Whitehall, September 24.

AN humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeffes, Clergy, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Exeter.

Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Madrid, Sept. 14. The Marquess de Grimaldo being recovered from an Indisposition, brought upon him by Grief for the Loss of his Son who died some Months ago, set out To-Day for Balsain where the Court resides at present, to resume the usual Exercise of his Office of Secretary of State. On the 12th Instant died the Count de Fuen Saldana, Son in Law to the Count d'Aguilar, in the 28th Year of his Age, leaving no Issue behind him. The Duke de Varaguas is preparing to set out for Cambray, on his private Affairs. The Duke of Liria is preparing to go to France, to see the most Christian King's Coronation. They have been under an Alarm in Catalonia, upon a Rumour that the Ottoman Fleet was come into those Seas; whereupon all the Troops in that Principality put themselves in Motion, to guard those Parts of that Coast where Descents may most easily be made.

Stockholm, Sept. 5, O. S. The King and Queen of Sweden arrived at Gottenbourg two or three Days sooner last Week than they were expected, yet their Reception by the Inhabitants was very magnificent. Their Majesties resolved to stay there till the 3d Instant, when the whole Court was to set out for Hioentorp; and when the King has finished the appointed Review there, the Queen is to come to the Palace of Stromholm, and stay there till the King has also reviewed the Regiment of Life-Guards, which is to rendezvous at Upsal the 22d of this Month; and four or five Days after the King and Queen will return hither.

On Sunday last a Muscovite Brigantine arrived here, with about 100 Swedish Prisoners from Petersbourg, whence they came the 14th of last Month. Last Week arrived here also a Ship from Revel, by which we have an Account, that the Muscovites have begun to build some Fortifications at a Place about five or six Leagues from Revel, where there is an Harbour said to be capable of receiving a great Number of Ships of the largest Burthen; and it is reported the Czar has ordered it to be called New Malta.

Turin, Sept. 19, N. S. Sunday the 13th Instant, his Majesty with the Prince of Piedmont arrived here from Rivoli. Last Tuesday Evening his Majesty with the Prince went to the Camp, and the next Day the Prince was declared Colonel of that Regiment of Dragoons distinguished by the Name of Piemontese, at the Head of which his Royal Highness saluted his Majesty, who also rode up to him and returned the Salute; after which the whole Body of the Troops were exercised in his Majesty's Presence, and then his Majesty with the Prince returned to his Head Quarters at Carpené. Madame Royale was taken ill on Wednesday last, but is since recovered of her Indisposition. The Chevalier Vaganego, who transacted Business here for the Republick of Genoa, tho' without a Character, died here the 16th Instant.

Whitehall, Sept. 21. Letters from Lisbon of the 25th of August, N. S. give an Account that the King of Portugal has made a new Alvara or Regulation for preventing the Running of Goods. It bears Date the 9th of the same Month, was published on the 20th, and is as follows.

UPON Information that the Penalties imposed by the Foral Law of the Custom-House, and by the Extraordinary Law of the 6th of September 1705, are not sufficient to prevent the Detriment which my Treasury suffers, by means of Goods run from on board of Packet-Boats, and other Ships, which ought to have been dispatched at the Custom-House, and to have paid their respective Duties: And finding it absolutely necessary to establish new Cautions and Remedies, in order to avoid so prejudicial
