

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 4. to Saturday June 8. 1723.

Whitehall, June 7.

THE following humble Addresses to His Majesty have been transmitted hither by the Lords Justices of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Grafton Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom.

An humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Waterford, assembled at the General Sessions of the Peace held for the said County at Dungarvan the 23d Day of April 1723.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the County of the Town of Drogheda, the 3d of May 1723.

Cadiz, May 25, N. S. The British Consul here having solicited the Governour of this Place to exempt the British Ships from paying any longer the Charges of being visited by the Officers of Health, and from other late Impositions, the Governour hath actually given the proper Orders for that Purpose; so that the Trade here from the North is in every respect as free as before the Plague at Marseilles, and on the same footing as immediately before the late War with Spain. All continues very quiet in these Parts.

Stockholm, May 15, O. S. Little has been done in the Dyet this last Week, except that by Order of the States several Persons have been taken into Custody on Suspicion of their having tampered with the Peasants, and induced them to press for an Alteration in the present Form of Government. A Committee consisting of a certain Number of each Order, has been appointed to examine into that Affair: The Peasants who are Representatives for Dalecarlia and Sudermania spoke very warmly on this Occasion: They said, as they understood the Matter, the Business of the Committee was to examine certain Persons for having put Projects into the Peasants Heads, which they thought was to no Purpose, for they could assure them in the Name of all their Brethren, that the Peasants were of themselves resolved to be governed by the antient Laws of Sweden only, without Regard to the new Form of Government. This bold Discourse very much surprized the other Members of the Committee, who thought fit immediately to acquaint the other States with it; upon which the Nobility, Clergy, and Burghers sent a Deputation to the Peasants, to demand those two Members of their Body. The Peasants at

[Price Three Half Pence.]