Fontainebleau, September 22.

ON the 10th Instant the Deputies of the Assembly General of the Clergy of France were introduced to the King with the usual Ceremonies, and by the Mouth of the Bishop of Luçon made their Compliments to his Majesty on his Marriage. The same Day they had Audience of the Queen, and the Bishop of Angers speaking for the rest, made their Compliments to her Majesty. That Day the Keeper of the Seals of France, at the Head of the Council, complimented their Majesties. And the following Days the like Duty was paid by the Deputies of the Parliament, the Deputies of the Chamber of Accompts, of the Court of Aids, of the Great Council, and of the Court of the Mint: The President of each Company making their Speeches severally. The Deputies of the University, and of the French Academy, having likewise been introduced with the usual Ceremonies to their Majesties, made their Compliments in Speeches pronounced by the Heads of each of those Societies. On the 16th our City Magistrates, the Duke de Gefvres Governour of Paris being at their Head, were introduced to the King and Queen severally, and the President Lambert Prevost. des Marchands, made their Compliments. The Duke de Gramont, Peer and Marshal of France, whose chief Employments were those of Governour and Lieutenant-General for the King in Navarre and Bearn, and Collonel of the French Guards, died at Paris the 16th Instant. He is succeeded as Collonel of the French Guards by his Son the Marquês de Souvigny.

Dublin, Sept. 7. This Day the Parliament of this Kingdom met, according to their last Prorogation. In the House of Peers the Lord Chancellor took the Oaths and his Place as Speaker; and several Lords, Spiritual and Temporal, who were introduced and sat the first Time in Parliament, took the Oaths. The Commons ordered their Speaker to issue his Warrants to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out Writs for electing several Knights of Shires and Burgesses for Boroughs, in the Room of some Members called up to the House of Peers, and of others deceased. And both Houses adjourned to this Day Fortnight the 21st Instant.

Royal Exchange Assurance-Office, Sept. 15, 1725.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their Office on the Royal Exchange, London, on Wednesday the 22d of this Instant September, at Eleven in the Forenoon, in order to declare a Dividend.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, whether concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.

TOWNSHEND.
