February 1723.

P R E S E N T

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint John Skipp, Esq; Sheriff of the County of Warwick.

St James's, Feb. 3. His Majesty has been pleased to appoint his Grace the Duke of Ancaster to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulo-rum of the County of Lincoln, and of the City of Lincoln and County of the same.

Cadix, Jan. 11, N. S. The Galleons for New Spain sailed from hence some Days ago, under the Convoy of two Men of War of 64 Guns each and two Frigates commanded by the Marquess Grillo, having on board the Viceroy of Peru, a Bishop, and several Officers.
Three Men of War and two Frigates are fitting out here, to cruise against the Algerines, under the Command of the Marquess Mari.

Turin, Feb. 2, N. S. On the 13th past died the Count de la Roque, Knight of the Annonciada, Lieutenant General, Governour of this Citadel, Steward of the Household to Madame Royale, &c. in the 63d Year of his Age: He had distinguished himself by his Bravery in the late Wars, had great Abilities and Accomplishments, and is generally lamented. On the 15th his Body was carried in Funeral Procession from the Citadel, to be deposited in the Church of the Convent of the Augustines; a Number of Priests and Orphans singing, the Servants of all the Knights of the Annonciada carrying Torches, the Artillery Company with three Pieces of Cannon, and a Battallion of the Guards, giving their Attendance. The King has been pleased to bestow a Com-manderie possessed by the late Count de la Roque on the present Count his Son: It is worth 6000 Livres of Piemont yearly. And the Baron de St. Remi Palavicini Major General has obtained the Government of this Citadel, vacant by the Death of the said Count: But the Office of Steward of the Household to Madame Royale, is not yet disposed of. The Small-Pox and Measles are rife here: Several Persons of Quality who have those Distempers in their Families, forbear coming to Court, on account of the Duke d'Aouffe. On the 24th past his Sardinian Majesty declared the Officers, and appointed the Detachments from several Regiments to be embarked on board the Gallics in the Spring at Villa-Franca, in order to relieve the present Garrisons in the Island of Sardinia: The whole Number amounts to about 1500 Men, and is to be commanded by the Marquess de Suza as Colonel.

On Sunday last the Prince of Piemont went to the Italian Comedy, which is the first Appearance his Highness has made at any publick Diversion since the Decease of the Princess his Consort. The Marquess Scipio Maffei of Verona, eminent for his Learning and Writings, being come hither to plead for Part of a Grant which fell to him by Inheritance, but was lately resumed by the King; his Sardinian Majesty has not only made him a Present of the Estate he sued for, but has appointed him Gentleman of his Bed-Chamber.

Paris, Feb. 9, N. S. The Funeral of the late Duke of Orleans was performed at St. Denys the 4th Instant, with all proper Pomp and Solemnity. The Duke of Orleans, Son of the deceased, was chief Mourner, supported by the Count de Clermont and the Prince of Conty Princes of the Blood. The Courts of Parlia-
