Madrid, December 4, N. S.

N the 27th past the Chevalier de Confrans arrived here from Paris, being fent on the part of the Duke of Orleans to follicit their Catholick Majesties to be pleased to consent to the Return of the Queen, King Lewis's Widow, to France, where it is resolved her Majesty shall live in some Royal Palace distant from Parie, upon ber Dowry, as QueenDowager of Spains and 'tis not doubted those Catholick Majesties will grant their Confent. Letters from Malaga advise, that the Brandon a Spanish Man of War which failed with the Oneto from Cadiz, and was supposed to be lost, had put into the Port of Malaga, but was in a very shattered Condition, being entirely unfit to proceed on her intended Voyage to the West-Indies to cruize against the Pyrates in those Parts. The same Letters add, that there lately happened a great Storm upon that Coast, that several Villages thereabouts had been overflowed by sudden Torrents, and a great many People drowned. Last Night this Court received an Account from the West Indies, by the way of Cadis, of Admiral Guevarra's having been cast away upon the Island of Santo Domingo, himfelf drowned, and only 80 Men faved of the Ship he was in : He sailed from Cadiz the Beginning of last Summer, with two Men of War of 50 Gune, laden with Quicksilver for Vera Cruz.

On the 22d of last Month Tarin, Dec. 13. the Princels de la Cifterna, firft Lady of Honour to the Queco, received Orders to declare, that whereas heretofore no Ladies were admitted to Court but such as had been Maids of Honour to her Majesty or to Madame Royale, now upon the Princess of Piedmont's coming to Turin, her Majesty was pleased to permit all Ladies of Quality to appear at the Circles. and enjoy other Privileges as Ladies belonging to the Court. Upon this Notice, great Diligence was used by the Ladies to provide themselves with rich Cloathes against the Court's coming. On the 28th the Court came hither from the Venetia, on which Occasion the Cannon on the Ramparts of the Town and Citadel were thrice discharged, the Garrison was under Arme, and at Night the whole City illuminated. That Evening the Ladies attended at the Palace, and had the Honour for the first time of kiffing the Princess of Piedmont's Hand. The Passages of Mount Cenis have been so obstructed with Snows for some Days past, that the Couriers could not perform their Journies without great Difficulty. The King and Princehunted the Stag on the 11th Inflant.

Berlin, Nov. 28. On the 25th Inftant bie Prussian Majesty went to Potsdam, where he designs to hunt till the 2d of December; when the Queen, Prince and Princels Royal will meet his Majesty at Wusterhausen ; and the whole Court will stay there till Christmass Corn has been excessively dear in this Place, but his Prussian Majesty having opened his Granaries, it is fallen again to a moderate Price. His Prussian Majesty sends this Week a Present of Eight fine Prussian Horses to the Czar.
