Whitehall, July 20.

AN humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum Justices of the Peace and Grand Jury for the County of Westmoreland, at the General Quarter Sessions held for the said County, having been transmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Lonsdale to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty.

An humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and freeholders of the County of Northampton, assembled at the Assizes held for the said County on Tuesday the 3d Day of July 1722, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Montagu.

An humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury assembled at the Assizes held at Oxford on the 11th of July, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John D'Oyley, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Lisbon, July 5, N. S. On the 25th past, his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Dursley Galley entered this River, after having cruized for some Days off the Burlings; where on the 21st she met the Dutch Squadron, under the Command of Commodore Grave, consisting of six Men of War of 40 Guns each. They were proceeding for the Mediterranean, in order to cruize against the Algerines, who (as we are informed by Letters from Faro of the 26th past) in Conjunction with the Rovers of Salles, have fitted out 18 Ships of above 20 Guns each.

Stockholm, June 27, O. S. The King and Queen of Sweden arrived at Médway on the 19th Instant, and by the last Letters from thence her Majesty had already begun to drink the Waters of that Place; but upon some Experiments made of those Waters by one of the King's Physicians, his Majesty has been dissuaded from drinking them. And they write, that his Majesty would in all Probability stay only 10 or 12 Days longer there, and go from thence to take a View of the Fleet at Carlscroon. The Dutchess Dowager of Mecklenbourg, his Swedish Majesty's Sister, having desired Leave to pay her Respects to the Queen, it is said the King has permitted that Princess to come, and that his Majesty will himself meet her at Elsburng; and as his Majesty has appointed the Beginning of August for the reviewing of the several Regiments in Schonen, and the adjacent Provinces, it is presumed her Highness will come over about the same Time. The Weather has all the last Month and this been so extreme wet and cold all over this Kingdom, that if a sudden Change do not happen, the whole Crop of Corn now on the Ground must be inevitably spoiled, the Wheat and Rye particularly being already every where laid almost flat on the Ground.

Copenhagen, July 18, N. S. The King of Denmark came Yesterday from Fredericksberg to Copenhagen, to see a new Ship of 94 Guns launched, which is called by the Queen's Name Anna Sophia. His Majesty dined aboard the Pomerania a Frigate which is fitted out as a Yacht for his Majesty's Use. The Weather being fine, his Majesty gave Orders to sail to Elsinore, where he designed to land, and to go from thence to Fredericksbourg, but the Wind changing he was obliged to return to Copenhagen, from whence his Majesty is this Day gone to Fredericksbourg. The King of Sweden is expected shortly in Schonen. The King of Denmark has given Orders to his Grand Marechal to go thither as soon as he arrives, and to invite his Majesty to come to this Court.

Whitehall, July 20. The Right Honourable the Lord Whitworth, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Congress at Cambray, set out to Day for Dover, in order to embark for Calais. His Lordship is to make a short Stay at Paris, and from thence to proceed to Cambray.

Baron Sparre the King of Sweden's Envoy Extraordinary, will set out from hence next Tuesday for Stockholm, from whence he is to return in a few Weeks to this Court.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury being enabled to discharge and cancel the Exchequer Bills, amounting to One Million, which were, on the 7th Day of June 1720, issued by way of Loan, to the South-Sea Company; their Lordships, according to the Directions of Acts of Parliament in that behalf, do hereby give Notice, That all Persons possessed of the said Loan Bills, shall have time, till Tuesday the Seventh Day of August 1722, to bring in and deliver the said Bills to any the Tellers of the Receipts of the Exchequer, at their Offices there; who are thereupon to pay to the Bearer of such Bills, the Principal and Interest to the Day on which they shall be so brought, such Day being on or before the Seventh Day of August 1722, as aforesaid: And, if in case the said Bills be not brought in on or before the Day affixed as aforesaid, their Lordships do further signify, that, according to the Directions of the Act 8^o Georgii, all such of the said Bills as shall not be brought in upon this Notice to be discharged, lose their Currency, and no Interest is to grow due thereupon after Lady-Day 1722. And whereas not only the Exchequer Bills, called Loan Bills, now meant to be cancelled, but also all other the Exchequer Bills subsisting at the time the said Loan Bills were issued, carried Interest of One Penny per Cent. per Diem only, in the Body of the said Bills, but it was afterwards thought fit and agreed, for supporting the Credit and Currency of the said Bills, that One Penny per Cent. per Diem, additional Interest, should attend, and be paid on the said Bills, from the eighth Day of October 1720, and publick Notification thereof was given by the then Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the said Interest and Additional Interest, making together Two Pence per Cent. per Diem, has attended and been paid, or is payable on the said Bills accordingly; Now, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having contracted and agreed with the Bank of England, for the Circulating and Exchanging of all Exchequer Bills, at Demanda, during the Space of one Year, beginning from the 24th Day of July 1722, their Lordships give Notice that the said additional Interest of One Penny per Cent. per Diem, not only on the said Loan Bills, but other the old Exchequer Bills, that had then a joint Currency with them, is to cease and be no longer paid, than to the said 24th Day of July 1722: So that from and after that Day, the Interest on the said Bills will be One Penny per Cent. per Diem only, as the same stands expressed and declared in the Body of the same Bills.

The Act of Parliament establishing the Lottery commonly called the first Lottery Anno 1719, requiring that the Fortunate Tickets in the same Lottery shall be delivered up to the Accountant General of the Bank to be converted into a Capital Stock transferable at the Bank and attended with Annuities after the Rate of Four per Cent. per Annum, payable by the Cashier of the Bank till redeemed by Parliament; The Accountant General of the Bank gives Notice, that he is ready to take in all such of the said Fortunate Tickets as have been certified not to be subscribed into the Capital of the South-Sea Company.
