

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 20. to Tuesday October 23. 1722.

St. James's, October 22.

AN humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum in Common-Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Anthony Duncomb and Francis Kenton, Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carlton President of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council.

Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Madrid, Oct. 12, N. S. A Footman of the Marquess de Castelar, who had been in Prison for some Time, sent the other Day to speak with the Steward of Colonel Stanhope His Britannick Majesty's Ambassadour here, and told him, that during the Time of his Imprisonment, and whilst he expected to suffer Death, he made a Vow, that in case he escaped, he would discover the greatest Piece of Villany that ever was contrived, and thereby most certainly save the said Ambassadour's Life, and probably the Lives of many others. The Discovery was, that he himself had been concerned jointly with a French Valet de Chambre of the Ambassadour's in several Robberies, and particularly in two lately committed in his Excellency's own House, of Silver Plates and Sconces, and that they had sold the said Things to a certain Goldsmith of this City, who was also in Confederacy with them. He added, that the Matter which lay upon his Conscience was of a much higher Nature, being a Design laid, and speedily to be executed, by the said Valet de Chambre, who was to enter his Excellency's Chamber when he should be asleep, and immediately assassinate him, and afterwards carry off what they could find; with which they were to fly to Portugal. He told this whole Affair with so many probable Circumstances, that his Excellency applied to have the Goldsmith and Valet de Chambre seized, and examined; and they have both confessed the Truth of every thing the Man in Prison had alledged against them, excepting that the Valet de Chambre denies his having taken the Resolution of assassinating the Ambassadour his Master.

Dublin-Castle, Oct. 13. The Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue having laid before their Excellencies the Lords Justices a Letter which they had received from the Officers of the Customs at Greenock in North-Britain; their Excellencies did upon the Information therein given immediately cause John Casey, who keeps the Cock Tavern in Warburgh's Street to be seized and examined, and with great Difficulty and after much Prevarication he was brought to discover where Pierce Cullen one of the Murtherers of Peter Tartoué and his Crew was concealed; And then their Excellencies caused the said Pierce Cullen to be apprehended and secured in the Custody of one of His Majesty's Pursuivants: There were found upon him and in his Lodging, a Pocket Book, with several Letters, and about sixty Pounds in Money; all which their Excellencies have ordered to be kept safe, and to be sent over with him to England. Since the taking of the said Pierce Cullen, their Excellencies have received Information concerning another of the Accomplices in the same Pyracry and Murder, whereupon they have issued such proper Orders for apprehending him, that it is hoped they will succeed.

St. James's, Oct. 23. Saturday last being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Coronation, there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at Court; and in the Evening there were Illuminations and other publick Demonstrations of Joy throughout London and Westminster.

Whitehall, October 23.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Mr. Greenwood to be Consul at Leghorne, in the Room of Mr. Fuller, who has resigned that Employment.