

Grace our most humble and hearty Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

When we reflect on our imminent Danger, and on the Confusion and Misery to which the late horrid and unnatural Conspiracy must have involved these Nations, more particularly the Protestants of this Kingdom, if the Designs of the Enemies of our Religion and Liberty had not been timely discovered and defeated by the Providence of God, His Majesty's Wisdom, and the Vigilance of His Ministers, we cannot sufficiently express our Gratitude to the Divine Goodness, so signally interposed in our Protection, and in preserving to us those invaluable Blessings we enjoy under the Reign of a just and merciful Prince, who, in all his Actions, intends the Welfare and Happiness of His People.

Among the many repeated Instances of His Majesty's great Goodness to us, there is not any one of which we are more sensible, or which can more convince us of his peculiar Care for the Prosperity of this Kingdom, than his continuing the Administration in the Hands of your Grace, whose sincere Concern for our Interest, and generous Endeavours to promote on all Occasions the Welfare and Happiness of this Country, we have so fully experienced.

That the Expences necessary to preserve us from those two dreadful impending Evils, the Plague and Rebellion, have not increased the Debt of the Nation, we acknowledge with great Gratitude to be owing to the wise Conduct and Frugality of your Grace, and of those entrusted under you with the Government, during your Grace's Absence.

We shall endeavour to improve this Opportunity of our Meeting, by preparing such Laws as may conduce to the Safety and Advantage of the Kingdom, and particularly of such as have been recommended to us by your Grace, by granting cheerfully such Supplies as are necessary to support His Majesty's Government with Honour, and by using our best Endeavours to render your Grace's Administration easy.

Your Grace's Assurances of your Confidence in our Loyalty give us the utmost Satisfaction; and we hope, by the same steady and unalterable Zeal for His Majesty's Service, His Person and Government, and the Succession established in his Royal House, by which the Commons of Ireland have distinguished themselves, and by the same dutiful Regard and Affection to your Grace, which you have been pleased formerly to observe, to merit the Continuance of your Grace's Favour.

To which Address his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleased to give the following Answer.

I Cannot but receive with the highest Satisfaction your very kind and affectionate Address to me. I shall seek all Occasions to make a suitable Return by doing every Thing in my Power, which may tend to the Prosperity of this Kingdom.
