From Tuesday April 20. to Saturday April 24. 1725.

Lisbon, April 21, N. S.

ON the 14th Instant the King of Portugal accompanied with the Infantes Dom Francisco and Dom Antonio, and several of the Nobility, went to Salvaterra, about 10 Leagues from hence, to take the Diversion of Stag hunting in the Park there, and on the 18th at Night returned to this City. The Queen, who had been in the Country likewise, came to Town the same Evening. The Fleet for Pernambuco, as also the two Ships for India, failed out of this Port the 17th Instant. On board the latter went his Portugese Majesty's Viceroy for Goa; as also an Ambassadour to the Emperour of China, with a very magnificent Present of all Sorts of European Commodities to that Prince, in return for one which was sent by him to the King of Portugal about three Years ago on board a Ship that was destroyed by the Pyrates in her Way home. A Dutch Man of War arrived in this Harbour a few Days ago from Cruising upon the Coast. She returns to Holland as one of the Convoys to their Salt Fleet, which will be ready to sail in a very short time. His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Lyme Galley, Lord Vere Beauclercs Commander, is likewise preparing to sail in a few Days for Gibraltar and Port Mahon.

Hague, May 1, N. S. The Marquês de Feneion, the French Ambassadour, made his publick Entry Yesterday: The States General had nominated Baron Renswoude and M. Vander Way, two of their Deputies, to receive him at the usual Place and to conduct him to Prince Maurice's House, where he is to be entertained three Days. On the 24th past died M. de Nortwyck. M. Hop, Ambassadour from the States to the Court of France, is preparing to set out To-morrow on his Return to Paris, and has their High Mightinesses Leave to quit that Embassy next Autumn and come Home. M. de Fontaine, the late Count Collyer's Secretary at Constantinople, has been written to by the States, to take Care of the Affairs of this Nation at the Ottoman Port till further Order.

Whitehall, April 9, 1725.

Whereas since the Beginning of July last, several small Silver Dishes have been lost from His Majesty's Palaces of St. James's, Kensington, and Windsor, with the King's Arms and G. R. or A. R. engraven thereon; His Majesty is graciously pleased, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in the stealing or detaining the said Plates, to promise His Pardon to any one who shall discover his Accomplice, or Accomplices, to any of the Officers of the Board of Greencloth, or Silver Scullery, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted.

TOWNSHEND.

And as a further Encouragement, the Officers of the Board of Greencloth do promise to the Person who shall make such Discovery, a Reward of Thirty Pounds to be paid on such Conviction as aforesaid.
