, who continue to work on the Fortifications of that place. Here is arriv'd on his way for Holland Don Emmanuel de Lyra, Ambassador to those States from the Crown of Spain. His Excellency, it is said, has intention of going into Gelderland, to visit that Province.

Hague, July 17. The States of Holland are at present assembled, and as is said, are about raising the impositions on Wines, but that being a matter of great moment, it is thought, it may take up some time before it be brought to a determination. The Dukes of Lunenburg have by Letters acquainted the States General of the Surrender of Branswick, to the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, and his having received the homage of those Magistrates there upon: it is thought, the States will return an answer by way of Congratulation.

From Berlin they write, that Prince Mauritz parted thence the 7th instant on his way hither; and that the same evening his Electoral Highness of Braudenburgh, together with his Highness the Prince of Orange returned thither from Custryn. The Town of Hambrough continues still very apprehensive of some approaching storm; and some say, that by their Resident here, they have made their applications to these States, to desire their assistance, in case they should stand in need thereof.

We speak here very variously of the affairs of Collogn; certain it is, those Magistrates have advice from good hands to look to themselves.

Paris, July 18. Their Majesties having with the whole Court left Aviz the 7th instant, and lodg'd that night at Quersnoy; the next day they arriv'd at St. Quentin; the 9th they came from thence to Compiene; the 10th to Luzarche; the 11th to Maisons; the 12th they arriv'd at Persailles, and the next day at St. Germain, where their Majesties have since received the Condoleances of all the Forreign Ministers residing at this Court, upon the death of the Duke of Anjou.

Deale, July 11. Yesterday and this day arriv'd in the Downet several Merchant men from the Sueights, Barbados, Virginia, and other places abroad.

Advertisement.

There is printed a new Proposition of Mr. Pooler concerning a fourth Volume of his Synopsis Criticorum, &c. approved by divers Reverend Bishops and others, (wherein also notice is given when and where the Subscribers may call for their second Volumes) which is to be delivered gratis, to all that send for it to London, either to Mr. William Pinckney Goldsmith at the Golden Dragon, near the Inner Templegate, or to Mr. Thomas Parbury Bookseller, at the Bible and three Crowns, near Mercers Chappell in Cheap-side, or to any of those Gentlemen in the Country, who were pleas'd to transmit the Subscribers Money for them to London; and all Gentlemen in London, who are concern'd with, or for any Subscribers in the Country, are intreated to send this new Proposition to them, and to procure answers from them.