

Alan Angus Harry MACDONALD, lately Director, United Nations Mine Action Co-ordination Centre of Afghanistan. For services to the clearance of land mines in Afghanistan.

Michael Dominic Finn MEDLEY, lately Spokesman, Office for the NATO Senior Civilian Representative, Kabul, Afghanistan. For services to the development of independent media in Afghanistan.

Nikesh Ashvinkumar MEHTA, Counsellor, Foreign Policy and Security, British High Commission, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. For services to British foreign policy, British interests in Malaysia, and to promoting diversity.

Wasim MIR, Head, Projects Task Force, Foreign and Commonwealth Office. For services to new and innovative ways of working and diversity in the Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

Jonathan Charles MOSS, lately Senior Governance Adviser, Provincial Reconstruction Team, Helmand, Afghanistan. For services to development and stabilisation in Helmand, Afghanistan.

John William Alan OKELL, Lecturer (Retired), School of Oriental and African Studies, London University. For services to UK/Burma relations.

Dr. Robert PARSONS, M.B.E., Founder, Hope for Children. For services to disadvantaged children in the UK and overseas.

Ms Madeleine Selina REES, Secretary General, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. For services to human rights, particularly women's rights, and international peace and security.

Dr. Graham Paul SCHNEIDER, lately Honorary Legal Adviser, British Embassy, Vienna, Austria. For services to British interests and to the British community in Austria.

Professor Charles Reginald Connon SHEPPARD, lately Environmental Adviser to the Commissioner, British Indian Ocean Territory. For services to environmental conservation in the British Indian Ocean Territory.

Michael Nicholas SNOWMAN. For services to promoting British cultural interests in France.

Richard James SQUIRE, First Secretary, British Embassy, Washington, USA. For services to international diplomacy.

Robert Vincent WILLIAMS, Chief Executive, War Child. For services to protecting and improving the lives of children, including those affected by conflict overseas.

M.B.E.

To be Ordinary Members of the Civil Division of the said Most Excellent Order:

Veronica, Mrs. AL-MUTAWA, Founder and Chief Executive, The British School of Kuwait. For services to British education and to the community in Kuwait.

Paul John BROOKER, lately Head, Rule of Law, Provincial Reconstruction Team, Helmand, Afghanistan. For services to stabilisation in Helmand, Afghanistan.

David John BURNS, Deputy Chairman and Chief Operating Officer, British Business Group, Dubai, UAE. For services to British business, charity and community work in Dubai.

Anthony Joseph CALDERBANK, lately Director, British Council South Sudan. For services to British cultural and educational interests in South Sudan.

Jill Catherine, Mrs. CAMPBELL, Teacher, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. For services to disadvantaged people in Ethiopia.

David John CHUN, Head, Corporate Services and H.M. Consul, British Embassy, Sana'a, Yemen. For services to staff welfare and management at the British Embassy, Sana'a.

Nigel Martin CLISSOLD, Second Secretary, Foreign and Commonwealth Office. For services to British defence and security interests overseas.

Ronald Ivan COHEN, Bibliographer and President Sir Winston Churchill Society of Ottawa, Canada. For services to British history.

Darren COYLE, Account Manager, British Council. For services to British educational and sporting opportunities for young people overseas.

Dr. Ingrid Anne ELLIOTT, International Criminal Lawyer. For services to international justice.

Alison Jayne, Mrs. ERNOULT, British Honorary Consul, Martinique. For services to consular assistance to British nationals in Martinique.

Ebenezer Harold FELLOWS, Chairman, British Cemetery Committee, Kyrenia, north Cyprus. For services to the community in north Cyprus.

Stephen FRADLEY, Prison Reform Co-ordinator, Caribbean and Bermuda Overseas Territories. For services to criminal justice in the Caribbean Overseas Territories and Bermuda.

Benjamin Lewis GOODFELLOW, Second Secretary, Foreign and Commonwealth Office. For services to British interests overseas.

Patricia Marion, Mrs. GOUGH, Trustee, Orphans in the Wild. For services to the victims of AIDS, particularly children, in Tanzania.

Gavin Ross GRAHAM, Overseas Security Manager, British Embassy, Mogadishu, Somalia. For services to the security of British personnel and to British interests in Somalia.

Steven Lloyd GRIFFITHS, Deputy Project Manager, Security, British Embassy, Kabul, Afghanistan. For services to the safety and security of staff at the British Embassy, Kabul.

Miss Rosalind Nana Emela KAINYAH, Founder and Director, Kina Advisory Limited. For services to corporate social responsibility for the benefit of young people in Africa.

Susan Mary, Mrs. LAWTON, Founder, WEConnect International (Europe). For services to promoting women business leaders worldwide.

Lisa Wendy, Mrs. MARSHALL, Second Secretary, Foreign and Commonwealth Office. For services to international relations.

Andrew John OLIVER, lately Chairman of the Board, Lifebridge, Salem, Massachusetts, USA. For services to homelessness in the USA.

Martin Robert OXLEY, Director, Trade and Investment, British Embassy, Warsaw, Poland. For services to British trade and investment in Poland and Central Europe.

William John PALFRAMAN, Vice Consul, British Consulate-General, Hong Kong. For services to British foreign policy.

Sylvia Chong-Ae, Mrs. PARK, Events Secretary, Anglo-Korean Society. For services to strengthening links between the UK and Korea.

Paul Andrew PARKINSON, Music Adviser, British Council. For services to British music overseas.

Ms Helen Rose PATERSON, Head, Corporate Services, British High Commission, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. For services to British consular and community interests and to charity work in Malaysia.

Mark Stanley Michael SEAMAN, Historian, Cabinet Office. For services to the history of espionage.