In his Passage the French and Swiss Guards stood drawn up under Arms: At the Foot of the great Staircase he was received by the Marquis de Dreux Great Master of the Ceremonies, the Hundred Swiss standing on the Stairs and in their Hall with their Halbards in their Hands. Within the Hall of the Life Guards he was received by the Duke de Harcourt Captain of one of the Troops of those Guards. After his Audience he was re-conducted to his Hôtel by the Chevalier de Saintot, with the usual Ceremonies. On the 1st Instant the said Spanish Ambassador had his publick Audience of Leave of the Duke Regent and of the Duke of Chartres.
