

Coast of Lancashire; it is judged proper to give Notice, for the Satisfaction of the Publick, that the Letters which came in this Morning by the Post from Liverpool, Wigan, and Lancaster, do not make Mention of such Boats having put into any of those Places, nor do they Speak of any infectious Distemper in the Isle of Man. As to Lancaster in particular, from whence the Report is said to have had its Rise, a Letter from the Postmaster there dated the 2d Instant, does not take the least Notice of any of these Matters, which he could not have failed to do had there been any real Ground for them.
