AT the Council-Chamber Whitehall, the 20th Day of July 1725.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in His Majesty's Privy-Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, Entituled, An Act for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and doing Injuries and Violences to the Persons and Properties of His Majesty's Subjects, and for the more speedy bringing the Offenders to Justice; it is (among other Things) Enacted, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the 1st Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty Three, being armed with Swords, Fire Arms or other offensive Weapons, and having his or their Faces blacked, or being otherwise disguised, should appear in any Forrest, Chase, Park, Paddock, or Grounds inclosed with any Wall, Pale, or other Fence, wherein any Deer had been or should be usually kept, or in any Warren or Place, where Hares or Conies had been or should be usually kept, or in any High Road, open Heath, Common or Down, or should unlawfully and willfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steal any Red or Fallow Deer, or unlawfully rob any Warren or Place where Conies or Hares were usually kept, or should unlawfully steal or take away any Fish out of any River or Pond; or if any Person or Persons from and after the said 1st Day of June, should unlawfully and willfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steal any Red or Fallow Deer fed or kept in any Places in any of His Majesty's Forrests, or Chases, which were or should be inclosed with Pales, Rails, or other Fences, or in any Park, Paddock, or Grounds inclosed, where Deer had been or should be usually kept, or should unlawfully and maliciously break down the Head or Mound of any Fish Pond, whereby the Fish should be lost or destroyed; or should unlawfully and maliciously kill, maim, or wound any Cattle, or cut down or otherwise destroy any Trees planted in any Avenue, or growing in any Garden, Orchard, or Plantation for Ornament, Shelter, or Profit, or should set Fire to any House, Barn, or Outhouse, or to any Hovel, Cock, Mow, or Stack of Corn, Straw, Hay, or Wood, or should willfully and maliciously shoot at any Person in any Dwelling-House or other Place, or should knowingly send any Letter without any Name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious Name, demanding Money, Venison, or other valuable Thing, or should forcibly rescue any Person, being lawfully in Custody of any Officer or other Person for any of the Offences beforementioned; or if any Person or Persons should, by Gift or Promise of Money or other Reward, procure any of His Majesty's Subjects to joyn him or them in any such unlawful Act, every Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, should be adjudged Guilty of Felony, and should suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy. And whereas it is by the said Act further Enacted, That for the more easy and speedy bringing the Offenders against the said Act to Justice, That if any Person or Persons should be charged with being Guilty of any of the Offences aforesaid, before any two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County where such Offence or Offences were or should be committed, by Information of one or more Credible Person or Persons upon Oath by him or them to be subscribed, such Justices before whom such Information should be made as aforesaid, should forthwith certify under their Hands and Seals, and return such Information to one of the principal Secretaries of State of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, who is by the said Act required to lay the same as soon as conveniently might be before His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in his or their Privy-Council; whereupon it should and might be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to make His or their Order in His or their said Privy Council, thereby requiring and commanding such Offender or Offenders to surrender him or themselves, within the Space of Forty Days, to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of King's-Bench, or to any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to the End that he or they might be forthcoming to answer the Offence or Offences wherewith he or they should so stand charged, according to due Course of Law; which Order should be printed and published in the next London Gazette, and should be forthwith transmitted to the Sheriff of the County where the Offence should be committed, and should, within six Days after the Receipt thereof, be proclaimed by him or his Officers between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon in the Market Places, upon the respective Market Days of two Market Towns in the same County near the Place where such Offence should have been committed, and a true Copy of such Order should be affixed upon some publick Place in such Market Towns; and in case such Offender or Offenders should not surrender him or themselves, pursuant to such Order of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to be made in Council as aforesaid, he or they so neglecting or refusing to surrender him or themselves as aforesaid, should, from the Day appointed for his or their Surrender, as aforesaid, be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be convicted and attainted of Felony, and should suffer Pains of Death as in case of a Person convicted and attainted by Verdict and Judgment of Felony without Benefit of Clergy; and that it should be lawful to and for the Court of Kings-Bench, or the Justices of Oyer and Terminer, or General Goal Delivery for the County where the Offence should be sworn in such Information to have been committed, upon producing to them such Order in Council under the Seal of the said Council, to award Execution against such Offender and Offenders in such manner as if he or they had been convicted and attainted in the said Court of King's Bench, or before such Justices of Oyer and Terminer or General Goal-Delivery respectively, as by the said Act may more fully appear. And whereas in Pursuance of the Statute in that Case made and provided, his Grace Thomas Holles Duke of Newcastle, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did this Day lay before their Excellencies the Lords Justices in His Majesty's Privy-Council, the Information of Henry Best, of the Parish of Endfield, in the County of Middlesex, one of the Keepers of His Majesty's Chase called Endfield Chase in the said County, and of Humphrey Buckle, Jun. of Barnet, in the County of Hartford, being credible Persons, taken upon their respective Oaths, the 15th Day of this Instant July, before Sir Thomas Clarges, Bart. and Nicholas Bland, Esq; two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County

{ Price Two Pence. }

County of Middlesex, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided. Which said Information was, by Certificate in Writing under the Hands and Seals of the said Sir Thomas Clarges and Nicholas Bland, bearing Date the 17th Day of this Instant July, certified and by them returned to the said Duke of Newcastle, who is, and was at the Time of making such Certificate and Return, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and which Information is in the Words and Figures following.

Middx ff. The Information of Henry Best, of the Parish of Endfield, in the said County of Middx. one of the Keepers of his Majesties Chase called Endfield Chase, in the said County; and of Humphrey Buckle, Junr of Barnet, in the County of Hartford, (being Credible Persons) taken upon their respective Oaths the Fifteenth Day of July in the Year of our Lord 1725, before Sr Thomas Clarges, Bart. and Nicholas Bland, Esq; two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, and then and there subscribed by the said Henry Best and Humphrey Buckle in the Presence of the sd Justices.

The said Henry Best upon his Oath doth inform and say, That William Gates, commonly called Vulcan, and one other Person whose Name this Informant has been told and believes to be Richard Gibbs, with divers others armed with Guns, did after the first Day of June in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty Three (viz: ) on Friday the Ninth of this Inst. July, enter and appear in Endfield-Chase aforesaid, in the said Parish of Endfield and County of Middx wherein Deer then were, and for a long time then past had been usually kept; and being so armed, did then and there unlawfully and willfully hunt and kill two Fallow Deer: And the said William Gates, commonly called Vulcan, and Richard Gibbs, did then and there willfully and maliciously shoot at him the said Henry Best, Humphrey Buckle, and Thomas Gray another Keeper of the said Chase.

And the said Humphrey Buckle upon his Oath doth inform and say, That William Gates, commonly called Vulcan, and Richard Gibbs, did, after the said first Day of June One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty Three, (viz: ) on Friday the sd Ninth Day of July, enter and appear in Endfield Chase, in the said Parish and County, and then and there did willfully and maliciously shoot at him the said Humphrey Buckle, the said Henry Best and Thos: Gray, two Keepers of the said Chase.

Hanover, July 13, O. S. On the 11th Instant in the Morning His Majesty left Pymont, and arrived at Herrenhausen that Evening in perfect Health. The Lord Viscount Townshend and his Lady returned hither from Pymont the same Day. M. Strick a Gentleman in the Service of the Duke of Holstein, has passed by this Place coming from Vienna, and intends to embark at Lubeck for Petersbourg. The City of Bremen have sent hither M. Kohn Syndick of the said City, as their Deputy to make their Compliments to His Majesty.

Paris, July 28, N. S. On the 25th Instant the Duke of Orleans, whom the King has appointed his Proxy for marrying the Princess Mary Daughter of King Stanislaus, set out from hence for Strasbourg, where that Ceremony is to be performed. The same Day Mademoiselle de Clermont, Surintendante of the Queen's Household, with several other Ladies, set out for Strasbourg, being to accompany the Queen from thence to Fontainebleau.

A Letter signed A. B. No. 3, directed to the Right Honourable Sir Robert Walpole, has been received; and if the Person who wrote the said Letter will attend him, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement.

Whereas for two Years last past the Garden and Outhouses of William Hucks, Esq; in Great Russell-Street in Bloomsbury, have been frequently robbed, great Quantities of Lead carried off, and other Goods taken away, and Damage done to a considerable Value, and the like Robberies have also been frequently committed in that Neighbourhood: In order to the Discovery and bringing to Punishment the Persons concerned in the said Robberies and Trespasses; Their Excellencies the Lords Justices are pleased to promise His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon to any one or two of the Offenders who shall Discover his or their Accomplices, so as one or more of those concerned in the Robberies may be apprehended and brought to Justice.

Ch. Delafaye.

And as a further Encouragement for such Discovery, the said William Hucks will give to any Person or Persons making the same, a Reward of Fifteen Guineas to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender, or Offenders.

Wm. Hucks.
