By the King,
A PROCLAMATION,
 For a Publick Thanksgiving.
GEORGE R.

*W*hereas it hath pleased Almighty God, out of His infinite Mercy, to preserve Us and Our Subjects from that dreadful Plague, with which the Kingdom of France was lately visited, and to put an End to the same: We therefore adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that such Great and Publick Blessings do call for Publick and Solemn Acknowledgements, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation. hereby appointing and commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His Mercies, be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain, called Scotland, upon Thursday the Twenty fifth Day of April next. And We do strictly Charge and Command, That the said Publick Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed, by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, on the said Twenty fifth Day of April next, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment, as We may justly inflict on all such as Contemn or Neglect the Performance of so Religious a Duty: Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and we charge, that incontinent, this our Royal Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there in our Name and Authority make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance. And Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause Printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailles of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send Doubles thereof to the several Paroch-Kirks within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day, immediately preceding the Day above mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Vienna, March 10, N. S. About five Days ago the Empress was taken ill with the Measles, and has had them to a very violent Degree, but as she was not a little apprehensive of that Distemper, the Physicians would not let her know she had it till the Danger was entirely over. At present there is not the least doubt of her Recovery. The Spaniards have offered to send 3000 Men to guard the Coasts of the Ecclesiastical State in Italy; and this Court is treating with the Pope likewise to assist him in case of an Attack from the Turks.

It is reported that the Baron de St. Remy, Viceroy of Sardinia, is recalled to be made Governour of this Town in the Room of the Marquis de Caraglio, deceased; and that the Count de Vernon is to succeed him as Viceroy of that Island.
