Whitehall, June 15.

AN humble Address to His Majesty from the Governour, Council, and Assembly of Barbadoes; And,

An humble Address to His Majesty from the Council and Assembly of Barbadoes, have been transmitted hither by Henry Worsely, Esq; Governour of that Island.

Stockholm, May 29. This Morning the Dalecarlian Peasant who was most bold in justifying the late Proceedings of his Brethren about their Memorial, was sentenced to a three Years Imprisonment in the Castle of Malstrand, and it is said that other Peasants concerned in that Affair will also receive their Sentence this Week, some of them 'tis thought will loose their Heads. The Prince of Hesse, his Swedish Majesty's Brother arrived here the 27th Instant. The cold Weather has hitherto occasioned the Court to continue in this City, but now 'tis said, their Majesties are resolv'd to remove next Week to Carlberg.

Lisbon, June 6, N. S. Yesterday being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Brazil, who then entred into the Tenth Year of his Age, he received the usual Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Ministers upon that Occasion. On the 14th of next Month, the Prince Dom Francisco is to entertain the Court with a Bull-Feast, and Scaffolds are now building before the Palace for that Purpose. Several Ships being lately arrived here from England and Sicily with Wheat, the Price is grown more moderate than it has been for some time past, and the Country is no longer under Apprehension of the Want of Corn this Summer.

Madrid, June 7. The Marquess Balbi Envoy from Genoa, has had his Audience of Leave of their Catholick Majesties and the Prince and Princess of Asturias, designing to set out from hence the Middle of this Month on his Return home by Way of France. Their Majesties set out for Balsain the 31st past at Four a-Clock in the Morning, and arrived there the same Day; the Prince and Princess of Asturias, with the Infantes, set out likewise from hence and arrived the same Day at the Escorial. On the 2d Instant in the Morning the Marquess de Bedmar died here suddenly in the 72d Year of his Age; he was Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghost, Grandee of Spain, President of the Council of Military Orders, and First Minister at War; his Family-Estate and Dignity descend to his only Daughter, married to the Marquess de Moya. The Intendant Patino has sent Word from Cadiz, that the Fleet bound to New-Spain will in all Likelihood be ready to put to Sea before the End of this Month; but by Reason the Merchants lade in their Goods very slowly, 'tis believed some of the Ships will stay behind empty.

Turin, June 9. His Sardinian Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Abbot Delmare, formerly his Embassadour at the Court of Spain and Rome, to be Viceroy of Sardinia. It is reported that the Marquiss Del Bourg, his Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has desired to resign by Reason of his advanced Age, and that the Count Vernon, who is lately arrived here from his Embassy at the Court of France, will succeed to the Secretaryship. His Majesty is just now arrived here from the Veneria.

Paris, June 19. On the 12th past, the King went to Ivry and paid a Visit to the Prince of Conty. It is reported that his Majesty will not return to Versailles till after the 15th of next Month, greater Repairs being to be made there than were at first thought of; 'tis said also, that his Majesty will take a Journey to Chantilly. The Cardinal Prime Minister is recovered of his late Indisposition, and has been presented by the King with the Abbey of St. Bertin of St. Omer, worth 40000 Livres a Year. M. de Morville, Secretary of State for Marine Affairs, is to be admitted a Member of the French Academy, in the room of the late Abbé de Dangeau; M. Mallet is to make Answer in Quality of Chancellour of the Academy, to M. de Morville's Speech on his Admittance, and to be therein assisted by the Cardinal du Bois. Since Process has been commenced against M. de la Jonchere for Deficiency in his Accompts, M. St. Fleuret, who was formerly his Deputy, has likewise been taken into Custody.

Hague, June 21. On the 18th Instant about Three a-Clock in the Afternoon, his Britannick Majesty left the Carolina Yacht and went aboard that of the States, having a fair Wind for Vaart opposit to Viane where His Majesty landed in good Health Yesterday at Nine in the Morning, and began his Journey by Land for Hanover. The Lord Viscount Townshend arrived here the 18th in the Afternoon, and the Lord Carteret the next Morning; the former sets out from hence this Day, and the latter will do the same To-morrow, in order to proceed on their Journey to Hanover.
