Lisbon, Aug. 25, N. S. The King of Portugal has made a new Alvara or Regulation for preventing the Running of Goods. It bears Date the 9th Instant, was published on the 20th, and is as follows.

UPON Information that the Penalties imposed by the Foral Law of the Custom-House, and by the Extraordinary Law of the 6th of September 1705, are not sufficient to prevent the Detriment which my Treasury suffers, by means of Goods run from on board of Packet-Boats, and other Ships, which ought to have been dispatched at the Custom-House, and to have paid their respective Duties: And finding it absolutely necessary to establish new Cautions and Remedies, in order to avoid so prejudicial a Practice: It is our Pleasure, that no Person, of whatsoever Quality, Estate or Condition, shall be suffered to go on board of Packet-Boats, or any other Merchant Ships, belonging either to Natives or Foreigners, or on board of the Convoys of the Fleets from the Brazils, whilst any of the said Ships are unloading, without special Licence from the Inspector of the Custom-House given in Writing, and specifying that the Person so licensed, shall return directly from the Ship which he is permitted to go to, to the Custom-House, there to be examined, if he have brought away with him any Goods, Gold, Silver or Money. And this Form shall be observed with Reference to the Ship from India, by the Procurator thereof: This Prohibition shall not only extend to all Ships when come to an Anchor in this Harbour, but likewise to Ships at Anchor or under Sail, from the Bar of Cascais upwards. And before Ships are come to an Anchor in this Port, it shall be allowable only for the Pilots of the Bar to go on board them, the Vessels in which they go to the Side of the Ship immediately removing from thence, as soon as the Pilot is put on board. Furthermore, Upon Information, that in order to facilitate the Running of Goods, there has been invented a Sort of Boats much lighter than ordinary Frigates, which it is convenient should be prohibited: It is our Pleasure that the said Sort be extinguished, and no longer used in the Ports of this Kingdom; and whatsoever small Vessels of that Nature are in this Harbour, shall be pulled to Pieces within eight Days after the Publication of this Law. And all Transgressors hereof, shall incur the Penalty of Ten Years Banishment to Maranham, besides the Loss of whatsoever Goods shall be run, and of the one half of all their Goods and Chattels. The Persons also who shall be found selling Goods, that have not been dispatched, according to the Foral Law, shall incur the same Penalties. And of the Transgressors of this Law, as also of the Goods run contrary to it, Information may be given either in publick or in secret: And one Third of the Goods seized, as likewise of the Goods belonging to the Criminal, shall be given to the Informer. It is our Pleasure also, that in cases of this Nature, no Bail of any kind be allowed, and that no Privileges be admitted, even those which are incorporated in our Laws; for as to this Matter, it is our Pleasure that they be all derogated and of no Effect, in the same manner as if they had been here, each of them, specially mentioned: For so it is necessary they should be, for the extinguishing such Practices, and punishing the Delinquents. Furthermore, the Penalties abovementioned shall be inflicted on all Persons, who shall put any Goods on board, or take any Goods from on board any Ship or Vessel, belonging to Natives or Strangers, after they are dispatched outwards, whether it be done within or without the Bar. And the Captain, Master, or other Officer on board any Ship, who shall receive such Goods, or give Aid or Favour to the receiving the same, shall incur the same Penalties; the same is ordained in case they shall suffer any Goods to be taken out of their Ships. And the Inspectors of the Custom-House and India House are hereby strictly charged not to grant Licences for going on board any Ships, without manifest Cause and Necessity. The Council of Treasury are required to take special Notice hereof, and to see it executed, in the Part which belongs to their Jurisdiction. West-Lisbon, Aug. 9, 1722.

The preceding Alvara is published, to the Intent all British Merchants trading to Portugal may take Notice of the Rules prescribed therein, and conform themselves thereto, to prevent any Inconveniences or Losses which they may otherwise sustain.
