Stockholm, December 5.

BY the German Mail which arrived last Friday in the Evening, Major-General Diemer the Hessian Envoy received an Account of the Death of the Princess Wilhelmina his Swedish Majesty's youngest Sister; and on Sunday last this Court went into Mourning for that Princess. The States of this Kingdom being to meet very shortly, Measures are concerting among the Deputies in order to procure the Election of a Land-Marshal or Speaker: And Baron Lagerberg, President of the Treasury, seems to stand fairest for that important Post, being a Person whose Administration since the last Dyet is so generally approved, that the Court Party, as well as most of the Deputies, seems inclined for him.

Madrid, Dec. 21, N. S. On the 16th Instant in the Morning all the Officers and their Attendants with the Train of Coaches and other Carriages appointed for the Reception of Mademoiselle de Beaujolois on the Frontiers, set out from hence; the Duke of Ossuna and the Countess de Lemos going with them. On the 13th arrived an Express from Cadiz, with the agreeable News that an Advice-Boat was come in there from Vera-Cruz and the Havana, bringing an Account, that the Quicksilver-Ships with the Marques de Casafuerte Viceroy of Mexico, were arrived at Vera-Cruz in 60 Days from Cadiz: That the Galleons from Cartageua and Porro-belo were expected at the Havana last Month, and had on Board registred above 11 Millions of Pieces of Eight. On the 9th of this Month died Don Gonzalo Chacon Captain-General of Navarre.

Hague, Jan. 1, N. S. The Dutch Squadron coming from the Streights, arrived safely in the Texel, before the Storms which we have had these two or three Days. Commissioners of the several Admiralties have been here some Days, being sent for to be consulted about the Placart for preventing Infection: The States-General seem resolved, having heard those Commissioners, to open again a free Trade with all the Ports of France as far as Certe in Languedoc, and to except only for the present those upon the Coast of Provence.

Hague, Jan. 8, N. S. The States of Holland, now assembled, passed a Resolution Yesterday to appoint an Assistant to their Secretary M. Beaumont, who is above fourscore Years old: The said Place of Assistant has been offered to M. Vander Duffen, who has hitherto declined accepting it. This Morning came Advice by the Post from Brabant, of the Death of General de Villatte Governour of Maestricht, and that Employment was immediately given by
