

Life in Devotion; the King has given his Regiment to M. Pequigny Brother to the Duke of Chaulne. A Courier arrived here some Days ago from Rome, with Advice that the Cardinal de Rohan was to set out for Paris the 5th Instant; and that the Abbot Fancin would remain there some time to take Care of the Affairs of France. 'Tis said the King will give to the latter the Archbishoprick of Befançon after his return Home.

Paris, Dec. 24. The Duke Regent having named the Marquis de Puifegur Lieutenant General to instruct the King in the Military Arts, his Majesty has begun to take Lessons of that Officer, wherein he seems to take great Delight. It is said that M. du Bois, Brother to the Cardinal of that Name, is to set out forthwith for Bayonne, in order to officiate as Secretary of State at the Exchange of the two Princesses, which is still said to be fixed to the 15th of next Month. However, as the Roads are grown very bad, by reason of the great Rains and Snows that have fallen lately, 'tis thought the Infanta will not be able to arrive so soon upon the Frontiers of France.
