St. James's, October 15.

THE following Address has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Durham, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the timely Discovery of some late Wicked and Treasonable Designs concerted in Favour of the Pretender.

We think our selves more particularly affected by the Consequences of such Attempts, and are therefore bound in Interest, as well as Duty to your Majesty, to abhor them; we are persuaded that the Security of our Established Church, under God, depends upon the Safety of your Person, the Preservation of your Government, and the Continuance of the Succession in your illustrious Line, and that all Changes in our Establishment must be prejudicial to our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

It hath been, ever since the Reformation, the distinguishing Mark of the true Members of our Communion, to profess and teach Loyalty to their Sovereign; in pursuance of which we shall make it our Endeavour to possess our several Flocks with the same Sentiments, and to discourage all groundless Discontents against your Government.

That your Majesty's steady Cares and faithful Endeavours for the Protestant Interest Abroad, and our Establishment at Home, may meet with all just Returns of Affection and Respect from your loving Subjects, and that you may long Reign over a happy and free People, are our Wilhes and Prayers.

An humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governour, the Judge-Delegate, the Jurats, the Clergy, the King's Procurator, and the Constables, being the Estates of His Majesty's Island of Guernsey, Part of His ancient Duchy of Normandy, assembled the 19th of September 1722, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant-General Harvey, Governour of that Island, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

tatives in Parliament for the said County, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the Absence of the Earl of Thomond Lord Lieutenant of the said County.
