

On the 1st Instant he went to the Venetia to wait on their Sardinian Majesties. The 3d the King and Court came to Town, his Majesty made the Cardinal the Compliment to shew him the Santo Sudorio, after which he returned the same Day to the Venetia. On the 4th the Cardinal went to the Venetia to take Leave of the Court, and the same Evening set forward on his Journey.

Paris, June 17, N. S. On the 15th Instant after Dinner, the King set out from hence in his Coach for Versailles, being accompanied by the Duke Regent, the Duke of Chartres, the Duke of Bourbon, the Count de Clermont, and the Marshal de Villeroy; the chief Officers of the Household followed in several Coaches. A Detachment of the Guards attending on this Occasion, went as far as Seve, and another to Versailles; each Detachment consisting of two Brigades of the Life-Guards, two Brigades of the Guard of Gendarmes, two Brigades of the Light Horse, two Brigades of the Grey and two of the Black Mousquetaires, with their Officers. His most Christian Majesty at his alighting from his Coach, went to Prayers in the Chapel, whence he went up to his Apartments and took some Refreshment, then viewed the other Apartments, and afterwards walked in the little Park. Versailles being the Place of his Majesty's Birth, the Inhabitants of that Town made great Rejoycings, and had Te Deum sung in their Parish Church, for his coming to reside there. This Afternoon the Infanta Queen sets out for Versailles. The Duke Regent intends to come from thence by a Weekly every Thursday Morning after the King's Levee, and to go back the Friday Evening. Last Sunday Night M. de Montecuir one of the Gentlemen of the King's Bedchamber went to the Duke de Noailles at St. Germain en Laye, and delivered to him a Lettre de Cachet ordering him to retire to Auvergne, which he obeyed the next Morning. By another Order the Marquess de Canillac was commanded to retire fifty Leagues from Paris. Last Monday Morning the Prince of Chimay was married to a Daughter of the Duke of St. Simon in the Chapel of Meudon. The States of Britany will assemble at Nantes the Beginning of next Winter; the Marshal d'Etrees will sit there as the King's Commissioner, the Prince de Leon as President of the Noblesse, and the Bishop of Nantes as Principal of the Clergy. M. de Castelas Lieutenant-General, Lieutenant-Collonel of the Swiss Guards, and Collonel of the Swiss Regiment of his Name, died some Days ago. The 12th at Night he was interred at St. Roche his Parish Church, 400 Men of the Swiss Guards and 200 of the other Guards, with all the Officers, appeared at his Funeral. The Marquess de St. Herant Governour of Fontainebleau, is likewise dead, his second Son who had the Reversion of that Employment succeeds him.

Stockholm, May 30, O. S. Monday last being the King of Great Britain's Birthday, Mr.

Finch His Majesty's Minister at this Court, entertained on that Occasion at Dinner, the Senators and Foreign Ministers; and in the Evening there was a Ball, and a very fine Collation: There was a very great Appearance of both Sexes. About 10 a-Clock at Night the King of Sweden himself, in Compliment to the Day, was pleased to honour Mr. Finch with his Presence. His Majesty came as incognito, to avoid Ceremony, with a very few Attendants; was received at alighting from his Coach by Mr. Finch, and conducted into the great Hall where the Company was dancing: From whence his Majesty proceeded likewise into the other Apartments, and was pleased to be a Spectator of the different Diversions the several Companies were engaged in. Many Healths were drank during his Majesty's Stay, as, that of the King of Great Britain, the King and Queen of Sweden, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and the Royal Family of Great Britain; his Highness the Landgrave, and the illustrious Family of Hesse Cassel: Those of the King of Great Britain, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and Royal Family of Great Britain, being particularly begun by the King of Sweden; as were the other by Mr. Finch. His Majesty was pleased to stay till about Twelve a-Clock, and was then re-conducted to his Coach by Mr. Finch. It is said the King of Sweden will make a Tour into Schonen about a Fortnight hence; and that the Queen will go at the same Time to drink the Waters at Medewi.
