From Tuesday September 21. to Saturday September 25. 1725.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 23d Day of September, 1725.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council.

It was this Day ordered by their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the 30th of this Instant September, should be further prorogued to Thursday the 11th Day of November next.

Turin, Sept. 19, N. S. The King of Sardinia and the Prince of Piedmont arrived the 17th Instant at Night at the Veneria, in good Health, on their Return from their Progress in Savoy. They found there the Queen and the Princess, who went thither eight Days ago. It is thought the Court will continue at the Veneria till the Christmas Holidays.

Madrid, Sept. 17, N. S. The King has been pleased to grant to the Marquês de Monteleon the Continuation of his Appointments as Ambassadour, during his Stay here. To-Morrow he sets out for St. Ildefonso, to thank his Majesty for that Favour: It is thought that he will soon be sent Ambassadour to some Court. The Prince de Mazerano, an Italian Nobleman, and Captain of the Halberdiers at this Court, has obtained Leave of his Majesty to go to Italy for some Time. His Catholick Majesty has declared his Determination that the Contraction-House and Commerce for the West-Indies shall be removed from Cadiz to Seville; and has also appointed Don Joseph Varas President of the said Contraction-House at Seville, in the Room of Don Joseph Pardino Superintendant of the Spanish Marine, who had the said Presidentship at Cadiz. After the Marquês de Grimaldo went to St. Ildefonso, the two Portuguese Ministers likewise went to Segovia, in order to be near the Court for carrying on (through the Hands of the said Marquês) the Negotiation of the intended Marriages, between the Prince of Asturias and the Infanta of Portugal, and between the Prince of Brazil and the Infanta of Spain. Three Days after the Arrival of the said Marquês at St. Ildefonso, he was again taken ill, so as to be obliged to keep his Bed; but he is now much better. The Marquês de Castellar is likewise recovered of his late Indisposition. One M. Wolters a Swede, who was formerly in England, and came hither for Fishing for the Wrecks at Vigo. has obtained a Grant from his Catholick Majesty for opening the famous Silver and Gold Mines of Guadalcanal, Rio Tinto, Cazalla, Aracena, and Galarofa, in the Provinces of Andalusia and Estremadura; and is now taking in Subscriptions for putting his Project in Execution. Letters from Alicant say, that the Marquês de Mari was to sail with his Squadron for Cadiz.

September 25, 1725.

Richard Godfrey, Esq; one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, having since the printing of his former Account and Post-Account delivered in a further Post-Account carried to the 31st of July 1725 inclusive, and it appearing that the said Mr. Godfrey is greatly deficient in the Cash and Securities of the Suitors of the said Court; Notice is hereby given, that the said further Post-Account is printed, and that Printed Copies thereof are now put up in the Master's publick Office, and in the Register's and Six Clerks' Offices, to the Intent that all Persons concern'd may, if there are any Errors, or Defects therein, apply to the Court of Chancery in or before next Michaelmas Term for Directions concerning the same.

Treasury-Chambers, Sept. 23.

The Person who subscribed a Letter directed to the Right Honourable the Chancellour of the Exchequer, with the Letters B. F. also the Person who subscribed another Letter, directed in the same Manner, with the Letters E. J. may attend the said Chancellour of the Exchequer at his House at Chelsea, any Day before Eight a-Clock in the Morning.

Whereas divers Persons are travelling about in many Parts of the Kingdom, under the Pretence of collecting Charity Money for the Sufferers by Fire at the Town of Buckingham and other Places, by printed Letters, pretended to be signed by Justices of the Peace, and others, and particularly by the Bailiff, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the said Town of Buckingham; which printed Letters have been delivered to the Ministers and Church-Wardens of many Parishes in several of the Counties of England: These are therefore to give Notice to all Justices of the Peace, and to all Ministers, Church-Wardens, and others to whom such Persons shall come with such printed Letters, that they do not receive the same, or collect any Money thereon, for that such Collections, under the Pretence of Letters of Request or Licence (and not under the Great Seal) are contrary to Law; and that the Persons travelling with such Letters are Vagabonds, and punishable as such by Virtue of the several Statutes made for the Punishment of Vagabonds and sturdy Beggars; and that the Persons so offending will be prosecuted upon the Statutes in that Case made and provided.

South-Sea House, Sept. 23, 1725.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at the South-Sea House in Broad-street, London, on Thursday the 30th Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, being one of the Half yearly Courts appointed by the Charter, and to chuse a Committee of Seven to inspect the By-Laws.

The Court of Directors of the London Assurance Company do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Cornhill, on Friday the 30th of this Instant September, at Eleven in the Forenoon, to consider of a Dividend.

Royal Exchange Assurance-Office, Sept. 22, 1724.
The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company give Notice, That the second Payment of Twenty Pounds per Cent. on the Subscription made the 30th of June last, is to be paid on or before the 30th of this Instant September.

Westminster Insurance-Office, Sept. 23, 1725.
The Directors of the said Office do hereby give Notice, That a Half yearly General Meeting of the Contributors will be held at their Office at Tom's Coffee-House in St. Martin's-Lane near Charing-Cross, on Thursday the 14th Day of October next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, for electing Directors for the Year ensuing, and for Dispatch of other Business relating to the Society.

This is to give Notice, That the County Troop of Middlesex will be reviewed and mustered the 28th and 29th of this Instant September, on Hampstead-Heath.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.
Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was books open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, who ther concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.
