Stockholm, July 17, O. S.

THE Diet here seems now to draw near to a Conclusion. The Secret Committee has had Orders to acquaint the States with whatever has been brought before them, and is not yet finished, that those Matters which are of Consequence may be immediately dispatched, and the rest left to another Occasion. Yesterday it was proposed in the Assembly, that this Diet should not be dissolved, but that the Marshal, as well as those who are Representatives, should be the same at the next Meeting, and that the present Separation should be nothing more than a Prorogation. The Time of the Diet's Meeting again will be decided To-morrow. The Nobles, Burghers, and Peasants, have each named five Persons out of their respective Bodies, to form a Committee for examining into Ecclesiastical Affairs: The Clergy have not yet named any out of their Body, but seem to be very much alarmed at what the other States have done. An Express came hither last Friday from Petersbourg, with Letters for M. Bestuchef and M. Bassewitz: It is said they do not contain any thing of Consequence.

Hambourg, Aug. 9, N. S. Letters from Petersbourg of the 19th of July, N. S. say the Czar's Gallies were then still at Cronstot, and that the Troops which were to have been put on board them had been countermanded; and some Advices say the Czar was gone to cruize with six Men of War only.

Hague, Aug. 10, N. S. The Directors of the East-India Company, and a Deputation from the Magistracy of Amsterdam, did Yesterday Morning make new Representations to the States General on Account of the Ostend India Company. M. Pester has received his Instructions; his Appointments were settled Yesterday; this Day he is to receive his Dispatches; and he is to set out for Hanover forthwith. It was at last resolved Yesterday by the States General, that the Squadron of five Men of War shall put to Sea for the Straights the End of next Month, and winter in the Spanish Ports, the necessary Funds for the Charges being settled. 'Tis proposed to send also forthwith an Ambassadour to Madrid, and 'tis thought that M. Vander Meer, Son to the Dutch Minister who resided formerly at Turin, will be the Person.

The young Prince of Waldeck is come hither, to pay his Respects to his Majesty.

Paris, Aug. 11, N. S. The Cardinal du Bois, first Minister, died last Night at Versailles. Upon his Death the King has appointed the Duke of Orleans to have the chief Direction of Affairs as first Minister of State; and his Royal Highness having received a Patent for that Purpose, has taken the Oaths to the King. The Count de Morville is appointed Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

The Letter to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, signed R. K. and dated 3d August, 1723, came too late to Hand to be advertised in Yesterday's Papers. If the Person who wrote it will attend the Secretary of State to whom it was addressed, and make out what he proposes, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement.
