Turin, June 28, N. S.

THE Mint here has been these three Months past employed in Coining small Copper Money to be sent to Sardinia. The Gallies which carried over the late Reinforcement of Troops to that Island being returned to Villa Franca, are refitting, and are ordered to cruize against the Corsairs of Barbary which infest the Coasts between Nice and Genoa. Some Days ago came on the Trial of the Noted Banker Colombo, who broke about four Years ago and retired into a Church, but being seized as he was walking out of the Limits of Holy Ground, was imprisoned: Upon Examination of his Books it appeared that he had made a fraudulent Bankruptcy, for which he was sentenced to be led in Procession with a Rope about his Neck through the Town and under the Gallows, and to work at the Oar in the Gallies for Life: Which Sentence being transmitted to the King at the Veneria, his Majesty was pleased to mitigate the Rigour of his Punishment by changing it to Imprisonment for ten Years. We have lately had very stormy Weather with Thunder and Hail, which has done much Damage in several Parts of this Country. This Evening the Court removes from the Veneria to Rivoli, and after two Days Stay there the King and Prince intend to proceed on their Journey through Savoy to Thonon.

Paris, July 5, N. S. On the 30th past, the King set out from Versailles for Chantilly, whither the Duke of Bourbon went the Day before in order to receive his Majesty.

Hague, July 7, N. S. The King and Queen of Denmark set out from Aix la Chapelle the 30th past, on their Return to Copenhagen. General Fleming is also gone from Aix la Chapelle, to return to the Court of Poland. M. Buys having taken Leave of the States, is gone to Amsterdam, whence he will set out in a few Days to follow his Danish Majesty to Copenhagen. Yesterday came Advice, that a Fleet of 23 Ships from the East Indies, is arrived on our Coasts, and several are come into the Texel. The States of the Province of Holland are now assembled, and to Day they disposed of the Commissions for the Posts vacant in the Forces under their Repartition.
