BY Letters from Constantinople dated the 10th of last Month we have received an Account, That about a Fortnight before a Courier arrived there from the Pasha of Bagdat, with Advice that he had taken the City of Hamedan by Storm, and put about 25000 Men to the Sword because they would not capitulate. It is a large rich City, the Head of a Province, and not above eight Days Journey from Ispahan. Upon this News the Port ordered publick Rejoycings to be made at Constantinople for eight Days, and notified it in Form to the foreign Ministers there, who thereupon adorned their Gates during that Time, according to Custom. On the 5th of October, the Port received Advice by a Courier from the Seraskier commanding the Siege of the City and Castle of Erivan, that the Belieged had capitulated, and given Hostages for surrendering the Place in five Days. The Reason of the Governour's demanding that Delay, was that he might have Time to advise his Sons and Relations to make their Escape from Ispahan, where they were detained as Pledges of his Fidelity. M. d'Andrezel, the new French Ambassadour, arrived at Constantinople with two Men of War on the 13th of September, and on the 8th of last Month had his first Audience of the Grand Vizier: The following Week he was to have Audience of the Grand Signior; after which his Predecessour M. de Bonac was to have his Audiences of Leave.
