By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Apprehending John Sample, alias Semple.

GEORGE R.

*W*hereas John Sample, alias Semple, being in Custody, by Virtue of a Warrant of one of our Principal Secretaries of State, for High Treason, made his Escape from the House of Daniel Molloy, one of our Messengers in Ordinary, in the Great Almonary in Westminster, on Sunday the Fifth Instant, about eight of the Clock in the Evening, and is fled from Justice: We have therefore thought fit, by the Advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation, hereby requiring and commanding all our loving Subjects whatsoever, to discover and apprehend, and cause the said John Sample (who is a Young Man, Middle-sized, having a longish Face very little marked with the Small Pox, and freckled; Grey Eyes, a Nose somewhat High and Aquiline, his Eye-lashes White, inclining to Red, his Eye-brows and Hair Red, well shap'd, rather Lean, having on a Light Wig, and a Grey Coat trimmed with Black) to be apprehended and discovered, and to carry him before some of our Justices of the Peace, or Chief Magistrates of the County, Town, or Place, where he shall be apprehended; who are respectively required to secure him, and thereof to give speedy Notice unto our Privy-Council, or one of our Principal Secretaries of State, to the End he may be forth-coming, and be dealt withal, and proceeded against, according to Law. And whoever shall Apprehend or Discover the said John Sample, and bring him before such Justice of the Peace or Chief Magistrate, shall receive for Reward the Sum of One Thousand Pounds; which said Sum of One Thousand Pounds the Lords Commissioners of our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly.

Given at our Court at Kensington; the Seventh Day of August, in the Ninth Year of our Reign, God save the KING.

Whitehall, August 10.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Chamberlain, Assistants, and Common Council of the ancient Corporation of Colchester, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Isaac Rebow their High Steward, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Thomond Lord Lieutenant of the County of Essex.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, has been presented to His Majesty by James Pelham, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Nottingham.

Which Addresses His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

Whitehall, August 10.

Yesterday the Funeral of his Grace John late Duke of Marlborough, was performed with the greatest Solemnity and Magnificence.

At Marlborough House at St. James's the first Room was hung with Bayes; the second with Cloth, where was a Chair of State at the upper End with a Majesty Scutcheon over it; the third was hung with Velvet, floored with Bayes, having at the upper End an Ascent of three Steps, where stood a Bed of State of Black Velvet properly adorned, with Black Plumes at the Corners of the Tester; at the Head of the Bed a Majesty Scutcheon; the Coffin was covered with Crimfon Velvet, over which was a fine Holland Sheet, and on that a Pall of black Velvet; upon which was laid a Compleat Suit of Armour gilt, with a General's Truncheon in the Right Hand, the great Collar of the Order of the Garter about the Neck with the George appendant, and the Garter on the Left Leg, a rich rich Sword in a Crimson Velvet Scabbard, being buckled to the Side by a like Velvet Belt; on one side of the Head was laid the Cap of a Prince of the Empire, and on the other side a Ducal Coronet, under the Head a Crimson Velvet Cushion with Gold Fringes and Tassels; the Feet resting on a Lyon couchant holding a Banner, being his Grace's Crest; and round about the Body were placed the several Ensigns which will be afterwards mentioned in the Procession, with several Scutcheons on the Columns of the Bed properly disposed. The said three Rooms were adorned with a great Number of Scutcheons of several Sorts, with Cyphers and Badges interspersed, and with Silver Sconces and large Silver Candlesticks having Wax Tapers burning in them. Two other large Rooms were hung with Cloth and adorned in the like Manner, for the Reception of the Nobility and others who were invited to the Funeral.

About half an Hour after Twelve the Procession began, and passed along the Road through St James's Park and the Upper Park to Hyde Park Corner, thence through Piccadilly, down St. James's Street, through the Pall Mall, and by Charing-Cross through King Street to Westminster-Abbey.

A proper Disposition had been made of such of the Forces as were drawn from the Camp in Hyde Park to attend the Funeral: The first Regiment of His Majesty's Foot Guards was drawn up in the Upper Park, with their Right next to Buckingham-House; the rest both Foot and Horse-Guards and Horse-Grenadiers, were drawn up facing the Road through that Park on the Left of the first Regiment of Foot-Guards, in the Order they were to file off after each other; a Train of Artillery (consisting of 15 Pieces of Cannon and two Mortars, with the Great Kettle Drums belonging to the Artillery on a Carriage drawn by two Horses) and the two Companies of Cannoniers and Bombardiers were drawn up in Hyde Park near the Gate towards Piccadilly; and a Detachment of the second and fourth Troops of Horse-Guards was drawn up on the Parade in St. James's Park, in order to close the Procession.

This Disposition being made, the March was in the following Manner.

The Detachment of Horse-Grenadiers; commanded by Col Fanshawe.

The Detachment of the first and third Troops of Horse-Guards; commanded by the Lord Newburgh.

The Artillery with the two Companies of Cannoniers and Bombardiers; commanded by Col Bourgeois.

The Detachment of the third Regiment of Foot-Guards; commanded by the Earl of Dunmore.

The Detachment of the second Regiment of Foot-Guards; commanded by the Earl of Scarborough.

The first Regiment of Foot-Guards; in the Rear of which came Major General Taitton as Major of that Regiment.

The General Officers; viz.

Brig. Honeywood; Brig. Crofts, Brig. Munden.
Brig. Stanwix. Brig. Bowles.
Maj. Gen. Wightman. Maj. Gen. Wade.
Lieut. Gen. Macartney. Lieut. Gen. Wills.

The Earl of Cadogan, General and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces, Master-General of the Ordnance, and Colonel of the first Regiment of Foot-Guards; attended by Col. Orway, as Quartermaster-General (in the Place of Col. Armstrong, who being Surveyor-General of the Ordnance was obliged to attend at the Tower) and by his Lordship's Six Aides de Camp.

Col. Manning. Col Husk.

roy King of Arms.

The Body, with the Suit of Armour, &c. as on the Bed of State, in an open Chariot, with Mr. Ridley and Mr. Mitchel, two Officers of his Grace's Bed-Chamber, sitting at the Head and Feet, in close Mourning, bare-headed. The Chariot had four Columns which bore up a black Velvet Canopy lined with black Taffeta, with deep Gold Fringe, and Tassels at each Corner, on the Top were several black Plumes with Trophies of War intermixed; the lower Part of the Chariot was adorned on both Sides with several Shields, representing his Grace's Victories and Conquests, under which was a Scroll with this Motto, Bello hæc Opulenta. The Chariot was drawn by eight Horses covered with Velvet, the two first Horses caparisoned with the Arms of his Grace as Prince of the Empire, the next two with his Grace's full Arms surrounded with the Garter, with the Supporters, surmounted with the Ducal Coronet; the next two with the same Arms as the first; and the two next his Body, with his full Arms surrounded with the Garter as before. On each Side of the said Chariot were five Captains, in their Military Mourning, each carrying a Bannerol of the Arms of the Descent and Lineage of the Deceased; each of the eight Horses was led by a Groom, the Coachman in deep Mourning.

Immediately after the Chariot came a Horse of State, caparisoned with Cloth of Gold, led with a Silken Rein by Captain Read his Grace's Master of the Horse, in his Military Mourning, walking on Foot, assisted by two Grooms on Foot.

Garret King of Arms with the Rod of his Office in his Right Hand, and as Director of the Funeral.

The Earls of Sunderland and Godolphin, in the next Coach, as being Supporters to the Chief Mourner.

In five other Coaches followed

The Duke of Somerset, The Duke of Newcastle Lord-Chamberlain.

The Duke of Grafton, The Duke of Cleveland.

The Duke of Montrose, The Duke of St. Albans.

The Duke of Dorset, The Duke of Kent.

The Earl of Strafford, The Earl of Peterborough.

All (except the Duke of Montrose) having their Collars and Stars as Knights of the Garter. These Ten being Assistants to the Chief Mourner.

In the two next Coaches came

The Earl of Cardigan, The Earl of Leicester.

The Earl of Bristol, The Earl of Burlington. Who were to support the Pall in the Church.

A Horse of Honour, richly caparisoned, led with a Silken Rein by Captain Fish in his Military Mourning, walking on Foot, assisted by two Grooms on Foot.

His Majesty's Coach.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales's Coach.

Then followed the Coaches of the Nobility, &c. according to their several Precedencies and Degrees.

Being arrived at the West-Door of the Abbey of Westminster, only those Persons who bore the Standard, Guidon, and Banners above-mentioned, and their Supporters, as also the Heralds, with his Grace's Secretary, two Chaplains, and his four White Staff Officers, and those who carried the Bannerols, entered the Church. The Chariot coming to the Door, the Armour was taken off, the Body was carried into the Church and rested near the Entrance, while the Chief Mourner, his Supporters and Assistants, the Pall-bearers, and the Nobility and others attending, alighted out of their Coaches, the Organ playing during that Time. Having all entered into the Church, a Velvet Canopy being held over the Body, and the Pall-bearers having taken up the Corners of the Pall, the Prebends in their rich Copes and the Choir in their Surplices placed themselves after the Great Banner and before the Heralds who carried the Trophies, and sung the Sentence in the Office for Burial, I am the Resurrection and the Life, with the two following Sentences, and continued Singing till the Body was placed in King Henry the VIIIth's Chapel.

Garret King of Arms.

The Chief Mourner, with his two Supporters, Sir Robert Rich bearing his Train.

The Ten Assistants.

The Nobility according to their several Precedencies.

In this Manner they proceeded through the South Isle of the Church till they came near to the Choir, and then crossing into the North Isle went up to King Henry the VIIth's Chapel, where the Body was rested on a Stand prepared for it in the Middle of the Area: The Pall-bearers were seated on Stools at each Corner of the Body; at the Head the Chief Mourner, with his two Supporters, one on each Hand; and his Ten Assistants were seated Five on each Side of the Body; the Nobility placing themselves in the Stalls. During the whole Solemnity, in the Church and also in this Chapel, the Bannerols were held over the Body.

An Altar by the Dean's Order was erected at the Head of King Henry the VIIth's Tomb. After the Body was set down in the Chapel, an Anthem was performed with Vocal and Instrumental Musick, the Performers being placed on a Scaffold, hung from Top to Bottom with Mourning, erected for that Purpose cross the Chapel at the Entrance.

The Anthem being ended, the Body was carried to a Vault at the Foot of K. Henry the VIIth's Tomb, the Choir singing, Man that is born of a Woman, and the three following Sentences, and continued singing them till the Body was deposited in the Vault. Then the Lord Bishop of Rochester, Dean of Westminster, in his Cope, read, Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God, &c. Then the Choir sung, I heard a Voice from Heaven, &c. The Service being ended, Garter King of Arms proclaimed the Title of the Deceased; and then his Grace's Officers breaking their Staves, delivered the Pieces to Garter, who threw them in upon the Coffin.

During the Procession and till the Body was deposited, the Guns at the Tower fired, one every Minute.

The Detachments of the Horse-Grenadiers and of the first and third Troops of Horse Guards, having passed by the West Door of the Abbey, went through Tuthil-Street to Buckingham-House, and entering St. James's Park at the Gate there, marched to the Parade and drew up. The Artillery, with the two Companies of Cannoniers and Bombardiers made the same March, and drew up also on the Parade. The Detachments of the third and of the second Regiment of Foot-Guards, and the first Regiment of Foot-Guards, having marched by the said Abbey Door, passed through Queen's-Square into St. James's Park, and drew up on the Parade. The Detachments of the second and fourth Troops of Horse-Guards, commanded by the Lord Forrester (which closed the Procession,) after they came to the said Abbey Door, returned by the Way they went, marched into St. James's Park through the great Gate at the Horse-Guards, and drew up also on the Parade.

All the Troops and Artillery being drawn up on the Parade in St. James's Park, at a Signal given that the Body was deposited, fired three Volleys. Then they returned to the Camp in Hyde-Park, the Horse first, the Foot next, and after them the Artillery.

Richmond, Aug. 6. This Day his Excellency Count Staremberg Ambassador and Plenipotentiary Minister from the Emperour, had private Audiences of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, in their respective Apartments, to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, April 16, 1722.

This is to signify in His Majesty's Name, that if any Person or Persons shall hereafter apprehend any one or more Highwaymen, who from and after the Date hereof shall have robbed any of the Mails, or shall have been concerned as Accomplices in the robbing of any of them, such Person or Persons shall have a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender, who shall be convicted thereof, to be paid by the Receiver General of the Post-Office, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person hereafter concerning in robbing any of the Mails shall make a Discovery of the same, so that his Accomplice or Accomplices shall be convicted thereof, such Person shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon, and also receive the Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender so convicted, to be paid as aforesaid.
