Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Madrid, June 1, N. S. The Viscount de Miralcazar, Major General, is appointed to command the Forces quartered in the Neighbourhood of Gibraltar, in the Room of the Marques de Pozoblanco. The Marques de Monte Alegre died suddenly the 15th past, he was Groom of the Stole to his Catholick Majesty, and Captain of the Company of Halbardiers-Guards; he is succeeded in his Estate and Title of Grandee by the Marques de Quintana his Son. The King and Queen with the Royal Family will come hither To-morrow from Aranjuez, in order to assist at the usual Procession, on Corpus Christi Day: After six Days stay here they will go to Balsain for a Month, and then remove to the Escorial: The Prince and Princess of Asturias will remain here till the Court is settled at the Escorial, and then go thither. The Employments vacant by the Death of the Marques de Monte Alegre are not yet disposed of, but the King has ordered the Count de Penaranda first Gentleman of his Bedchamber to officiate as Groom of the Stole. The Marques de Casafuerte, lately appointed Viceroy of Mexico, is arrived at Cadiz, whence he will put to Sea very soon with the Azogues or Quicksilver Ships for New Spain.

Turin, June 6, N. S. The Prince of Mafferan with his two Brothers arrived here some Days ago from Spain. He went from hence very young in the Service of the King of Sardinia's Daughter on her Marriage to his Catholick Majesty, and continued twenty Years in Spain, where he has made a considerable Fortune, having been advanced to the Rank of a Lieutenant-General, made a Grandee of Spain, and Knight of the Golden Fleece: His Father died here some Months ago, from whom he inherits the Title of Prince of Mafferan, which is an Ecclesiastical Fief situate between Piemont and the State of Milan. The Evening when the Court arrived at the Veneria, Count Galliani who has a House in that Neighbourhood, made a very fine Illumination and Fireworks, to welcome the Princess on her first coming to that Place. On the 30th past the Portuguese Cardinal d'Aconha arrived here from Rome with a numerous Retinue, designing to go to Paris and other Towns of France in his way Home.
