

and Require all our loving Subjects, of what Degree or Condition soever, not to Aid, Assist, Harbour, or Protect any such Offenders, but on the contrary to use their utmost Endeavours to oppose and resist all Persons concerned in such unlawful Attempts, and to use their utmost Endeavours to Discover, Seize, Apprehend, and bring before the next Magistrate or Minister of Justice, all Person or Persons, that are or shall be Guilty of any the Offences aforesaid. And for the Encouragement of all Persons to be diligent and careful in endeavouring to discover and apprehend all the Offenders abovementioned, we do Promise and Declare, That whosoever shall Discover and Apprehend any of the Offenders aforesaid, or who shall Discover and Apprehend any Person or Persons, who at any time hereafter shall commit the like Offences, in manner as aforesaid, or their Aiders or Abettors, so as such Person or Persons be convicted of the same Offences, shall have and receive, for every one of them so apprehended and taken, and convicted as aforesaid, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds Sterling; which said Sum of One Hundred Pounds for every one of them, the Commissioners of our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly: And if such Person so discovering and apprehending, shall have been an Accomplice with any of the said Offenders, and by Reason thereof stands in Need of our most gracious Pardon, we do hereby further declare, That such Person shall have our most gracious Pardon. And to the End that none of our Loving Subjects may through Ignorance subject themselves to Prosecutions, we do hereby give Notice, That all Persons whatsoever, who shall aid and abet, or encourage any of the said Offenders in the said Offences, or shall harbour, protect, or conceal them, in order to prevent their being brought to Justice, will thereby make themselves Partakers of their Crimes, and that in such Cases, they shall be prosecuted with the utmost Severity of Law.

God save the KING.

Paris, Feb. 10. N. S. On Sunday last the King being at Mass in the Chappel of Versailles, was taken ill, and was carried to his Apartment; but his Physicians having used proper Means, his Majesty is now so well recovered, that he is expected here in a few Days, in order to hold his Seat of Justice in the Parliament of Paris for declaring his Majority.

Hague, Feb. 9. N. S. M. de Chambery, the French Secretary here, has notified to the States General, that a late Arrêt Published at Paris, forbidding the Importation into France of English Lead melted in this Country, has been suppressed according to their Desire, and that these Merchants are at Liberty to act therein as formerly. The said French Secretary has obtained the Restitution of three Parts of the Sum to which the Sale amounted of the French Ship retaken from the Algerines by M. Sommelsdyck two Years ago; the other Part is adjudged to the Chamber of Admiralty of Amsterdam, for contingent Charges. General Hompefch has written from Berlin to the States, for their Leave to come thither upon his private Affairs, during the Absence of the King of Prussia, who it is said designs for Cleves in the Spring. M. Hop sets out to Morrow for Paris.

St. James's, Feb. 4. An humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Clare, assembled at a General Sessions of the Peace held for the said County, on the 15th of January 1722-3, having been transmitted from Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, has by him been presented to His Majesty; who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

By the Lords Justices and Council of Ireland,
