

Date, notifying our said Order, shall be respectively subject and liable to all and every the Directions, Regulations, Appointments, and Restrictions, contained and mentioned in our said Order in Council of the fifth of February last, and Proclamation notifying the same; and all and every the said Directions, Regulations, Appointments, and Restrictions, shall, from and after such Default made, have Effect, and be put in Execution, for and in respect of all such Packet Boats, Ships and Vessels, and Persons, Goods and Merchandizes, as aforesaid, and all Matters and Things relating thereunto respectively, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been originally inserted and described in our said Order in Council of the fifth of February last, and Proclamation notifying our said Order: Now to the Intent that no Person may pretend Ignorance of our Commands therein, we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby, in Pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of our Reign, Intituled, An Act for repealing an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, Intituled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarantine; and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and to hinder the spreading of Infection, give Notice of the said Order of this second Day of October; and do require that all Persons do yield exact Obedience to the same. And we do hereby command the Commissioners of our Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of our High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, the Commissioners of our Customs, and the respective Governours and Commanders in Chief for the Time being, of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, that they do take Care and give the necessary Directions, that the said Order be put in Execution, and duly observed. And we do likewise strictly charge and command the Commanders of our Ships of War, the Commanders of our Forts and Garrisons lying near our Sea-Coasts, and all our Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magistrates, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and all other Officers and Ministers of Justice, to be aiding and assisting to the Officers of our Customs, and to all other Officers and Persons that shall be concerned in putting our said Order in due Execution, upon Pain of incurring our highest Displeasure, and the Penalties provided by Law against such Offences.

Given at our Court at Kensington this second Day of October, in the eighth Year of our Reign.

God save the KING.

Paris, Oct. 11. The Duke of St. Simon, who was to set out Yesterday for Spain, has deferred his Departure till next Week, his Equipage being not yet finished; 'tis said the Crown gives him 60000 Livres towards the Expences of his Embassy. Preparations are making for the Christening the Duke Regent's three youngest Daughters; the King is to be Godfather and the Dutchess Dowager of Orleans Godmother. M. de Bezons Archbishop of Rouen, died on the 8th Instant, at his Seat called Gallion in Normandy; 'tis thought the Bishop of Avranches, Brother to M. le Blanc, will succeed him. The Bishops of Bologne and of Langres are said to be very ill. On the 7th the Duke of Bourbon returned the Cardinal du Bois his Visit in the Hôtel d'Effiat, which the latter has hired, and where he will receive the Visits from all the Princes of the Blood. The Princess Ragotski arrived here on the 9th, and 'tis said the Prince her Husband will follow her hither shortly. The following Extract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court to the 8th of October, has been communicated to the foreign Ministers.

Provence. From M. de Fossaud, Sept. 21. There has not been any sick at Arles these 28 Days past. The Quarantain was ending, and the Houses were perfuming. From M. le Bret, Sept. 20. All Provence being will nigh intirely free from the Plague, he proposes to moderate the Precautions which were used against Communication. Salon is recovering, and performing Quarantain. He (M. le Bret) had caused a Soldier to be Shot for concealing some suspected Apparel.

Comtat of Avignon. From M. de Morange Gouverneur of Orange, Sept. 25. The Plague has been brought to Orange by a Woman who came with Brandy from Bedarides: She and her three Children are dead, and her Husband has Tutors under
