Stockholm, OB. 3. The King of Sweden having finished the Review of the Life-Guards and other Troops which were ordered to make their Appearance last Week at Upfal, his Majesty went for two Days to the Palace of Ekolsund, and from thence went on Monday last to the Queen at Grypscholm. It is thought the Stay of the Court at that Palace will depend on the Goodness of the Weather. It is faid the King has fent Orders for Summoning the States of the Kingdom to meet here in January next; and that Circular Letters are accordingly preparing to be fent to the respective Provinces for that Purpose.

Stockholm, OH. 10. The Swedifh Court continues ftill at Grypfholm, but are expected to return hither next Saturday. The King and Queen having met with the utmost Demonstrations of Duty and Affection at all the Towns through which they passed in their late Progress, Field-Marshal Taube Governour of this City, did therefore last Week move the Senate that publick Rejoicings might also be made at their Majesties Return hither; but the King having Notice of the Governour's Proposal, his Majesty fent hither last Saturday the younger Marshal Duben to acquaint the Senate, that his Majefty would by no Means fuffer the Town to be put to the Expence of receiving him with any Manner of Solemnity, and to forbid the making any Preparations for that Purpole. The Draught of the Circular Letter for convening the States of the Kingdom was laid before the Senate laft Week, but fome Debate arifing about the Preamble, the iffuing thereof is deferred till the King's Return.

Hambourg, 0fl. 30.
