Stockholm, July 18, O. S.

LETTERS from Medway say the King's Journey to Schonen is fixed to the 21st Instant, and that the Queen will accompany him thither.

Turin, Aug. 5, N. S. On the 2d Instant in the Evening the King and Court returned from the Venecia to Rivoli, from whence they are expected in Town towards the Beginning of next Month, when his Majesty designs to form a Camp on a Plain within three Miles of this Place for reviewing and exercising his Troops. Mr. Moleworth the British Envoy at this Court, has for some Days past been very much indisposed, but is now judged to be on the mending Hand.

Cambray, Aug. 10, N. S. The Commandeur M. Delaval, who is charged with the Affairs of the Order of Malta at the Congress here, has received a Letter from Malta giving an Account, that on the 3d of July five Turkish Sultanas, or Ships of War, appeared before that Place, and the Commanding Officer sent in a Letter to the Great Master, requiring him to deliver up all the Mahometan Slaves, and to send an Answer to Tunis. Those Ships cruized in Sight of the Town two Days, and then went away. The Letter adds, that if they returned they would find the Island in a good Posture of Defence.

Paris, Aug 12, N S. His Excellency the Lord Whitworth, Ambassadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain to the Congress of Cambray, arrived here last Night. On the 10th Instant in the Morning, an Order was sent to the Marshal de Villeroy to retire to his Seat of Villeroy: This Order was delivered to him by M. de la Fare Captain of the Guards of his Royal Highness the Duke Regent, and by the Count d'Artagnan Captain-Lieutenant of the Mousquetaires, which last Officer was ordered to accompany the Marshal to Villeroy. On the 11th M. du Liboy, one of the King's Grooms of the Bed-Chamber in Ordinary, went to the Marshal de Villeroy with another Order, to repair to his Government of Lyons, whither the said M. du Liboy is to accompany him, and to remain there with him till further Orders. Letters from Madrid of the 27th of last Month say a Courier arrived the 24th from Carthage-na, with Advice that the Spanish and Dutch Squadrons having joined, were lying off Algiers.

Kusington, August 3.

This Day M. Hallungius, Envoy from the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, had a private Audience of Leave of His Majesty.

August 4. This Day Count Staremberg, Ambassadour and Plenipotentiary Minister from the Emperour, had his first private Audience of His Majesty.

M. Van Borffele, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, had also a private Audience of Leave of His Majesty.

They were severally introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, Aug. 6, 1722.

Whereas John Sample, alias Semple, a Prisoner for High Treason in the Custody of one of His Majesty's Messengers in the Great Almonry in Westminster, made his Escape from thence on Sunday the 5th of August Instant, about Eight a-Clock in the Evening: Notice is hereby given thereof that no Person may presume to entertain or to conceal him, as they will Answer the same at their Peril: And whoever shall discover the said John Sample, so as he may be apprehended and brought to Justice, shall receive a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds: He is a young Man, middle-sized, hath a longish Face, very little marked with the Small Pox, and freckled, grey Eyes, a Nose somewhat high and aquiline, his Eyelashes White inclining to Red, his Eye-brows and Hair Red: He is well shaped and rather lean; and he had on a light Wig, and a grey Coat trimmed with Black.

TOWNSHEND.

The Letter signed S. T. was received as directed, but not soon enough to be advertised in the Gazette of Saturday the 29th of July last. If the Person who sent the said Letter will perform what he proposed, he may depend upon receiving all possible Encouragement.

Whitehall, April 16, 1722.

This is to signify in His Majesty's Name, that if any Person or Persons shall hereafter apprehend any one or more Highwaymen, who from and after the Date hereof shall have robbed any of the Mails, or shall have been concerned as Accomplices in the robbing of any of them, such Person or Persons shall have a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender, who shall be convicted thereof, thereof, to be paid by the Receiver General of the Post Office, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person hereafter concerned in robbing any of the Mails shall make a Discovery of the same, so that his Accomplice or Accomplices shall be convicted thereof, such Person shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon, and also receive the Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender so convicted, to be paid as aforesaid.
