Stockholm, April 24, O. S.

THE King of Sweden stayed at Ekelsund till the 20th Instant, the Queen went that Afternoon a few Miles to meet him on the Road, and their Majesties returned to the Palace here in Town about Seven in the Evening. Last Friday the 19th being the Duke of Holstein's Birthday, his Highness's Privy-Councillour and Minister M. Bassewitz entertained at Dinner the Senators, foreign Ministers, and several Officers of Distinction both Civil and Military. M. Adlerfelt, the King of Sweden's Envoy to the Court of Denmark, arrived here the 21st. He has brought with him Letters and Papers relating to M. Coyet a Swede, who has been for some time in Custody at Copenhagen, being charged with dangerous Practices against the Crowns both of Sweden and Denmark. The King of Sweden has written a Letter to the King of Denmark, demanding M. Coyet to be delivered up into his Hands, in order to be punished according to the Laws of Sweden. On the 18th of this Month, M. Bassewitz, the Holstein Minister, presented a Memorial to the Senate, to desire the Title of Royal Highness for the Duke his Master. The Senate thought fit to defer the Consideration of that Affair till the next Day, and then it was resolved to lay that Memorial before the Secret Committee, as a Matter which required their most serious Consideration. Since the King of Sweden came to Town, the said Memorial has been again read in the Senate, his Majesty being present, upon which his Majesty intimated, that he could not consent the Duke of Holstein should have that Title; and put the Senate in Mind of the Form of Government, by which it is settled, that in case of their present Majesties the King and Queen's Decease without Issue, the Swedish Monarchy shall be Elective, without Regard to any Right but what that Election shall give. This Day the Nobles met, and have had a great Debate upon the Permission they proposed to give to Foreigners of the Reformed Religion to come and settle in Sweden: The Clergy have protested against this Design, and the Burghers side with the Clergy, thinking it contrary to their Interest that the Number of Artificers here should be augmented by the Introduction of the Reformed.

The French Court having made new Complaints to the States General of the Louis d'Or coined in this Country; their High Mightinesses have published a Placet, forbidding on pain of Death the making of any Gold or Silver Plate in the Form and Size fit to be coined into Money.

Whitehall, May 6. Count Gazola, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Parma, being recalled, had this Day a private Audience of Leave of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.
