St. James's, January 21.

The following Addresses have been transmitted hither by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
 The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, do with the sincerest

Joy congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and happy Return to these your Dominions.

When we reflect on the many and signal Preservations of your sacred Person from the Conspiracies of wicked Men at Home, and from the Dangers which attend your Majesty as often as the Repose of Europe and the Security of the Protestant Interest call you Abroad; we cannot but ascribe these Blessings to a singular Providence, that watches over a Life so precious to your Subjects, and of such Importance to the common Good of Mankind.

We cannot find Words sufficient to express the grateful Sentiments of our Hearts for the many Blessings we enjoy under your most Auspicious Reign, and at this Time particularly for the Continuance of that entire Tranquility in these your Kingdoms, which, by your Majesty's Wisdom, was before your Departure so happily established: All we can do, is to beseech your Majesty to accept our sincerest Acknowledgments, and to offer up our constant Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majesty may long Reign over us, and see the Fruits of your great and glorious Designs in the flourishing Estate of your own Dominions, and the lasting Peace of all Europe.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
 The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to Great Britain.

On this happy Occasion, we cannot but reflect with unspeakable Comfort, on the many Blessings we and all your Majesty's Subjects have enjoyed during the whole Course of your most auspicious Reign.

Your Majesty's tender Concern and unwearied Endeavours both at Home and Abroad for our Welfare, the Wisdom of your Councils, and your watchful watchful Eye for our Security, have preserved us in Peace and Safety; and your making the known Laws of the Land the constant Rule of your Government both in Church and State, shews you are indeed the Father of your People, and that you look upon their Happiness as your greatest Glory.

These are Blessings, most Gracious Sovereign, which fill the Hearts of your faithful Commons with the deepest Sense of Gratitude, and with the most ardent Zeal for the Preservation, Honour and Safety of your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and the Succession as by Law established in your Royal House; in Defence of which, we shall be at all Times ready with the greatest Cheerfulness to venture our Lives, and all that is dear to us, and are firmly determined to behave ourselves on every Occasion, with all Duty and Obedience becoming the most loyal Subjects to the best of Princes.

The Commissioners for Hackney Coaches hereby give Notice, That the Moieties of several Fines set on Coachmen, which could not be recovered till long after the respective Convictions, are now recovered, and remaining in the Hands of their Officer, ready to be paid to the Persons that prosecuted the Complaints, if they will call for the same any Monday or Thursday at the Office in Surrey-street.
