The King's Letter to the true Univerfishes. GEORGER.

RUSTY and well-beloved, we greet you well. We being greatly definds to favour and en-sourage out two Universities, those encient and laat dable Nurferies of Piety and Learning, and to enable shein more effectually to answer the End of their Inff-. tution, by fending forth conftant Supplies of learned and able Men to ferve the Publick both in Church and State ; and having observed, that no Encouragement or Provision has hitherto been made in either of the faid Uni-versities for the Study of Modern History or Modern Languäges, the Knowledge of which is highly neder fary towards compleatly qualifying the Youth com-mitted to their Care for feveral Stations both in Church and State, to which they may be called; and having ferioufly weighed the Prejudice that has accrued to the faid Universities from this Defect, Persons of Foreign Nations being often employed in the Education and Tuition of Youth, both at Home and in their Travels, and great Numbers of the young Nobility and Gentry being either fent Abroad directly from School, or taken away from the Universities before the Course of their Studies can be there compleated, and Opportuni-ties frequently loft to the Crown of employing and encouraging Members of the two Universities, by conferring on them fuch Employments, both at Home and Abroad, as neceffarily require a competent Skill in Writing and Speaking the Modern Languages. In order therefore to remedy these and the like Inconveniencies, we have determined to appoint two Perfons of fober Conversation and prudent Conduct, of the De-gree of Master of Arts or Batchelour of Laws, or of fame higher Degree in one of the faid Universities, skilled in Modern History and in the Knowledge of Modern Languages, to be nominated by us, to be our Profeffors of Modern Hiltory, one for the University of Cambridge and the other for that of Oxford, who fhall be obliged to read Lectures in the publick Schools, at fuch Times as shall hereafter be appointed. And we have further determined, that each of the Iaid Professors shall have a Stipend of Four Hundred Pounds renors infin have a Stipend of Four Fundred Pounds per Annum, and out of the faid Stipend Ihall be obli-ged to maintain with fufficient Salaries, in the Univer-fity where he fail be eftablished, two Perfons at leaft, well qualified to teach and infruct in Writing and Speaking the faid Languages, which faid Teachers shall be under the Direction of the Profeflors respectively, and shall be obliged to instruct Gratis in the Modern Languages Twenty Scholars of each University, to be Languages Twenty Scholars of each University, to be nominated by us; and each Scholar fo nominated, scholar be obliged to learn two at least of the faid Languages, both the Professions and Teachers taking especial Care that the Times and Hours for the instructing and teaching the faid Scholars, be fo ordered, as not to in-terfere with those appointed for their Academical Studies; which Profession and Teachers shall be obliged once every Year to transmit in attefted Account of the Progrefs made by each Scholar committed to their Care, to our Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before us, that we may encourage the Diligence and Applica-tion of fuch amongst them, as Ihall have qualified chemselves for our Service, by giving them suitable Employments either at Home or Abroad, as Occafions shall offer. And our Royal Will and Pleasure is, that you forthwith upon the Receipt hereof call a Congregation, in order to communicate thefe our Royal Intentions to the University. And so we bid you farewell. Given at our Court at St. James's the 16th Day of May 1724, in the Tenth Year of Our Reign.

By His Majeffy's Command, TOWNSHEND.

St. James's, May 23. The following Address of the Chancellour Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, was this Day prefented to His Majefty, by the Reverend Dr. Snape Proveft of King's College Vice-Chancellour of that University, attended by the Proctors and feveral other Members of the family in-produced by his Grace the Duke of Gratton Lord Obamberlain of his Majefty's Houfhold.

To the Ling's Moft Excellent Majeffy. The humble Addrets of the Chancellour, Mafters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge. Maft Gracious Severign,

W E your Majefty's most duriful and loyal Sub-W jects, the Chancellour, Maffers and Scholars . of your University of Cambridge, having been honoured with your Majefty's Royal Letter, y hich has been read to us in hull Senate, jainmating your Gracious and Princely Intentions of Eftabliftsing, both in this and your other University, a new Profession of Modera History and Modern Languages, with an Appointment fo ample, as well nigh to equal the Stipends of all our other Professors put together; bes Leave to approach your Sacred Perfon, with the fincereft Affarances of Dury, Loyalty and Gratitude which furth unparallelled Munificence requires.

Your Majefty, like a common Father that is watchful for majory, nke a common rane mat is watch ful for the W eltare of his Children, has wifely oblerved where our greateft Defect lay, and where your Relief could most feasionably be applied, we have for many Years, with Grief, oblerved, and may now, with Affu-rance, venure to speak out our Grievance, fince your Majody has been pleaded to arter for the to our Caufe. Majefty has been pleafed to enter fo far into our Caule, as to join in the fame Complaint, that foreign Tutors have had to large a Share in the Education of our Youth of Quality, both at Home and in their Travels 2 And we are thoroughly fenfible, that the Reafon why they have been to employed, in Preference to Men of far fuperiour Learning of our own Country, has been the Want of proper Helps towards the attaining those Acwards proper heips towards the attaining thole Ac-complifuments in our Universities, for which your Ma-jefty is now making to honourable a Provision. But we are now firmly perfivaded, that when your Maje-fty's noble Defign thall have taken Effect; when there thall be a fufficient Number of Academical Perfons well versed in the Knowledge of foreign Courts, and well instructed in their respective Languages; when a Fas miliarity with the living Tongues shall be superadded to that of the dead ones, when the folid Learning of An-tiquity shall be adorned and set off with a skilful Habir of conversing in the Languages that now flourish, and both be accompanied with English Probiny; our Nobi-lity and Genuy will be under no Temptation of fend-ing for Persons from foreign Countries to be enrusted with the Education of their Children; that the Appearance of an English Gentleman in the Courts of Europe; with a Governour of his own Nation, will not be to rare and uncommon as it has hitherto been; and that your two Universities thus refined, and made more compleatly ferviceable to the Education of Youth, by your Majefty's most judicious and well directed as well as liberal Benefaftion, will be able to furnifh you with a conftant Supply of Perfons every way qualified for the Management of fuch weighty Affairs and Negotiations, as your Majefty's Occasions may require. We most hearily beleech the Almighty to prosper this, and all your great and glorious Undertakings, that you may long live and reign, till you have received the fulleft Conviction that your Royal Purpole has not been fruftrated, but that this new Influention has proved (as your Princel Wildom intended it fhould) a Real and National Bleffing.

Permit us further, most Gracious Sovereign, to tefti-fy our grateful Sense of two other diffinguilhing Marks of your Royal Favour fo lately conferred on your two Universities: The Charging your Revenue with new Salaries appropriated to Twelve Perfons cholen out of each, as Preachers in your Chapel of Whitehall; and your generous Refolution of Entitling to a Share of fuch Behefices

(Price Three Half-Pence.)

Benefices as are within your Royal Patronage, the Meribers of the two Universities, we fearce hed Time to congratulate one another on Occasion of the two last mentioned Favours, when they were followed by that new and accumulated Infrance of your Goodners, the Erection of a new Profefforfhip

In Return for fuch repeated Obligations, we final not fail to put up our inceffint Prayers to God for the Pre-fervation of your Majefty and your Royal Family; and Ihall always endeavour to contribute, in the beft Manper we are able, to the Tranquillity, Peace and good Order of your Government. May the 19th, 1724.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to give the following most gracious Answer.

The jonowing more gracious Annwer. Think you for this dutiful and loyal Addrefs, and am glid to find that what I proposed to you in my Letter mets with your entire Approbation; and with not but with your Affistance, my Intentions upon this Occasion will prove an Honour to the University in general, as well as an Advantage to the particu-Jon Minheir with that Tatarned Rode tar Members of that Learned Body.

The following Addrefs having been transmitted by e Vice-Chancellour of the University of Oxford, the has been prefented to His Majefty by the Right Hohourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majefty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty;

WE your Majefty's most duriful and loyal Subof your University of Oxford, do humbly beg Leave to return our most hearty Thanks for your Majesty's most Gracious Letter to our Vice-Chancellour by him this Day communicated to us in full Convocation; wherein your Majeffy has been pleafed to declare it to be your Royal Intention to eftablish in this your University of Oxford, a Professor of Modern History, and also under the Direction of the faid Profession, two other Persons to teach and instruct in Writing and Speaking the Modern Languages, to the Intent that the Youth committed 10 our Care from all Parts of your Majefty's Dominions, may be the more compleatly qualified for fuch Employments in your Majefty's Service either at Home or Abroad, as your Majefty thall be pleafed to confer upon them. As we cannot but be deeply affected with this Inftance of your Princely Favour in making this new Provision for the Honour and Advantage of this Place; fo we must at the fame Time most grate-fully acknowledge your Majesty's Gracious Tendernefs towards our ancient Conftitution, in directing that the Hours for Teaching your Majelty's Scholars the Modern Languages be fo ordered, as not to interfere with those already appointed for their Academical Studies : And the World must observe that such is the Nature of this Bounty, that it could not come but from a Prince who is not unwilling that his Actions should be faithfully transmitted to Posteriry.

We beg Leave to affure your Majesty, that we will carefully improve to the Honour and Service of your Mijefty's Perfon and Government, all the Advantages ar fing from this and all other your Royal Favours, and chearfully embrace every Opportunity given us of deferving the Continuance of them.

Sealed in the Convocation-Houfe with the common Seal of the Univerfity, this 19th Day of May, 1724. Which Addrefs His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously,

St. James's, May 22. On the 14th Infant the General Affembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and chole for their Moderator Mr. William Wishart, Principal of the University of Edinburgh. His Majefty's Commiffion to the Right Honourable the Earl of Findlater and Scafield was read, as was likewife His Majefty's most gracious Letter to the Affembly. His Majefty's High Commillioner made a Speech to the Affembly, which was answered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Anlwer to His Majefty's most gracious Letter, which being reported on the 16th, was unanimoufly approved.

His Majory's High Commifioner the Earl of Findlater and Seafield's Speech to the General Allembly of the Church of Scorland, May 14. 1724.

Am convinced that you have with great Pleafure and Gratinude heard His Majeity's muft gracious Letter.

He expresses His Satisfaction in the prudent and moderate Proceedings of former affemblies, he repoles intre Truft and Confidence in your Loyalty and Fidelity to His Royal Perlon and Government, and has commanded me at the Opening of this Affembly; again to renew. the Affurances He has to frequently given of His firm and fleady Refolution to protect and maintain the Presbyterian Government of the Church of Scotland as effablished by Law.

His Majefty recommends that you will take Care to promote Religion and Piety ; and that you will use your Endeavours to prevent the Growth of Popery and Immorality ; and that you will in all things that come before you, act with that Calmness and Moderation which is fo necessary to preferve the Tranquillity and Peace of the Church, and most proper and becoming a Chriftian Affembly : And I have no Doubt of your ready Compliance with what His Majefty has recommended in fo pious and religious a Manner.

We all ought to be most thankful to God who has placed His Majefty on the Throne, and by special and remarkable Acts of Providence has preferved and protected His facred Person and Government against all the Attempts that have been made by a Popish Pre-tender and his Adherents; and has effectually defeated all their wicked Defigns; and it is by His Majefty's Government and the Effabliffment of the Succession in His Royal Family, that all our Religious and Civil Concerns can be continued and preferved against Popery and Arbitrary Power.

I am most sensible of the great Honour His Maj-fty has conferred on me, in appointing me to represent His Royal Person in this Affembly,

I am fully infructed to give you all En-couragement in the Profecution of what His Majely has to gracioully recommended, and in all other things that may tend to the Profperity of the Church.

I shall endeavour, by the Assistance of God, to difcharge this Truft with Fidelity to His Majefty, and all due Regard to this venerable Affembly; and fall now, and on all other Occafions, do what is in my Power to give you coavincing Proofs of my fincere Attachment and good Inclinations to the Government of this Church.

It is my earnest Defire that all you do in this Affembly may tend to the promoting of Religion, the Glory of God, the Peace and Profperity of this Church, the intirg Satisfaction of the King, and Good of His People.

The Answer of the General Affembly of the Church of Scotland, to His Majefty's moft gracious Letter, having been transmitted by the High Commiffioner to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been prefented to His Msjefty, and is as follows.

May it please your Majesty,

WE juffly effects it one of the many valuable Bleffings which our most merciful God plentifully beftows upon this National Church

Church, that your Majefty is gracioufly pleafed on every returning Occasion to readily to coun. tenance our Affemblies,

The Confidence your Majefty is pleafed in your great Goodnels to place in us, founded upon our Behaviour in former Affemblies, fille us We fhould do Injury with unspeakable Joy. to our Holy Religion, act inconfishently with the Duty we owe to the best of Sovereigns, and be wanting to outfelves, if we did not unite-with Zeal, and unanimoufly concur in fuch Means as shall be deemed most effectually to tend to the Peace and Welfare of the Church, fupprels Irreligion and Profanenels, and prevent the Growth of Popery. We are at the fame time perfectly affured, that nothing will ever be wanting on your Majefty's Part towards obtaining these defireable Ends, wherein the Honour of God and the Well-being of your Majefty's Subjects, are fo nearly concerned.

The Earl of Findlater and Scafield's great Knowledge and Experience, the Zeal and Affection he has upon many important Occasions expressed for your facred Person and Government, as well as his Adherence to the Principles of the Church of Scotland, which have recommended him to your Majefty, render your Choice of him, to represent your Royal Perlon in this Allembly, molt obliging and acceptable to ui.

That the most High God who to feafonably brought your Majefty to the Throne for the Support of the Protestant Interest Abroad, and the Prefervation of the Religion and Liberties of your Dominions, may continue in the most remarkable Manner to preferve your facred Person, guide your Councils, and defeat the reftless Endeavours of your Enemics ; that he may pour out His best Bleffings on the Heads of their Royal Highness the Prince and Princels of Wales and their Royal Iffue, and perpetuate the Succeffion to the Crown in your Family ; and that after a long and happy Reign upon Earth, you may be crowned with immortal Glory in Heaven, are, and shall be she constant and fervent Prayers of,

May it pleafe your Majefty,

Your Majefty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Affembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in 'our Prefence, in our Name, Edinb. May and at our Appointment, by William Wishart, Moderator. 16, 1724.
