Madrid, February 26, N. S.

ON the 13th Instant their Catholick Majesties with the Prince of Asturias and the Infantes came from the Pardo to the Palace here; and the same Day the Infante Don Carlos was taken ill, which Indisposition proving to be the Measles, their Catholick Majesties, with the Prince and the rest of the Infantes, left the Palace on the 15th, and went to that of the Buen-Retiro. The said Infante Don Carlos is now so well recover'd, that he frequently goes abroad to take the Air. On the 21st a Courier from Paris brought the Marshal de Tessé his Recredentials, upon which he desigas to take his Audience of Leave of their Catholick Majesties in a few Days, in order to set out the 9th of the next Month for France. His Catholick Majesty has honoured the said Marshal with the Order of the Golden Fleece, into which he will be received To-Morrow with the usual Ceremonies. The same Courier brought Orders to the Abbot de Livry to remain here, for managing the Affairs of France, but not to take upon him any publick Character yet. His Catholick Majesty has appointed the Admiral Marquês de Mari to command the Squadron consisting of six Ships of War, which are to cruize this ensuing Summer in the Mediterranean.

Turin, March 7, N. S. It is advised from Vienna, that Count Harrach is named to reside at this Court as Envoy from the Emperour, and that he will set out in the Spring to come hither. His Sardinian Majesty has been pleased to bestow on the Son of the Count de Sales, all his Father's Estate which was confiscated, and intends to send him to the Court of Lorraine to be educated there; but the Comanderie in the Order of St. Maurice, which brought in a considerable Revenue to that Family, cannot be given away, by reason of the Count de Sales's Absence, certain Forms of that Order requiring that the Person degraded should be present. This being the Duke d'Aouste's Birth-Day, the Court was very numerous; and all the Ministers, with the Nobility, went to his Highness's Apartment.

Whitehall, March 8.

On Saturday last the Lords and Gentlemen Stewards of the Society of ancient Britons, established in Honour to the Birth-Day of Her Royal Highness the Princess and the Principality of Wales, had the Honour to wait on His Majesty, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Lonsdale, Lord of the Bedchamber in Waiting, to pay their Duty and most humble Acknowledgment for the great Honour His Majesty was pleased to do them in Favour of the Day; which His Majesty received very graciously, and all present had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand; and as a Mark of His Royal Grace and Favour to so loyal and laudable an Undertaking, His Majesty conferred the Honour of Knighthood on Thomas Masters, Esq; one of the said Stewards.

Whitehall, March 6, 1724-5.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, having ordered the Accounts of the several Masters of the High Court of Chancery, of the Securities, Effects, and Cash, belonging to the Suitors of that Court, deposited in their respective Hands, to be Printed and Published, for the Information of the said Suitors; His Majesty has been graciously pleased to direct, that the said printed Accounts shall this present Saturday the 6th of March, be sent from the General Post-Office, to the Post-Houses of all the Post-Towns of England and Wales, that they may be perused Gratis by all Persons who shall repair to those Post-Houses for that Purpose. His Majesty has also been graciously pleased to order, that the said printed Accounts shall be delivered to the Six Clerks, and to the four Registers, of the High Court of Chancery; to lie open in their respective Offices for the Inspection of the aforesaid Suitors, or their Solicitors.
