Conftantinople, October 21.

THE Venetian Bailo has made up the Difference with the Port about the Dulcignor Vesfel, and a Courier is fent away with an Account of it to the Senate. The Turkish Ambassadour is returned hither from France, having been brought back by two French Men of War of 60 and 40 Guns, commanded by Mess. de Camilly and de Nangis. French Ambassadour having presented those Captains to the Vizier, he gave them Presents of Handkerchies and Vests. They will be going hence in about Ten Days, and design in their Way to touch at several Ports in the Levant, having on board a Director of Commerce of their Nation, who is to enquire into and regulate such Abuses in Trade as he shall discover at any of those Places, according to the Custom practifed by the French once in three Years. The Muscovite Resident M. Neplevit a Sea Officer, who lately came hither, was carried, by the Envoy to his Audience of the Grand Signior four Days ago, at which the Ratifications of the new Treaty between the Port and the Czar were exchanged, and the Envoy took his Leave in order to return Home, leaving the other to reside here. M. Dirling who was Secretary of the Embassy to Count Virmont, and has continued here ever since his Departure with that Title, is lately declared the Emperour's Resident, and is preparing to take his Audiences of the Vizier and Grand Signior with that Character. The Grand Signior's Fleet of Ships and Gallies is lately returned from the Archipelago, but have brought in no Malteze Prizes as they generally used to do.

Stockholm, Nov. 8. On the 2d Inflant Advice came of M. Campredon's Arrival at Petersbourg, and that as foon as the Frost sets in the Czar intends to make a Tour to Moscow with his The last Letters from whole Court. Abo brought an Account of the fafe Arrival of most of the Troops lately ordered thither. It was last Week finally determined what Regiments shall be broke; but the College of War hath not yet thought fit to declare which they are, though it is faid it will be made publick some time this Week. An Express brought News last Week from Jon-Kopping, that Field-Marshal Count Morner died there on the 20th past.

Madrid, Nov. 17. On the 12th Inftant arrived an Express, with an Account of the Duke of St. Simon's Ar-

Fiver at Bayone the 9th Inflant, on his land delivered up their Arms: Which done, the Troops of Glaris entred in to the Country of Werdenberg, and foon after murched out again, without doing the least Injury or Damage, and are tince gone Home. The Deputies of Zurich having been very inttrumental in disposing by their Exhorrations the Inhabitants of Werdenberg to make an absolute Submission; the Council of the Canton of Glaris defluted Sixteen of their Principal Members to thank those Mediators for the good Offices done by them in this Affair. This Canton of Berne having had Notice, that two Bales of Goods which came from about Lyons, were dispatched this Way for Germany from Geneva, and having passed as far as Moudon in the Pays de Vaud, were there stope by Order of the Bailiff; the Council here took Cognizance of the Matter, and upon Debate resolved those Bales should forthwith be sent back to Geneva.
